THE present grammar, which is chiefly intended for beginners, is believed to contain all the information that a student of Sanskrit is likely to want during the first two or three years of his reading. Rules referring to the language of the Vedas have been entirely excluded, for it is not desirable that the difficulties of that ancient dialect should be approached by any one who has not fully mastered the grammar of the ordinary Sanskrit such as it was fixed by Pāṇini and his successors. All allusions to cognate forms in Greek, Latin, or Gothic, have likewise been suppressed, because, however interesting and useful to the advanced student, they are apt to deprive the beginner of that clear and firm grasp of the grammatical system peculiar to the language of ancient India, which alone can form a solid foundation for the study both of Sanskrit and of Comparative Philology.

The two principal objects which I have kept in view while composing this grammar, have been clearness and correctness. With regard to clearness, my chief model has been the grammar of Bopp; with regard to correctness, the grammar of Colebrooke. If I may hope, without presumption, to have simplified a few of the intricacies of Sanskrit grammar which were but partially cleared up by Bopp, Benfey, Flecchia, and others, I can hardly flatter myself to have reached, with regard to correctness, the high standard of Colebrooke's great, though unfinished work. I can only say in self-defence, that it is far more difficult to be correct on every minute point, if one endeavours to re-arrange, as I have done, the materials collected by Pāṇini, and to adapt them to the grammatical system current in Europe, than if one follows so closely as Colebrooke, the system of native grammarians, and adopts nearly the whole of their technical terminology. The grammatical system elaborated by native grammarians is, in itself, most perfect; and those who have tested Pāṇini's work, will readily admit that there is no grammar in any language that could vie with the wonderful mechanism of his eight books of grammatical rules. But unrivalled as that system is, it is not suited to the wants of English students, least of all to the wants of beginners. While availing myself therefore of the materials collected in the grammar of Pāṇini and in later works, such as the Prakriyā-Kaumudī, the Siddhānta-Kaumudī, the Sārasvatī Prakriyā, and the Mādhaviya-dhātu-vṛitti, I have abstained, as much as possible, from introducing any more of the peculiar system and of the terminology of Indian grammarians* than has already found admittance into our Sanskrit grammars; nay, I have frequently rejected the grammatical observations supplied ready to hand in their works, in order not to overwhelm the memory of the student with too many rules and too many exceptions. Whether I have always been successful in drawing a line between what is essential in Sanskrit grammar and what is not, I must leave to the judgment of those who enjoy the good fortune of being engaged in the practical teaching of a language the students of which may be counted no longer by tens, but by hundred†

* The few alterations that I have made in the usual terminology have been made solely with a view of facilitating the work of the learner. Thus instead of numbering the ten classes of verbs, I have called each by its first verb. This relieves the memory of much unnecessary trouble, as the very name indicates the character of each class, and though the names may at first sound somewhat uncouth, they are after all the only names recognized by native grammarians. Knowing from my experience as an examiner, how difficult it is to remember the merely numerical distinction between the first, second, or third preterites, or the first and second futures, I have kept as much as possible to the terminology with which classical scholars are familiar, calling the tense corresponding to the Greek Imperfect, Imperfect; that corresponding to the Perfect, Reduplicated Perfect, that corresponding to the Aorist, Aorist, and the mood corresponding to the Optative, Optative. The names of Periphrastic Perfect and Periphrastic Future tell their own story, and if I have retained the merely numerical distinction between the First and Second Aorists, it was because this distinction seemed to be more intelligible to a classical scholar than the six or seven forms of the so-called multiform Preterite.

† In the University of Leipzig alone, as many as twenty five pupils attend the classes of Professor Brockhaus in order to acquire a knowledge of the elements of Sanskrit, previous to the study of Comparative Philology.

I only wish it to be understood that where I have left out rules or exceptions, contained in other grammars, whether native or European, I have done so after mature consideration, deliberately preferring the less complete to the more complete, but, at the same time, more bewildering statement of the anomalies of the Sanskrit language. Thus to mention one or two cases when giving the rules on the employment of the suffixes vat and mat (§ 187), I have left out the rule that bases ending in m, though the m be preceded by other vowels than a, always take vat instead of mat. I did so partly because there are very few bases ending in m partly because if a word like kim-vān should occur it would be easy to discover the reason why here too v was preferred to m viz in order to avoid the clashing of two m's. Again when giving the rules on the formation of denominatives (§ 495), I passed over, for very much the same reason, the prohibition given in Pan III 1, 8, 3 viz that bases ending in m are not allowed to form denominatives. It is true, no doubt that the omission of such rules or exceptions may be said to involve an actual misrepresentation and that a pupil might be misled to form such words as kim māt and kim yat. But this cannot be avoided in an elementary grammar, and the student who is likely to come in contact with such recondite forms will no doubt be sufficiently advanced to be able to consult for himself the rules of Pāṇini and the explanations of his commentators.

My own fear is that in writing an elementary grammar, I have erred rather in giving too much than in giving too little. I have therefore in the table of contents marked with an asterisk all such rules as may be safely left out in a first course of Sanskrit grammar, and I have in different places informed the reader whether certain portions might be passed over quickly, or should be carefully committed to memory. Here and there as for instance in § 103 a few extracts are introduced from Pāṇini, simply in order to give to the student a foretaste of what he may expect in the elaborate works of native grammarians, while lists of verbs like those contained in § 332 or § 467 are given, as everybody will see for the sake of reference only. The somewhat elaborate treatment of the nominal bases in i and ī from § 220 to § 226, became necessary, partly because in no grammar had the different paradigms of this class been correctly given, partly because it was impossible to bring out clearly the principle on which the peculiarities and apparent irregularities of these nouns are based without entering fully into the systematic arrangement of native grammarians. Of portions like this I will not say indeed, μωμεσται τις μᾶλλον ἢ μιμῆσται but I feel that I may say, यत्ने कृते यदि न सिध्यति कोऽत्र दोषः, and I know that those who will take the trouble to examine the same mass of evidence which I have weighed and examined, will be the most lenient in their judgment, if hereafter they should succeed better than I have done in unravelling the intricate argumentations of native scholars *.

But while acknowledging my obligations to the great grammarians of India it would be ungrateful were I not to acknowledge as fully, the assistance which I have derived from the works of European scholars. My first acquaintance with the elements of Sanskrit was gained from Bopp's grammar. Those only who know the works of his predecessors, of Colebrooke, Carey, Wilkins, and Forster, can appreciate the advance made by Bopp in explaining the difficulties and in lighting up, if I may say so the dark lanes and alleys of the Sanskrit language. I doubt whether Sanskrit scholarship would have flourished as it has if students had been obliged to learn their grammar from Forster or Colebrooke and I believe that to Bopp's little grammar is due a great portion of that success which has attended the study of Sanskrit literature in Germany. Colebrooke, Carey, Wilkins, and Forster worked independently of each other. Each derived his information from native teachers and from native grammars. Among these four scholars, Wilkins seems to have been the first to compose a Sanskrit grammar for he informs us that the first printed sheet of his work was destroyed by fire in 1795. The whole grammar however was not published till 1808. In the mean time Forster had finished his grammar and had actually delivered his MS. to the Council of the College of Fort William in 1804. But it was not published till 1810. The first part of Colebrooke's grammar was published in 1805 and therefore stands first in point of time of publication. Unfortunately it was not finished because the grammars of Forster and Carey were then in course of publication and would as Colebrooke imagined supply the deficient part of his own. Carey's grammar was published in 1806. Among these four publications which as first attempts at making the ancient language of India accessible to European scholars deserve the highest credit Colebrooke's grammar is facile princeps. It is derived at first hand from the best native grammars and evinces a familiarity with the most intricate problems of Hindu grammarians such as few scholars have acquired after him. No one can understand and appreciate the merits of this grammar who has not previously acquired a knowledge of the grammatical system of Pāṇini and it is a great loss to Sanskrit scholarship that so valuable a work should have remained unfinished.

* To those who have the same faith in the accurate and never swerving argumentations of Sanskrit commentators it may be a saving of time to be informed that in the new and very useful edition of the Siddhānta Kaumudi by Śrī Taranātha tarkavācāspati there are two misprints which seriously disturb the order of the rules on the proper declension of nouns in 1 and 4. On page 136 l. 7 read चिचह instead of स्त्रीचह, this is corrected in the Corrigenda and the right reading is found in the old edition. On the same page l. 13 insert न after विना, or join विनास्त्रीचोपकत्व.

I owe most indeed to Colebrooke and Bopp but I have derived many useful hints from other grammars also. There are some portions of Wilson's grammar which show that he consulted native grammarians and the fact that he possessed the remaining portion of Colebrooke's MS. gave to his list of verbs with the exception of the Bhū class which was published by Colebrooke a peculiar interest. Professor Benfey in his large grammar performed a most useful task in working up independently the materials supplied by Pāṇini and Bhattojiśikṣita and his smaller grammars too published both in German and in English have rendered good service to the cause of sound scholarship. There are besides the grammars of Boller in German of Oppert in French of Westergaard in Danish of Flechia in Italian each supplying something that could not be found elsewhere and containing suggestions many of which have proved useful to the writer of the present grammar.

But while thus rendering full justice to the honest labours of my predecessors, I am bound to say, at the same time, that with regard to doubtful or difficult forms, of which there are many in the grammar of the Sanskrit language, not one of them can be appealed to as an ultimate authority. Every grammar contains, as is well known, a number of forms which occur but rarely, if ever, in the literary language. It is necessary, however, for the sake of systematic completeness, to give these forms; and if they are to be given at all, they must be given on competent authority. Now it might be supposed that a mere reference to any of the numerous grammars already published would be sufficient for this purpose, and that the lists of irregular or unusual forms might safely be copied from their pages. But this is by no means the case. Even with regard to regular forms, whoever should trust implicitly in the correctness of any of the grammars, hitherto published, would never be certain of having the right form. I do not say this lightly, or without being able to produce proofs. When I began to revise my manuscript grammar which I had composed for my own use many years ago, and, when on points on which I felt doubtful, I consulted other grammars, I soon discovered either that, with a strange kind of sequacity, they all repeated the same mistake, or that they varied widely from each other, without assigning any reason or authority. I need not say that the grammars which we possess differ very much in the degree of their trustworthiness; but with the exception of the first volume of Colebrooke and of Professor Benfey's larger Sanskrit grammar, it would be impossible to appeal to any of my predecessors as an authority on doubtful points. Forster and Carey, who evidently depend almost entirely on materials supplied to them by native assistants, give frequently the most difficult forms with perfect accuracy, while they go wildly wrong immediately after, without, it would seem, any power of controlling their authorities. The frequent inaccuracies in the grammars of Wilkins and Wilson have been pointed out by others; and however useful these works may have been for practical purposes, they were never intended as authorities on contested points of Sanskrit grammar.

Nothing remained in fact, in order to arrive at any satisfactory result, but to collate the whole of my grammar, with regard not only to the irregular but likewise to the regular forms, with Pāṇini and other native grammarians, and to supply for each doubtful case, and for rules that might seem to differ from those of any of my predecessors, a reference to Pāṇini or to other native authorities. This I have done, and in so doing I had to re-write nearly the whole of my grammar, but though the time and trouble expended on this work have been considerable, I believe that they have not been bestowed in vain. I only regret that I did not give these authoritative references throughout the whole of my work, because, even where there cannot be any difference of opinion, some of my readers might thus have been saved the time and trouble of looking through Pāṇini to find the Sūtras that bear on every form of the Sanskrit language.

By this process which I have adopted, I believe that on many points a more settled and authoritative character has been imparted to the grammar of Sanskrit than it possessed before, but I do by no means pretend to have arrived on all points at a clear and definite view of the meaning of Pāṇini and his successors. The grammatical system of Hindu grammarians is so peculiar, that rules which we should group together, are scattered about in different parts of their manuals. We may have the general rule in the last, and the exceptions in the first book, and even then we are by no means certain that exceptions to these exceptions may not occur somewhere else. I shall give but one instance. There is a root जग् jāgr, which forms its Aorist by adding इष isham, इः ih, इत् it. Here the simplest rule would be that final ऋ ri before इष isham becomes र r (Pān. VI 1, 77). This, however, is prevented by another rule which requires that final ऋ ri should take Guna before इष isham (Pān. VII 3, 84). This would give us जगारिष ajāgar-isham. But now comes another general rule (Pān. VII 2, 1) which prescribes Viddhi of final vowels before इष isham, i.e. जगारिष ajāgarisham. Against this change, however, a new rule is cited (Pān. VII. 3, 85), and this secures for जग् jāgr a special exception from Viddhi, and leaves its base again as जग् jāgar. As soon as the base has been changed to जग् jāgar, it falls under a new rule (Pān. VII 2, 3), and is forced to take Viddhi, until this rule is again nullified by Pān. VII

2, 4 which does not allow Vṛiddhi in an Aorist that takes intermediate इ like अजागृक्षि ajāgāṣṣi am. There is an exception however to this rule also for bases with short अ a beginning and ending with a consonant may optionally take Vṛiddhi (Pan VII 2 7). This option is afterwards restricted and roots with short अ a beginning with a consonant and ending in र r, like जागर jāgar have no option left but are restricted afresh to Vṛiddhi (Pan VII 2 2). However, even this is not yet the final result. Our base जागर jāgar is after all not to take Vṛiddhi and hence a new special rule (Pan VII 2 5) settles the point by granting to जागृ jāgrī a special exception from Vṛiddhi and thereby establishing its Guna. No wonder that these manifold changes and chances in the formation of the First Aorist of जागृ jāgrī should have inspired a grammarian who celebrates them in the following couplet

गुणो वृद्धिर्गुणो वृद्धिः प्रतिषेधो विकल्पन ।
पुनर्वृद्धिर्निषेधोऽतो यत्पूर्वा प्राप्यो नय ॥

Guna Vṛiddhi Guna, Vṛiddhi prohibition option again Vṛiddhi and then exception these with the change of र r into a semivowel in the first instance are the nine results.

Another difficulty consists in the want of critical accuracy in the editions which we possess of Panini the Siddhanta Kaumudī the Laghu Kaumudī the Sarasvatī and Vopadeva. Far be it from me to wish to detract from the merits of native editors like Dharamidhara Kaśinītha, Tārīnātha, still less from those of Professor Boehtlingk, who published his text and notes nearly thirty years ago when few of us were able to read a single line of Panini. But during those thirty years considerable progress has been made in unravelling the mysteries of the grammatical literature of India. The commentary of Śiṣyama to the Rig veda has shown us how practically to apply the rules of Panini and the translation of the Laghu Kaumudī by the late Dr Ballantyne has enabled even beginners to find their way through the labyrinth of native grammar. The time has come I believe for new and critical editions of Panini and his commentators. A few instances may suffice to show the insecurity of our ordinary editions. The commentary to Pan VII 2 47 as well as the Sarasvatī II. 25 1 gives the Benedictive Aṅgīrāpāda यदीदीर yadīdīra and यदीदीर startshushṭa yet a reference to Pan VII 2 39 and 40 shows that these forms are impossible. Again if Panini (VIII 3 92) is right in using अग्रगमिनि agragāmini with a dental n in the last syllable, it is clear that he extends the prohibition given in VIII 4 34 with regard to Upasargas to other compounds. It is useless to inquire whether in doing so he was right or wrong for it is an article of faith with every Hindu grammarian that whatever word is used by Panini in his Sūtras is eo ipso correct. Otherwise the rules affecting compounds with Upasargas are by no means identical with those that affect ordinary compounds and though it may be right to argue a fortiori from प्रगमिनि pragāmini to अग्रगमिनि agragāmini it would not be right to argue from अग्रयान agrayāna to प्रयान prayāna this being necessarily प्रयाण prayāṇa. But assuming अग्रगमिनि agragāmini to be correct it is quite clear that the compounds सगकामिणी śargakāminī, वृषगमिणी vrishagāminī, हरिकामिणी harikāminī and हरिकामेण harikāmena given in the commentary to VIII 4 13 are all wrong though most of them occur not only in the printed editions of Panini and the Siddhanta Kaumudī but may be traced back to the MSS of the Prakriyā Kaumudī the source though by no means the model of the Siddhanta Kaumudī. I was glad to learn from my friend Professor Goldstucker who is preparing an edition of the Kaśika Vṛtti and whom I consulted on these forms that the MSS of Vāmana which he possesses carefully avoid these faulty examples to Pan VIII 4 13.

After these explanations I need hardly add that I am not so sanguine as to suppose that I could have escaped scot free where so many men of superior knowledge and talent have failed to do so. All I can say is that I shall be truly thankful to any scholar who will take the trouble to point out any mistakes into which I may have fallen and I hope that I shall never so far forget the regard due to truth as to attempt to represent simple corrections touching the declension of nouns or the conjugation of verbs as matters of opinion or so far lower the character of true scholarship as to appeal from the verdict of the few to the opinion of the many.

Hearing from my friend Professor Buhler that he had finished a Sanskrit Syntax based on the works of Pāṇini and other native grammarians which will soon be published I gladly omitted that portion of my grām̐mar The rules on the derivation of nouns, by means of Krit, Unādi, and Taddhita suffixes, do not properly belong to the sphere of an elementary grammar If time and health permit, I hope to publish hereafter, as a separate treatise, the chapter of the Prakriyā-Kaumudī bearing on this subject

In the list of verbs which I have given as an Appendix, pp 245-299, I have chiefly followed the Prakriyā Kaumudī and the Sārasvatī These grammars do not conjugate every verb that occurs in the Dhātupātha, but those only that serve to illustrate certain grammatical rules Nor do they adopt, like the Siddhānta-Kaumudī, the order of the verbs as given in Panini's Dhātupātha, but they group the verbs of each class according to their voices, treating together those that take the terminations of the Parasmai pada, those that take the terminations of the Ātmanepada, and, lastly, those that admit of both voices In each of these subdivisions, again, the single verbs are so arranged as best to illustrate certain grammatical rules In making a new selection among the verbs selected by Rāmachandra and Anubhūtasvarūpachārya, I have given a preference to those which occur more frequently in Sanskrit literature, and to those which illustrate some points of grammar of peculiar interest to the student In this manner I hope that the Appendix will serve two purposes it will not only help the student, when doubtful as to the exact forms of certain verbs, but it will likewise serve as a useful practical exercise to those who, taking each verb in turn, will try to account for the exact forms of its persons, moods, and tenses by a reference to the rules of this grammar In some cases references have been added to guide the student, in others he has to find by himself the proper warranty for each particular form

My kind friends Professor Cowell and Professor Kielhorn have revised some of the proof-sheets of my grammar, for which I beg to express to them my sincere thanks

MAX MULLER.

CHAPTER I

THE ALPHABET

§ 1. SANSKRIT is properly written with the Devanāgarī alphabet; but the Bengali, Telugu, and other modern Indian alphabets are commonly employed for writing Sanskrit in their respective provinces

Note—Devanāgarī means the Nāgarī of the gods, or, possibly, of the Brāhmins. A more current style of writing used by Hindus in all common transactions where Hindi is the language employed, is called simply Nāgarī. Why the alphabet should have been called Nāgarī, is unknown. If derived from nagara, city, it might mean the art of writing as first practised in cities (Pān 1v 2, 128). No authority has yet been adduced from any ancient author for the employment of the word Devanāgarī. In the Lalitā vistara (a life of Buddha, translated from Sanskrit into Chinese 76 A D), where a list of alphabets is given, the Devanāgarī is not mentioned, unless it be intended by the Dera alphabet. (See History of Ancient Sanskrit Literature, p 518). Al-Burūnī in the 11th century, speaks of the Nagara alphabet as current in Malva. (Reinaud, Mémoire sur l'Inde, p 298)

No inscriptions have been met with in India anterior to the rise of Buddhism. The earliest authentic specimens of writing are the inscriptions of king Priyadarśi or Aśoka, about 250 B C. These are written in two different alphabets. The alphabet which is found in the inscription of Kapurdigim and which in the main is the same as that of the Aramanian coins, is written from right to left. It is clearly of Semitic origin and most closely connected with the Aramaic branch of the old Semitic or Phœnician alphabet. The Aramaic letters however, which we know from Egyptian and Palmyrenian inscriptions, have experienced further changes since they served as the model for the alphabet of Kapurdigim, and we must have recourse to the more primitive types of the ancient Hebrew coins and of the Phœnician inscriptions in order to explain some of the letters of the Kapurdigim alphabet.

But while the transition of the Semitic types into this ancient Indian alphabet can be proved with scientific precision, the second Indian alphabet, that which is found in the inscription of Gurnar, and which is the real source of all other Indian alphabets, as well as of those of Tibet and Burmah, has not as yet been traced back in a satisfactory manner to any Semitic prototype (Prinsep's Indian Antiquities by Thomas, vol. II p 42). To admit, however, the independent invention of a native Indian alphabet is impossible. Alphabets were never invented in the usual sense of that word. They were formed gradually and purely phonetic alphabets always point back to earlier, syllabic or ideographic, stages. There are no such traces of the growth of an alphabet on Indian soil, and it is to be hoped that new discoveries may still bring to light the intermediate links by which the alphabet of Gumar, and through it the modern Devanāgarī, may be connected with one of the leading Semitic alphabets

Note—Sanskṛita (संस्कृत) means what is rendered fit or perfect. But Sanskṛit is not called so because the Brāhmanas, or still less, because the first Europeans who became acquainted with it, considered it the most perfect of all languages. Sanskṛita meant what is rendered fit for sacred purposes, hence purified, sacred. A vessel that is purified, a sacrificial victim that is properly dressed, a man who has passed through all the initiatory rites or samskāras, all these are called sanskṛita. Hence the language which alone was fit for sacred acts, the ancient idiom of the Vedas, was called Sanskṛita, or the sacred language. The local spoken dialects received the general name of prākṛita. This did not mean originally vulgar, but derived, secondary, second rate, literally 'what has a source or type,' this source or type (prakṛiti) being the Sanskrit or sacred language. (See Vararuchi's Prākṛita Prakāśa, ed Cowell, p. xvii.)

§ 3 In writing the Devanāgarī alphabet, the distinctive portion of each letter is written first, then the perpendicular, and lastly the horizontal line. Ex. अ, क, ख k, ब, घ, ङ kh, ङ, ग g, च, ण, य gh; ङ, ङ न, &c

Beginners will find it useful to trace the letters on transparent paper, till they know them well, and can write them fluently and correctly.

§ 4 The following are the sounds which are represented in the Devanāgarī alphabet

	Hard and unsoftened	Soft	Soft and unsoftened	Vowels	Diphthongs
1 Gutturals,	ॠ ॡ ॢ ॣ
2 Palatals,	। ॥ ० ॥
3 Linguals,	० ॥ ० ॥
4 Dentals,	० ॥ ० ॥
5 Labials,	० ॥ ० ॥

Unmodified Nasal or Anusvāra, ँ m or ञ m

Unmodified Sibilant or Visarga, ः h

Students should be cautioned against using the Roman letters instead of the Devanāgarī when beginning to learn Sanskrit. The paradigms should

1 In the Veda ङ d and ङ kh if between two vowels are in certain schools written ङ h and ङ h

2 ङ h is not properly a liquid, but a soft breathing

3 य e is sometimes called Dento-labial

4 The signs for the guttural and labial sibilants have become obsolete, and are replaced by the two dots ः ङ be impressed on the memory in their real and native form, otherwise their first impressions will become unsettled and indistinct. After some progress has been made in mastering the grammar and in reading Sanskrit, the Roman alphabet may be used safely and with advantage.

§ 5 There are fifty letters in the Devanâgarî alphabet, thirty-seven consonants and thirteen vowels, representing every sound of the Sanskrit language.

§ 6 One letter, the long ṛ, is merely a grammatical invention, it never occurs in the spoken language.

§ 7 Two sounds, the guttural and labial sibilants, are now without distinctive representatives in the Devanâgarî alphabet. They are called Jihvāmūliya, the tongue-root sibilant, formed near the base of the tongue, and Upadhmanīya, the afflandus, the labial sibilant. They are said to have been represented by the signs X (called Vajrākṛiti, having the shape of the thunderbolt) and 𑖅 (called Gayakumbhākṛiti, having the shape of an elephant's two frontal bones) [See Vopadeva's Sanskrit Grammar, i 18, History of Ancient Sanskrit Literature, p 508]. Sometimes the sign 𑖅, called Ardhavisarga, half-Visarga, is used for both. But in common writing these two signs are now replaced by the two dots, the Dvindu, ∴, (du, two, *vin*du, dot,) properly the sign of the unmodified Visarga.

§ 8 There are five distinct letters for the five nasals, ङ ṅ, ञ ṇ, ण ṇ, न n, म m, as there were originally five distinct signs for the five sibilants. When, in the middle of words, these nasals are followed by consonants of their own class, (ṅ by k, kh, g, gh, ṇ by ch, chh, j, jh, ṇ by t, th, d, dh, n by t, th, d, dh, m by p, ph, b, bh,) they are often, for the sake of more expeditious writing, replaced by the dot, which is properly the sign of the unmodified nasal or Anusvāra. Thus we find अङ्किता instead of अङ्किता ankitā.

अञ्चिता instead of अञ्चिता anchitā

कुङ्किता instead of कुङ्किता kunditā

नङ्किता instead of नङ्किता nanditā

कङ्किता instead of कङ्किता kampitā

The pronunciation remains unaffected by this style of writing. अङ्किता must be pronounced as if it were written अङ्किता ankitā, &c.

The same applies to final म m at the end of a sentence. This too, though frequently written and printed with the dot above the line, is to be pronounced as m. अहम्, I, is to be pronounced like अहम् aham. (See Preface to Hitopadeśa, in M M's Handbooks for the Study of Sanskrit, p viii.)

Note—According to the Kaumara final म m is pausa may be pronounced as Anusvāra, of Sarasvatī Prakriyā ed Bombay, 1829 *, pp 12 and 13 कौमारान्वयमानेऽयनुस्वारमिच्छति । अयमाने वा । अयमाने मुकारस्यानुस्वारो भवति २३ । देव । देयम् ॥ The Kaumāras are the followers of Kumārā, the reputed author of the Ātāntra or Ālāpa grammar (See Colebrooke Sanskrit Grammar Preface, and page 315 note) Sarvaśarman is sometimes quoted by mistake as the author of this grammar, and an unnecessary distinction is made between the Kaumāras and the followers of the Ālāpa grammar

§ 9 Besides the five nasal letters, expressing the nasal sound as modified by guttural, palatal, lingual, dental, and labial pronunciation, there are still three nasalized letters, the ञ्, ञ्, ञ्, or य्, ल्, व्, ञ्, ल्, व्, which are used to represent a final म् m, if followed by an initial य् y, ल् l, व् v, and modified by the pronunciation of these three semivowels

Thus instead of त याति taṃ yaṭi we may write तय्याति taṃ yaṭi, instead of त लभते taṃ labhate we may write तल्लभते taṃ labhate, instead of त वहति taṃ vahati we may write तव्वहति taṃ vahati

Or in composition,

सयान samyānam or सय्यान saṃ yānam,
सलम् samlabdhām or सल्लम् saṃ labdhām,
सवहति samvahaṭi or सव्वहति saṃ vahaṭi

§ 10 The only consonants which have no corresponding nasals are र r, श ś, स s, ह h A final म् m, therefore, before any of these letters at the beginning of words, can only be represented by the neutral or unmodified nasal, the Anusvāra

त रक्षति taṃ rakṣati	Or in composition, सरक्षति samrakṣati
त शृणोति taṃ śṛṇoti	संशृणोति samsrṇoti
त शकार taṃ śakāram	संशोयति saṃ śoṃyati
त सरति taṃ sarati	ससरति samsarati
त हरति taṃ harati	सहरति samharati

§ 11 In the body of a word the only letters which can be preceded by Anusvāra are ञ ś, य ś, स s, ह h Thus अम्ब aṃbā, धनुषि dhanuṣi, यशसि yaśasi, सिंह siṃha Before the semivowels य् y, र् r, ल् l, व् v, the म् m, in the body of a word, is never changed into Anusvāra Thus गम्यते gamyate, नम्र namra, अम्ब aṃbā As to म् m before semivowels in the middle of compounds, see § 9

§ 12 With the exception of Jihvāmūliya × χ (tongue-root letter), Upadh māniya × φ (to be breathed upon), Anusvāra × m (after-sound), Visarga × h (emission, see Taitt. Brāhma. III p 23 a), and Repha × r (burring), all letters

* This edit on which has lately been reprinted contains the text—अस्मै either to Vān herself i.e. Sarasvatī the goddess of speech (MS Bodl 386) or to Anubhūti svarūpa śāchārya, whoever that may be—and a commentary The commentary printed in the Bombay edit on is called महोपरी or in MS Bodl 382 मीदासी i.e. महोदासी In MS Bodl 382 Mahidhara or Mahidhara is said to have written the Sarasvatī in order that his children might read it, and to please the Lord The date given is 1634 the place Benares (Sivarādhant) are named in Sanskrit by adding kāra (making) to their sounds. Thus ए a is called एकार akārah क ka, ककार lakārah

§ 13 The vowels, if initial, are written,

अ, आ, इ, ई, ऋ, ॠ, ए, ऐ, ओ, औ, अ, d, t, l, r, h, (ll), u, v, e, ai, o, au

if they follow a consonant, they are written with the following signs—

$\alpha, \beta, \gamma, \delta, \epsilon, \zeta, \eta, \theta, \iota, \kappa, \lambda, \mu, \nu, \xi, \omicron, \pi, \rho, \sigma, \tau, \upsilon, \phi, \chi, \psi, \omega, \alpha, \beta, \gamma, \delta, \epsilon, \zeta, \eta, \theta, \iota, \kappa, \lambda, \mu, \nu, \xi, \omicron, \pi, \rho, \sigma, \tau, \upsilon, \phi, \chi, \psi, \omega$

There is one exception. If the vowel अ follows the consonant र, it retains its initial form, and the र is written over it. Ex. निरुति niruti

In certain words which tolerate an hiatus in the body of the word, the second vowel is written in its initial form. Ex गोस्य goagra, adj preceded by cows, instead of गोस्य go'gra or गवाय gaidāgra गोशय goasham, cows and horses, प्रङ्ग prauga, yoke, तित्त tittau, sieve

§ 14 Every consonant, if written by itself is supposed to be followed by a short a. Thus क is not pronounced k, but ka य not y, but ya. But क k or any other consonant, if followed by any vowel except a, is pronounced without the inherent a. Thus

का ka, कि ki, को ko, कृ kr, क्री kri, क्ली kli, (क्ली kli) कु ku, कू ku, के ke, कै kai,
को ko, कौ kau

The only peculiarity is that short f : is apparently written before the consonant after which it is sounded. This arose from the fact that in the earliest forms of the Indian alphabet the long and short : 's were both written over the consonant, the short : inclining to the left, the long : inclining to the right. Afterwards these top marks were, for the sake of distinctness drawn across the top line so as to become फ़ and व़, instead of फ and व. (See Prinsep's Indian Antiquities by Thomas, vol. II p 42.)

§ 15 If a consonant is to be pronounced without any vowel after it, the consonant is said to be followed by Virama i.e. stoppage, which is marked by \. Thus ak must be written अक, kar, कर, ik, इक

§ 16 If a consonant is followed immediately by another consonant, the two or three or four or five or more consonants are written in one group (samyoga). Thus atka is written अत्क, alpa is written अल्प, karṣaṇa is written कर्षण. These groups or compound consonants must be learnt by practice. It is easy, however, to discover some general laws in their formation. Thus the perpendicular and horizontal lines are generally dropped in one of the letters क + क = क् kka न् + द = न्द nda त् + र = त्र tra, न् + ज = न्ज nja ख + य = य्य chya प + त = प्त pta क + त = क्त kta, न् + त् + य = न्त्य nty

§ 17. The र following a consonant is written by a short transverse stroke at the foot of the letter; as क्+र=क़ kr or क kra; ग्+र=ग्र gra; त्+र=त़ tr or त tra; द्+र=द़ dr; प्+द्+र=प़ shtra.

The र preceding a consonant is written by ' placed at the top of the consonant before which it is to be sounded. Thus अर्+क=अर्क arka; अर्+प=अर्प arshma. This sign for र is placed to the right of any other marks at the top of the same letter. Ex. अर्क arkam; अर्कण arkena; अर्कंद arkendū.

क k followed by श sh is written क़ ksha.

ज j followed by ञ ñ is written ज्ञ jña.

र r followed by उ u and ऊ ū is written रु ru, रू rū.

द d followed by उ u and ऊ ū is written दु du, दू dū.

र्, particularly in combination with other letters, is frequently written र्.

Ex. रु ru; रू rū; र ra.

§ 18. The sign of Virāma (stoppage), which if placed at the foot of a consonant, shows that its inherent short a is stopped, is sometimes, when it is difficult to write (or to print) two or three consonants in one group, placed after one of the consonants: thus युक्ते instead of युक्ते yukte.

§ 19. The proper use of the Virāma, however, is at the end of a sentence, or portion of a sentence, the last word of which ends in a consonant.

At the end of a sentence, or of a half-verse, the sign ॥ is used; at the end of a verse, or of a longer sentence, the sign ॥.

§ 20. The sign ॥ (Avagraha or Arddhākāra) is used in many editions to mark the elision of an initial अ a, after a final ओ o or ए e. Ex. सोऽपि so'pi for सो अपि so api, i. e. सप्त अपि sas api; तेऽपि te'pi for ते अपि te api.

Numerical Figures

§ 21 The numerical figures in Sanskrit are

१	२	३	४	५	६	७	८	९	०
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	0

These figures were originally abbreviations of the initial letters of the Sanskrit numerals. The Arabs, who adopted them from the Hindus, called them Indian figures, in Europe, where they were introduced by the Arabs, they were called Arabic figures

Thus १ stands for e of एक ekah, one

२ stands for di of द्वौ drau, two.

३ stands for tr of त्रय trayah, three

४ stands for ch of चत्वार chattarah, four

५ stands for p of पञ्च pancha, five

The similarity becomes more evident by comparing the letters and numerals as used in ancient inscriptions. See Woepcke, 'Mémoire sur la Propagation des Chiffres Indiens,' in Journal Asiatique, vi^e série, tome 1, Prinsep's Indian Antiquities by Thomas, vol II, p 70

Pronunciation

§ 22 The Sanskrit letters should be pronounced in accordance with the transcription given page 2 The following rules, however, are to be observed.

1. The vowels should be pronounced like the vowels in Italian The short अ, however, has rather the sound of the English a in 'America'
2. The aspiration of the consonants should be heard distinctly. Thus क kh is said, by English scholars who learnt Sanskrit in India, to sound almost like kh in 'inkhorn,' च th like th in 'pothouse,' फ ph like ph in 'topheavy,' घ gh like gh in 'loghouse,' ड dh like dh in 'madhouse,' ढ ḍh like ḍh in 'Hobhouse' Thus, no doubt, is a somewhat exaggerated description, but it is well in learning Sanskrit to distinguish from the first the aspirated from the unaspirated letters by pronouncing the former with an unmistakable emphasis.
3. The guttural ट ṭ has the sound of ng in 'king'
4. The palatal letters च ch and ज j have the sound of ch in 'church' and of j in 'join'
5. The lingual letters are said to be pronounced by bringing the lower surface of the tongue against the roof of the palate As a matter of fact the ordinary pronunciation of t, d, n in English is what Hindus would call lingual, and it is essential to distinguish the Sanskrit dentals by bringing the tip of the tongue against the very edge of the upper front teeth In transcribing English words the natives naturally represent the English dentals by their linguals, not by their own dentals, e.g. डिरेक्टर Direktor, गवर्नमेन्ट Gavarnmant, &c *
6. The Visarga, Jihvāmūliya and Upadhāniya are not now articulated audibly
7. The dental स s sounds like s in 'sin,' the lingual श sh like sh in 'shun,' the palatal ष ṣ like ss in 'session'

The real Anusvāra is sounded as a very slight nasal, like n in French 'bon' If the dot is used as a graphic sign in place of the other five nasals it must, of course, be pronounced like the nasal which it represents †

* Buhler Madras Literary Journal February 1864 Rajendralal Mitra, 'On the Origin of the Hindvi Language' Journal of the Asiatic Society, Bengal 1864 p 509

† According to Sanskrit grammarians the Anusvāra is pronounced in the nose only the five nasals by their respective organs and the nose Siddh Kaum to Pān I, 9 ममद-यनाना नासिका च (पकोष्ठे स्वस्ववर्गोच्चाद्यनुदूल नासादि समुधीयते) ॥ नासिकानुस्वारस्य ॥

CHAPTER II

RULES OF SANDHI OR THE COMBINATION OF LETTERS

§ 23 In Sanskrit every sentence is considered as one unbroken chain of syllables. Except where there is a stop, which we should mark by interpunction, the final letters of each word are made to coalesce with the initial letters of the following word. This coalescence of final and initial letters, (of vowels with vowels, of consonants with consonants, and of consonants with vowels,) is called Sandhi.

As certain letters in Sanskrit are incompatible with each other, and cannot be pronounced one immediately after the other, they have to be modified or assimilated in order to facilitate their pronunciation. The rules, according to which either one or both letters are thus modified, are called the rules of Sandhi.

As according to a general rule the words in a sentence must thus be glued together, the mere absence of Sandhi is in many cases sufficient to mark the stops which we have to mark in English by interpunction. Ex. अस्त्वग्निमाहात्म्य इन्द्रो देवाना महत्तमः astwagnimāhātmyam, indrastu devānām mahattamah, Let there be the greatness of Agni, nevertheless Indra is the greatest of the gods.

Distinction between External and Internal Sandhi

§ 24 It is essential, in order to avoid confusion, to distinguish between the rules of Sandhi which determine the changes of final and initial letters of words (padas), and between those other rules of Sandhi which apply to the final letters of verbal roots (dhātu) and nominal bases (prātipadika) when followed by certain terminations or suffixes. Though both are based on the same phonetic principles and are sometimes identical, their application is different. For shortness' sake it will be best to apply the name of External Sandhi to the changes which take place at the meeting of final and initial letters of words, and that of Internal Sandhi to the changes produced by the meeting of radical and formative elements.

The rules which apply to final and initial letters of words (padas) apply, with few exceptions, to the final and initial letters of the component parts of compounds, and likewise to the final letters of nominal bases (prātipadika) when followed by the so-called Pada terminations (अः bhyum, मि bhih, अच् bhyah, सु su), or by secondary (taddhita) suffixes beginning with any consonants except y.

The changes produced by the contact of incompatible letters in the body of a word should properly be treated under the heads of declension, conjugation, and derivation. In many cases it is far easier to remember the words ready-made from the dictionary, or the grammatical paradigms from the grammar, than to acquire the complicated rules with their numerous exceptions which are generally detailed in Sanskrit grammars under the head of Sandhi. It is easier to learn that the participle passive of लिह lih, to lick, is लीढ lidhak, than to remember the rules according to which ह + लृ + त are changed into ड + लृ + त, ड + धृ + त, and ड + दृ + त, d is dropt and the vowel lengthened while in परिपृह + त pariprih + taḥ, the vowel, under the same circumstances, remains short. pariprih + taḥ = paripridh + taḥ paripriḥ + dhah = pariprid + dhah = paripridhak. In Greek and Latin no rules are given with regard to changes of this kind. If they are to be given at all in Sanskrit grammars, they should, to avoid confusion, be kept perfectly distinct from the rules affecting the final and initial letters of words as brought together in one and the same sentence.

Classification of Vowels

§ 25 Vowels are divided into short (hrasva), long (dirgha), and protracted (pluta) vowels. Short vowels have one measure (mātrā), long vowels two, protracted vowels three. A consonant is said to last half the time of a short vowel!

1 Short vowels अ a, इ i, उ u, ए e, ओ o, औ au

2 Long vowels आ ā, ई ī, ऊ ū, ऐ ai, औ au

3 Protracted vowels are indicated by the figure ३३, अ३ a3, आ३ ā3, इ३ i3, ई३ ī3, उ३ u3, औ३ au3. Sometimes we find अ३३ a33, instead of अ३, e3, or आ३३ ā33, instead of औ३, au3.

§ 26 Vowels are likewise divided into

1 Monophthongs (samānāṅkshara) अ a, आ ā, इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ए e, ओ o, औ au

2 Diphthongs (sandhyakṣhara) ऐ ai, औ au

§ 27 All vowels are liable to be nasalized or to become anunaska ञ añ, ञ āñ

§ 28 Vowels are again divided into light (laghu) and heavy (guru). This division is important for metrical purposes.

1 Light vowels are अ a, इ i, उ u, ए e, ओ o, औ au, if not followed by a double consonant.

2 Heavy vowels are आ ā, ई ī, ऊ ū, ऐ ai, औ au, and any short vowel, if followed by more than one consonant.

§ 29 Vowels are, lastly, divided according to accent, into acute (udatta), grave (anudatta), and circumflexed (svarita). The acute vowels are pronounced with a raised tone, the grave vowels with a low, the circumflexed with an even tone. Accents are marked in Vedic literature only.

Guna and Viddhi

§ 30. Guna is the strengthening of इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ए e, ओ o, औ au, by means of a preceding अ a which raises इ i and ई ī to ऐ ai, उ u and ऊ ū to औ au, ए e and ओ o to ए ai, औ au to ए ai, औ au to ए ai.

It is easier to learn that the participle passive of लिह lih, to lick, is लीढः līdhah, than to remember the rules according to which इ + र्ह + त are changed into इ + र्ह + त, इ + यद् + द्ध, and इ + द् + द्ध, इ + द is dropt and the vowel lengthened while in परिवृह + त parivṛh + taḥ, the vowel, under the same circumstances, remains short; parivṛh + taḥ = parivṛdh + taḥ, parivṛd + dhah = parivṛd + dhah = parivṛdhah. In Greek and Latin no rules are given with regard to changes of this kind. § 26 Vowels are likewise divided into

1 Monophthongs (samānāḥshara) अ a, आ ā, इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au.

2 Diphthongs (sandhyakshara) ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au.

§ 27 All vowels are liable to be nasalized, or to become anunasika अँ ā̃, ईँ ī̃.

§ 28 Vowels are again divided into light (laghu) and heavy (guru). This division is important for metrical purposes.

1 Light vowels are अ a, इ i, उ u, ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au, if not followed by a double consonant.

2 Heavy vowels are आ ā, ई ī, ऊ ū, and any short vowel, if followed by more than one consonant.

§ 29 Vowels are, lastly, divided according to accent, into acute (udāṭṭa), grave (anudāṭṭa), and circumflexed (svanīta). The acute vowels are pronounced with a raised tone, the grave vowels with a low, the circumflexed with an even tone. Accents are marked in Vedic literature only.

Guna and Viddhi

§ 30 Guna is the strengthening of इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au, by means of a preceding अ a, which raises इ i and ई ī to ऐ ai, उ u and ऊ ū to औ au, ए e and ऐ ai to ए ai, ओ o and औ au to ओ au.

By a repetition of the same process the Viddhi (increase) vowels are formed, viz ऐ ai instead of ऐ e, औ au instead of औ o, आर् ār instead of आ ar, and आर्ल āl instead of आल् al

Vowels are thus divided again into

- 1 Simple vowels आ, आर्, इ, ई, उ, ऊ, एर, एर्, लृ
- 2 Guna vowels ए (a + i), ओ (a + u), आर् ar, आर्ल al
- 3 Viddhi vowels आर्ल ऐर् (a + a + i), और् (a + a + u), आर् ār, आर्ल āl

§ 31 आ a and आर् ar do not take Guna, or, as other grammarians say, remain unchanged after taking Guna. Thus in the first person sing of the reduplicated perfect, which requires Guna or Viddhi, हन् han forms with Guna जघन् jaghana, or with Viddhi जघान् jaghāna, I have killed

Combination of Vowels at the end and beginning of words

§ 32 As a general rule, Sanskrit allows of no hiatus (virpiti) in a sentence. If a word ends in a vowel, and the next word begins with a vowel, certain modifications take place in order to remove this hiatus

§ 33 If any simple vowel, long or short, follows the same simple vowel, long or short, the two coalesce into their corresponding long vowel. Thus

$$\begin{aligned} \text{अ or आ + अ or आ} &= \text{आ } \bar{a} + \bar{a} = \bar{a} \\ \text{इ or ई + इ or ई} &= \text{ई } \bar{i} + \bar{i} = \bar{i} \\ \text{उ or ऊ + उ or ऊ} &= \text{ऊ } \bar{u} + \bar{u} = \bar{u} \\ \text{ए or ए + ए or ए} &= \text{एर् } \bar{r} + \bar{r} = \bar{r} \end{aligned}$$

Ex उक्ता अपगच्छति = उक्तापगच्छति ukta + apagachchati = uktrāpogachchati, having spoken he goes away

नदी ईदृशी = नदीदृशी nadī + idrī = nadīdṛśī, such a river

कर्तुं चतु = कर्तुंच kartu + cātu = kartūc, doing (neuter) right

किन्तु उदेति = किन्तुदेति kintu + udeti = kintūdeti, but he rises

Or in compounds, मही + ईश = महीश mahī + īśa = mahīśa, lord of the earth

§ 34 If final आ, आर् are followed by any other vowel (except diphthongs), the two vowels coalesce into the corresponding Guna-vowel. Thus

$$\begin{aligned} \text{अ or आ + इ or ई} &= \text{ए } \bar{a} + \bar{i} = \bar{e} \text{ (ai)} \\ \text{अ or आ + उ or ऊ} &= \text{ओ } \bar{a} + \bar{u} = \bar{o} \text{ (āu)} \\ \text{अ or आ + ए or ए} &= \text{आर् } \bar{a} + \bar{r} = \bar{ar} \end{aligned}$$

Ex तय इन्द्र = तयेन्द्र ta + indra = tavendṛa, thine is Indra

मा उक्ता = माक्ता mā + uktrā = soktrā, she having spoken

* The letter लृ is left out because it is of no practical utility. It is treated like एर् only substituting लृ for एर् in Guna and Viddhi. Thus लृ + अनुषङ्ग becomes लानुषङ्ग lanuṣaṅga i.e. having लृ as an introductory letter

* सा षट्तिः = सट्तिः śa + ṣiddhih = śariddhih, this wealth.

तव लकारः = तवल्कारः tava + lākarah = tavalākarah, thy letter lu.

Or in compounds, काम्य + इष्टिः = काम्येष्टिः kāmyā + iṣṭih = kāmyeṣṭih, an offering for a certain boon.

हित + उपदेशः = हितोपदेशः hita + upadeśah = hitopadeśah, good advice.

§ 35. If final अ, आ or इ are followed by a diphthong, whether Guṇa or Vṛiddhi, the two vowels coalesce into the corresponding Vṛiddhi-vowel. Thus अ or आ + ए = ऐ $\bar{a} + e = di$.

अ or आ + ऐ = ऐ $\bar{a} + di = di$.

अ or आ + ओ = औ $\bar{a} + o = au$.

अ or आ + औ = औ $\bar{a} + au = au$.

Ex. तव एव = तवेव tava + eva = taraina, of thee only.

सा ऐक्षिष्ट = सैक्षिष्ट śa + aikṣhiṣṭa = saikṣhiṣṭa, she saw.

तव ओष्ठः = तवौष्ठः tava + oṣṭhah = tavauṣṭhah, thy lip.

सा औत्सुक्यवती = सौत्सुक्यवती śa + utsukyavati = sautsukyavati, she desirous.

Or in compounds, राम + ऐश्वर्य = रामैश्वर्य rāma + aiśvarya = rāmaiśvarya, the lordship of Rāma.

सीता + औपम्य = सीतौपम्य sītā + aupamyam = sītaupamyam, similarity with Sītā, the wife of Rāma.

§ 36. If a simple vowel (except अ) is followed by a dissimilar vowel (simple or diphthong), the former is changed into its corresponding semivowel. Thus इ or ई	{	अ or आ = य or या	{	$\bar{a} = yā$.

		इ or ई = यू or यू		$\bar{i} = yī$.
		उ or ऊ = यु or यू		$\bar{u} = yū$.
		ए or ऐ = ये or ये		$e, ai = ye, yai$.
		ओ or औ = यो or यो		$o, au = yo, yau$.

अ or आ	{	अ or आ = र or रा	{	$\bar{a} = rā$.
		इ or ई = रि or री		$\bar{i} = rī$.
		उ or ऊ = रु or रू		$\bar{u} = rū$.
		ए or ऐ = रे or रे		$e, ai = re, rai$.
		ओ or औ = रो or रो		$o, au = ro, rau$.

उ or ऊ	{	अ or आ = व or वा	{	$\bar{a} = vā$.
		इ or ई = वि or वी		$\bar{i} = vī$.
		उ or ऊ = वू or वू		$\bar{u} = vū$.
		ए or ऐ = वे or वे		$e, ai = ve, vai$.
		ओ or औ = वो or वो		$o, au = vo, vau$.

* Some grammarians consider the Sandhi of \bar{a} with r optional, but they require the shortening of the long \bar{a} . Ex. ब्रह्मा + ऋषिः brahmā + ṛṣih = ब्रह्मर्षिः brahmarṣih or ब्रह्म ऋषिः brahma ṛṣih, Brahṁā, a Ṛṣi.

Ex दधि चतु = दध्यात्र dadhi + atra = dadhyatra, milk here कर्तुं उत = कर्तुता kartri + uta = kartruta, doing moreover मधु इव = मध्वि madhu + iva = madhvi, like honey
 नदी ऐडस्य = नद्यस्य nadi + aīdasya = nadyaīasya, the river of Aīda

In compounds, नदी + अर्थ = नद्यर्थ nadi + artham = nadyartham, for the sake of a river

Note—Some native grammarians allow, except in compounds, the omission of this Sandhi but they require in that case that a long final vowel be shortened Ex चक्रो चतु chakro atra may be चक्र्यत्र chakryatra or चक्रि चतु chakri atra

§ 37 If the Guna-vowels ए e and ओ o are followed by any vowel, simple or diphthong (except a), their last element is changed into the semivowel Thus

ए (e) + any vowel (except a) = एय् (ay)

ओ (o) + any vowel (except a) = औ (au)

Ex सखे आगच्छ = सखयागच्छ sakhe āgachchha = sakhayāgachchha, Friend, come!
 सखे इह = सखयिह sakhe iha = sakhayiha, Friend, here!
 प्रभो एहि = प्रभवेहि prabho ehi = prabhavehi, Lord, come near!
 प्रभो औषध = प्रभवौषध prabho aushadham = prabhavaushadham, Lord, medicine

In compounds गो + ईश = गवीश go + īśa = gauīśa There are various exceptions in compounds where गो go is treated as गय gayā (§ 41)

§ 38 If the Vriddhi vowels ऐ ai and औ au are followed by any vowel, simple or diphthong, their last element is changed into the semivowel Thus

ऐ (ai) + any vowel = आय् (āy)

औ (au) + any vowel = औय् (āy)

Ex श्रिये अर्थ = श्रियायर्थ śriyai arthah = śriyayarthah
 श्रिये कृते = श्रियायृते śriyai rite = śriyāyṛite
 रवौ अस्तमिते = रवावस्तमिते rau au astamite = rāvāstamite, after sunset
 तौ इति = ताविति tau iti = tāviti

In composition, नौ + अर्थ = नावर्थ nau + artham = nāvartham, for the sake of ships

§ 39 These two rules, however, are liable to certain modifications

1 The final य् y and व् v of एय् ay, औय् au, which stand according to rule for ए e, ओ o, may be dropt before all vowels, except a, not, however, in composition Thus most MSS and printed editions change

सखे आगच्छ sakhe āgachchha, not into सखयागच्छ sakhayāgachchha, but into सख आगच्छ sakha āgachchha

सखे इह sakhe iha not into सखयिह sakhayiha, but into सख इह sakha iha

प्रभो एहि prabho ehi, not into प्रभवेहि prabhavehi but into प्रभ एहि prabha ehi

प्रभो औषध prabho aushadham, not into प्रभवौषध prabhavaushadham but into प्रभ औषध prabha aushadham

2 The final vy of साव्‌dy, which stands for दे‌di, may be dropt before all vowels, and it is usual to drop it in our editions. Thus

श्रिये सचे śriyaḥ arthah is more usually written श्रिया सचे śriyā arthah instead of श्रियायचे śriyāyarthah

3 The final vv of साव्‌dv, for दौ‌du, may be dropt before all vowels, but is more usually retained in our editions. Thus

तौ इति tau iti is more usually written ताविति tāviti, and not ता इति tā iti

Note—Before the particle व u the dropping of the final vy and vv is obligatory

§ 40 In all these cases the hiatus, occasioned by the dropping of vy and vv, remains, and the rules of Sandhi are not to be applied again

§ 41 ए e and ओ o, before short अ a, remain unchanged, and the initial अ a is elided

Ex शिवे सत्त = शिवेऽत्त śive atra = śive 'tra, in Siva there

प्रभो अनुगृहाण = प्रभोऽनुगृहाण prabho anugrāhaṇa = prabho 'nugrāhaṇa,

Lord, please

In composition this elision is optional

Ex गो + सश्वा = गोऽश्वा or गोसश्वा go + aśvāḥ = go 'śvāḥ or go aśvāḥ, cows and horses

In some compounds गय gaya must or may be substituted for गो go, if a vowel follows. गवाक्ष gavākṣah, a window, lit. a bull's eye, गणेश gaṇendrah, lord of line, (a name of Krishna), गयानिन or गोऽनिन gayānina or go 'nina, a bull's hide

Unchangeable Vowels (Praghiya)

§ 42 There are certain terminations the final vowels of which are not liable to any Sandhi rules. They are called praghiya vowels by Sanskrit grammarians. They are,

1 The terminations of the dual in ई i, ऊ ū, and ए e, whether of nouns or verbs

Ex करो डमी kai i mau, these two poets

गिरी रतौ giri tau, these two hills

साधू डमी sādhu mau, these two merchants

यंयु बानध bandhū ānaya, bring the two friends

लते एते late etc, these two creepers

विद्ये इमे vidye ime, these two sciences

शयेते सभयो śayete arbhakau, the two children lie down

जयायरे साया jayayate āyām, we two lie down

यायेते सचे yachete artham, they two ask for money

Note—1 exceptions occur as मणीष maṇiṣa i.e. मणी इष maṇiṣa like two jewels, दंपतीय dampatīya i.e. दंपती इय dampatīya like husband and wife

2 The terminations of समी ami and सम् amu, the nom plur mase and the nom dual of the pronoun अदम् adam

Lx. अमी अश्वः amī aśvāḥ, these horses

अमी इषवः amī iṣavah, these arrows

अमू अर्भकौ amū arbhakau, these two children (This follows from rule i)

Irregular Sandhi

§ 43 The following are a few cases of irregular Sandhi which require to be stated. When a preposition ending in अ or आ ā is followed by a verb beginning with ए e or ओ o, the result of the coalescence of the vowels is ए e or ओ o, not ऐ ai or औ au

Ex. प्र + एजते = प्रेजते pra + ejate = prejate

उप + एषते = उपेषते upa + eṣate = upeṣate

प्र + एषयति = प्रेषयति *pra + eṣayati = preṣayati

परा + एक्षति = परेक्षति parā + ekṣati = parekṣati

उप + ओषति = उपोषति upa + oṣati = upoṣati.

परा + ओहति = परोहति parā + ohati = parohati

Thus is not the case before the two verbs एध् edh, to grow, and इ, to go, if raised by Guna to ए e

Ex. उप + एधते = उपेधते upa + edhate = upaīdhate

अव + एति = अवैति ava + eti = avaiti

In verbs derived from nouns, and beginning with ए or ओ e or o, the elision of the final अ or आ ā of the preposition is optional

§ 44 If a root beginning with च् ṣ is preceded by a preposition ending in अ a or आ ā, the two vowels coalesce into आर ar instead of सर ar

Ex. अप + च्छति = अपाच्छति apa + ṣchchati = apaṛchchati

अव + च्छति = अवाच्छति ava + ṣchati = avāṛchati

प्र + च्छते = प्रच्छते pra + ṣchate = praṛchate

परा + च्छति = पराच्छति para + ṣchati = paraṛchati

In verbs derived from nouns and beginning with च् ṣ, this lengthening of the अ a of the preposition is optional

In certain compounds च्छ ṣnam, debt, and च्छ ṣatah, affected, take Vṛddhi instead of Guna if preceded by अ a, प्र + च्छ = प्रार्च्छ pra + ṣnam = praṛnam, principal debt, च्छ + च्छ = च्छार्च्छ ṣna + ṣnam = ṣnārnam, debt contracted to liquidate another debt; शोक + च्छ = शोकार्च्छ śoka + ṣatah = śokārtaḥ, affected by sorrow. Likewise ऊह ūh, the substitute for वह् taḥ, carrying, forms Vṛddhi with a preceding अ a in a compound. Thus विश्व + ऊहः viśva + ūhaḥ, the acc plur of विश्ववाह् viśvavāḥ, is विश्वोहः viśvaūhaḥ

* In nouns derived from प्रेष preṣ, the rule is optional. Ex. प्रेष or प्रेष्य preṣhya or प्राश्या praśhya a messenger. प्रेष preṣha, a gleaner, is derived from प्र pra and ईष īṣ

§ 45. If the initial ओ o in ओष्ठः oshṭhak, lip, and ओतुः otuh, cat, is preceded in a compound by ए or एा ā, the two vowels may coalesce into औ au or ओ o.

Ex. अधर + ओष्ठः = अधरोष्ठः or अधरोष्ठः adhara + oshṭhak = adharauṣṭhak or adharoshṭhak, the lower lip.

मूल + ओतुः = मूलोतुः or मूलोतुः sthūla + otuh = sthūlauṭuh or sthūlotuh, a big cat.

If ओष्ठ oshṭha and ओतु otu are preceded by ए or एा ā in the middle of a sentence, they follow the general rule.

Ex. मम + ओष्ठः = ममोष्ठः mama + oshṭhak = mamaushṭhak, my lip.

§ 46. As irregular compounds the following are mentioned by native grammarians:

स्वैराय svairam, wilfulness, and स्वैरित् svairin, self-willed, from स्व + ईरा sva + ira

अक्षौहिणी akṣauhini, a complete army, from अक्ष + ऊहिनी akṣa + ūhinī.

प्रीतः praudhak, from प्र + ऊटः pra + ūdhak, full-grown.

प्रीहः prauhak, investigation, from प्र + ऊहः pra + ūhak.

प्रीमः praishak, a certain prayer, from प्र + एमः pra + eṣhak. (See § 43)

प्रीम्यः praishyah, a messenger.

§ 47. The final ओ o of indeclinable words is not liable to the rules of Sandhi.

Ex. ओपेहि aho opehi, Halloo, go away!

§ 48. Indeclinables consisting of a single vowel, with the exception of एा ā (§ 49), are not liable to the rules of Sandhi.

Ex. इन्द्र i indra, Oh Indra! उ उमेता u umeta, Oh lord of Umal

एा ā एव ā evam, Is it so indeed?

§ 49. If एा ā (which is written by Indian grammarians एा ā) is used as a preposition before verbs, or before nouns in the sense of 'so far as' (inclusively or exclusively) or 'a little,' it is liable to the rules of Sandhi.

Ex. एा अध्ययनात् ā adhyayanāt = ādhyayanā it, until the reading begins.

Combination of Final and Initial Consonants.

§ 53. Here, as in the case of vowels, the rules which apply to the final consonants of words following each other in a sentence are equally applicable to the final consonants of words following each other in a compound. The final consonants of nominal bases too, before the so-called Pada-terminations (ॠ bhyām, ॡ bhiḥ, ॢ bhyaḥ, ॣ su) and before secondary (taddhita) suffixes beginning with any consonant but ṣ, are treated according to the same rules. But the derivatives formed by means of these and other suffixes are best learnt from the dictionary in their ready-made state; while the changes of nominal and verbal bases ending in consonants, before the terminations of declension and conjugation and other suffixes, are regulated by different laws, and are best acquired in learning by heart the principal paradigms of nouns and verbs.

§ 54. In order to simplify the rules concerning the changes of final consonants, it is important to state at the outset that eleven only out of the thirty-five consonants can ever stand in Sanskrit at the end of a word; viz.

क, ख, ग, घ, ङ, च, छ, ज, ञ, ट, ठ, ड, ढ, ण, त, थ, द, ध, न, प, फ, ब, भ, म.

1. There are five classes of consonants, consisting of five letters each; thus giving twenty-five. In every one of these five classes the aspirates, if final, are replaced by their corresponding unaspirated letters: क kh by क k; घ gh by घ g; च chh, however, not by च ch, but by ट t. Ex. चित्रालिख chitralikh, painter; voc. चित्रालिक् chitralik. This reduces the twenty-five letters to fifteen.

becomes ह्रस्व द्रु In a few words final ऋ is changed into ऋ or Visarga

Radical ऋ cannot be final but is replaced by ऋ Thus ह्रस्व द्रु becomes ह्रस्व द्रु In some words final ऋ is changed into ऋ.

Final radical ऋ is treated as Visarga

The Visarga, therefore, raises the nine to ten; and the Anusvara, to eleven letters, the only ones that can ever stand at the end of real words.

Hence the rules of Sandhi affecting final consonants are really reduced to eleven heads

§ 55 It is important to observe that no word in Sanskrit ever ends in more than one consonant, the only exception being when an र precedes a final radical tennus ऋ, ऋ, ऋ, प. Thus

अभिभर + ऋ = अभिभर abibhar + ऋ = abibhar, 3 p sing impf of अभिभृ, to carry

अभिभर + ऋ = अभिभर abibhar + ऋ = abibhar, 2 p sing impf of अभिभृ, to carry

सुरङ्ग + ऋ = सुरङ्ग surala + ऋ = surala, nom s ng well jumping

But ऊर्क urk, strength, nom sing of ऊर्क urj

अवरिररि avarirari, 3 p sing impf intens of अवरि ari or अवरि ari

अमिर amiri, from अमि mi (Pan VIII 2, 24)

The nom sing of चिकीर्ष chikirsh is चिकी chiki because here the र is not followed by a tennus

Classification of Consonants

§ 56 Before we can examine the changes of final and initial consonants, according to the rules of external Sandhi, we have to explain what is meant by the place and the quality of consonants

- 1 The throat, the palate, the roof of the palate, the teeth, the lips and the nose are called the places or organs of the letters. See § 4
- 2 By contact between the tongue and the four places,—throat, palate, roof, teeth,—the guttural, palatal, lingual and dental consonants are formed. Labial consonants are formed by contact between the lips.
- 3 In forming the nasals of the five classes the veil which separates the nose from the pharynx is withdrawn*. Hence these letters are called Anunasika, i e co-nasal or nasalized
- 4 The real Anusvara is formed in the nose only, and is called Anusika, i e nasal
- 5 The Visarga is said to be pronounced in the chest (urasja), the three or five sibilants in their respective places
- 6 The semivowels, too, are referred to these five places, and three of them,

* Lectures on the Science of Language Second Series, p 145.

य y, ल l, व v, can be nasalized, and are then called anunāsika. (यँ, लँ, वँ, or यं, लं, वं; य़, ल़, व़.) र r cannot be nasalized in Sanskrit.

§ 57. According to their quality (prayatna *, effort) letters are divided into,

1. Letters formed by complete contact (sprishṭa) of the organs: क k, ख kh, ग g, घ gh, ङ ṅ; च ch, छ chh, ज j, झ jh, ञ ṇ; ट t, ठ th, ड d, ढ dh, ण n; त t, थ th, द d, ध dh, न n; प p, फ ph, ब b, भ bh, म m. These are called Sparsā in Sanskrit, and, if they did not comprehend the nasals, would correspond to the classical mutes.
2. Letters formed by slight contact (ishat sprishṭa): य y, र r, ल l, व v (not ह h). These are called Antahsthā (fem.), i. e. intermediate between Sparsās and Ūshmans, which has been freely translated by semivowel or liquid.
3. Letters formed by slight opening (ishat virita): ख ḵ, श ś, ष sh, स s, × φ, ह h. These are called Ūshman (status) in Sanskrit, which may be rendered by sibilant or flatus.
4. Vowels are said to be formed by complete opening (virita) †.

§ 58. A second division, according to quality, is,

1. Surd letters: क k, ख kh, च ch, छ chh, ट t, ठ th, त t, थ th, प p, फ ph, × ḵ, श ś, ष sh, स s, × φ, and Visarga : ḥ. In their formation the glottis is open. They are called Aghosha, non-sonant.
2. Sonant letters: ग g, घ gh, ज j, झ jh, ङ ṅ, ढ dh, द d, ध dh, ब b, भ bh, न n, ण ṇ, म m; ह h, य y, र r, ल l, व v, the Anusvāra = ṁ, and all vowels. In their formation the glottis is closed. They are called Ghoshavat.

§ 59. Lastly, consonants are divided, according to quality, into,

1. Aspirated (mahāprāṇa): ख kh, घ gh, छ chh, झ jh, ठ th, ढ dh, थ th, फ ph, भ bh; ख ḵ, श ś, ष sh, स s, × φ; ह h; the Visarga : ḥ and Anusvāra = ṁ.
2. Unaspirated (alpaprāṇa): all the rest.

It will be seen, therefore, that the change of च ch into क k is a change of place, and that the change of च ch into ज j is a change of quality; while in the

* Sanskrit grammarians call this आभ्यन्तरः प्रयत्नः ābhyantarāḥ prayatnāḥ, mode of articulation preparatory to the utterance of the sound, and distinguish it from वासः प्रयत्नः vāsaḥ prayatnāḥ, mode of articulation at the close of the utterance of the sound, which produces the qualities of surd, sonant, aspirated, and unaspirated, as explained in § 58, 59.

† Some grammarians differ in their description of the degrees of closing or opening of the organs. Some ascribe to the semivowels duḥsprishṭa, imperfect contact, or ishadasprishṭa, slight non-contact, or ishadvirita, slight opening, to the sibilants nemasprishṭa, half contact, i. e. greater opening than is required for the semivowels, or virita, complete opening, while they require for the vowels either virita, complete opening, or asprishṭa, non-contact. Siddh-Kaum p 10 Rīg-veda-prātis XIII 3. In the Atharva-veda prātisākhya 1.33 we ought to read एकस्प्रिष्टं ekasprishṭam instead of एकस्प्रिष्टं ekasprishṭam.

transition of च ch into ग् g, or of त् t into न् n, we should have a change both of place and of quality

§ 60 The changes which take place by the combination of the eleven final letters with initial vowels or consonants may be divided therefore into two classes

Final letters are changed, 1 with regard to their places or organs, 2 with regard to their quality

1 Changes of Place

§ 61 The only final consonants which are liable to change of place are the Dentals, the Anusvāra, and Visarga. The Dentals, being incompatible with Palatals and Linguals, become palatal and lingual before these letters. Anusvāra and Visarga adapt themselves as much as possible to the place of the letter by which they are followed. All other changes of consonants are merely changes of quality, these in the case of Dentals, Anusvāra, and Visarga, being superadded to the changes of place

§ 62 Final त् t before palatals (च ch, छ chh, ज् j, झ jh, ञ् n, ण् ṣ) is changed into a palatal

Ex तत् + च = तच्च tat + cha = tachcha, and this

तत् + छिनत्ति = तच्छिनत्ति tat + chhinatti = tachchhinatti, he cuts this

तत् + शृणोति = तच्छृणोति tat + śṛṇoti = tachśṛṇoti, he hears this *

तत् + जायते = तज्जायते tat + jayate = tajjayate, this is born. The final त् t is changed into च् ch and then into ज् j according to § 66

In composition, जगत् + भेता = जगज्भेता jagat + jeta = jagajeta, conqueror of the world

The same change would take place before an initial झ jh, and before an initial ञ् n, त् t might become either ज् j or ञ् n § 68

§ 63 Final न् n before ज् j, झ jh, ञ् n, and ण् ṣ is changed to palatal ञ् n

Ex तान् + जयति = तान्जयति tan + jayati = tanjayati, he conquers them

Note—Rules on the changes of final न् n before च् ch छ chh, and ण् ṣ will be given hereafter. See § 73 74

§ 64. Final त् t before द् d, ध dh, ड् ḍ, द्ध ddh, रान् (not य sh, Pāṇ VIII 4, 43) is changed into a lingual

Ex तत् + दयते = तद्धयते tat + dayate = taddayate. The final त् t is changed into द् d and then into ड् ḍ according to § 65

In composition, तत् + टीका = तट्टीका tat + ṭika = tattika, a gloss on this

एतत् + शकुन्त = एतट्टकुन्त etat + śakunta = etatśakunta, the idol of him

The same change would take place before an initial द्ध ddh and before an initial रान् raṇ, त् t might become either ड् ḍ or रान् raṇ § 68

* ण् ṣ according to § 92, is generally changed to छ chh तच्छृणोति tachchśṛṇoti

§ 65 Final न् n before उ d, द् dh, श् n (not ष sh, Pan VIII 4, 43) is changed to ण n

Ex महान् + दामर = महादामर mah in + d amarah = mah indamarah, a great uproar

Note—Rules on the changes of न् n before ट t and ठ th (not ष sh) will be given hereafter (§ 74) The changes of place with regard to final Anushtara () and Visarga (h) will be explained together with the changes of quality to which these letters are liable

2. Changes of Quality.

§ 66 Sonant initials require sonant finals

2^d Surd initials require surd finals

As all final letters (except nasals and ह् l) are surd they remain surd before surds They are changed into their corresponding sonant letters before sonants

As the nasals have no corresponding surd letters they remain unchanged in quality, though followed by surd letters

Examples 1 क् k before sonants, changed into ग् g

सम्यक् + उक्त = सम्यगुक्त samyak + ukta = samyaguktam, Well said¹

धिक् + धनगर्वित = धिग्धनगर्वित dhik + dhanagavritam = dhigddhanagavritam, Fie on the purse proud man¹

In composition, दिक् + गज = दिग्गज dik + gajah = diggajah an elephant supporting the globe at one of the eight points of the compass

Before Pada terminations दिक् + भि = दिग्भि dik + bhih = digbhih instr um plur

Before secondary suffixes beginning with consonants, except य y वाक् + मिन् = वाग्मिन् tuk + min = tagmin eloquent

2 ट t before sonants changed into द् d

परिव्राट् + अय = परिव्राडय parivrat + aya = parivradayam he is a mendicant

परिव्राट् + हसति = परिव्राद्हसति parivrat + hasati = parivradhasati the mendicant laughs, (also परिव्राड हसति parivrad dhasati § 70)

In composition परिव्राट् + मित्र = परिव्राड्मित्र parivrat + mitram = parivradmitram, a beggar's friend

3 य y before sonants, changed into व b

ककुप् + अत्र = ककुबत्र kakup + atra = kakubatra a region there (inflectional base ककुभ kakubh)

अप् + घट = अमट ap + ghatah = abghatah, a water jar

अप् + जय = अजय ap + jayah = abjaya obtaining water

अप् + मय = अमय ap + mayah = ammayah watery § 69

ककुप् + भि = ककुभि kakup + bhih = kakubhih instrum plur

4. $\text{र} l$ before sonants, changed into $\text{र} d$, except before sonant palatals and linguals, when (according to § 62) it is changed into $\text{र} j$ and $\text{र} \phi$:

$\text{सरित्} + \text{अत्र} = \text{सरित्त्र} \text{ sarit} + \text{atra} = \text{saridutra}$, the river there.

$\text{एतत्} + \text{डामरः} = \text{एतद्डामरः} etat + \text{ḍimaraḥ} = \text{etadḍimaraḥ}$, the uproar of them.

Ex. $\text{तत्} + \text{लब्धं} = \text{तलब्धं} tat + \text{labdham} = \text{tallabdham}$, this is taken.

§ 68. Additional changes take place if the final surds $\text{क्} k$, $\text{ट} ṭ$, $\text{त्} ṭ$, $\text{प्} p$ are followed by nasals, chiefly $\text{न्} n$ and $\text{म्} m$. The nasals being sonant, they require the change of $\text{क्} k$, $\text{ट} ṭ$, $\text{त्} ṭ$, and $\text{प्} p$ into $\text{ग्} g$, $\text{ड} ḍ$, $\text{द} d$, and $\text{ब} ḅ$; but these final sonants may be further infected by the nasal character of the initial nasals, and may be written $\text{ङ} ṅ$, $\text{ण} ṇ$, $\text{न्} n$, $\text{म्} m$.

Ex. $\text{दिक्} + \text{नागः} = \text{दिङ्नागः}$ or $\text{दिङ्नागः} dik + \text{nīgaḥ} = \text{diṅnīgaḥ}$ or $dinnīgaḥ$, a world-elephant.

$\text{जगत्} + \text{नाथः} = \text{जगन्नाथः}$ or $\text{जगन्नाथः} jagat + \text{nīthaḥ} = \text{jagadnīthaḥ}$ or $jagannīthaḥ$, lord of the world.

$\text{अप्} + \text{नदी} = \text{अप्नदी}$ or $\text{अप्नदी} ap + \text{nadī} = \text{apnadī}$ or $amnadī$, water-river.

$\text{भवत्} + \text{मतं} = \text{भवद्मतं}$ or $\text{भवद्मतं} bhavat + \text{matam} = \text{bhavadmatam}$ or $bhavarṇmatam$, your opinion.

Note—If a word should begin with a palatal or lingual $\text{ञ} ṇ$ or $\text{य} ṇ$ then a final $\text{र} l$ would change its place or organ at the same time that it became a nasal. It would become $\text{य} ṇ$ or $\text{य} ṇ$. There are, however, no words in common use beginning with $\text{ञ} ṇ$ or $\text{य} ṇ$.

§ 69. Before the suffix मय mayā and before मात्र mātra the change into the nasal is not optional, but obligatory.

Ex. वाक् + मयं = वाङ्मयं vāk + mayam = vāṅmayam, consisting of speech.

मधुलिङ्ग + मात्रं = मधुलिङ्गमात्रं madhuliṅga + mātram = madhuliṅgamātram, merely a bee.

तत् + मात्रं = तन्मात्रं taṭ + mātram = tanmātram, element.

Note—Ninety-six is always शण्वन्ति ṣannavanti, never षड्वन्ति ṣadvanti.

§ 70. The initial ह h, if brought into immediate contact with a final क k (ग g), ट t (ड d), त् t (द्ध dh), प p (ब b), is commonly, not necessarily, changed into the sonant aspirate of the class of the final letter; प gh, ट dh, प dh, भ bh.

Ex. धिक् + हस्तिनः = धिहस्तिनः or धिषस्तिनः dhik + hastinah = dhighastinah or dhigghastinah, lie on the elephants!

परिवाद + हतः = परिवादहतः or परिवादृतः parurāt + hataḥ = parivrādhataḥ or parivrāddhataḥ, the mendicant is killed.

तत् + हुतं = तद्धुतं or तद्धुतं taṭ + hutam = tadhutam or taddhutam, this is sacrificed.

अप् + हरणं = अभरणं or अभरणं ap + haranam = abharanam or abbharanam, water-fetching

§ 71. Final न n, न n, and न् n, preceded by a short vowel and followed by any vowel, are doubled.

Ex. धावन् + अश्वः = धाववश्वः dhāvan + aśvaḥ = dhāvannaśvaḥ, a running horse.

प्रत्यङ् + आस्ते = प्रत्यङ्गास्ते pratyāṅ + āste = pratyāṅmāste, he sits turned toward the west.

सुगण् + आस्ते = सुगणास्ते sugan + āste = sugannāste, he sits counting well*.

If न् n, न n, and न् n are preceded by a long vowel and followed by any vowel, no change takes place.

Ex. कवीन् + आह्वयस्व kavīn āhvaṣva, call the poets.

§ 72. Final न् n and न n may be followed by initial ङ् ṅ, ष ṣ, स s without causing any change; but it is optional to add a क् k after the न् n and न n after the न n. Thus दश śa becomes दश śa (or दश śakṣa, § 92); द्य śa becomes द्य śakṣa; दस śa becomes दस śakṣa; दश śa becomes दश śa (or दश śakṣa); द्य śa becomes द्य śakṣa; दस śa becomes दस śakṣa.

Ex. प्राद + जेते = प्रादजेते or प्रादजेते (or प्रादजेते) prāṇ + jete = prāṇjete or prāṇkṣete (or prāṇkṣete)

* Technical terms like उपादि upādhi, a list of suffixes beginning with an, or तिङन्ति tiṅanti, words ending in ti, are exempt from this rule. See also Wilkins, Sanskrit Grammar, § 30.

मुग्ग + सरति = मुग्गसरति or मुग्गेत्सरति uggan + sarati = ugansarati or ugansarati

§ 73 The same rule applies to final न् n before ज्ञ ś and स s, but not before श śh, where it remains unchanged. Before ज्ञ ś it is first changed into palatal च् *ñ (§ 63), and ज्ञ् ñś may again be changed to च्छ ñchś, च्छ ñchch (§ 72, 92), or च्छ ñchh. Before स s, न् n may remain unchanged, or न्स ns may be changed into न्स nts.

Lx तान् + शब्द = तान्यद् tan + śabḍ = tānśabḍ, those six

तान् + शार्दूलान् = तान्शार्दूलान् or तान्शार्दूलान् or तान्शार्दूलान् or तान्शार्दूलान् tan + śardūlān = tānśardūlān or tāñchśardūlān or tāñchchśardūlān or tāñchhurdūlān, those tigers

तान् + सहते = तान्सहते or तान्सहते tān + sahate = tānsahate or tāñtsahate, he bears them

हिन् (हिंस) + सु = हिन्सु or हिन्सु hin (hims) + su = hinsu or hinṣu, among enemies (The base हिम् hims, before the सु su of the loc. plur., is treated as a Pada) See § 53, 55

§ 74 Final न् n before initial क् k, क् kh, and च् p, च् ph, remains unchanged

Final न् n before च् ch, च् chh, requires the intercession of ज्ञ ś

Final न् n before द् t, द् th, requires the intercession of च् śh

Final न् n before त् t, च् th, requires the intercession of स s

Before these inserted sibilants the original न् n is changed to Anusvāra.

Lx. हसन् + चकार = हस्यकार hasan + chakara = hasamschakāra, he did it laughing

धावन् + द्याग = धावद्यग dhavan + chhagah = dhavamśchhigah, a running goat

चलन् + दिट्ठिभ = चलदिट्ठिभ chalan + ṭṭibhah = chalamśṭṭibhah, a moving ṭṭibha bird

महान् + उद्गुर = महाद्गुर mahān + ṭhakkurah = mahamśṭhakkurah, a great idol

पतन् + तरु = पतनरु patan + taruh = patamstaruh, a falling tree

Note—प्रशान् praśan quiet forms the nom प्रशान् praśan but this final न् n is treated before च् ch च् chh द् t द् th न् n च् śh like a final न् m. Lx प्रशान् + चिनोति = प्रशाचिनोति, i.e. प्रशाचिनोति praśan + chinoti = praśamchinoti not प्रशाचिनोति praśanśchinoti (Pāṇ viii 3 7)

§ 75 Final न् n before ल् l is changed into ल् l. This ल् l is pronounced through the nose, and is written with the Anusvāra dot over it. It is usual in this case to write the Anusvāra as a half moon, called Arddha-chandra

Ex महान् + लाभ = महाल्लभः mahan + lābhah = mahāḷlābhah, large gain

* To allow न् n to remain unchanged before ज्ञ ś is a misprint which occurred in Benfey's large grammar, but has long been corrected by that scholar

§ 76 A final ṛ before s may remain unchanged, or ṛ t may be inserted.

Ex पद् + सरितः = पद्सरितः, or पद्सरितः śat + saritah = śaṭsaritah or śaṭṣa-ritah, six rivers

Anusvāra and Final m

§ 77 m at the end of words remains unchanged if followed by any initial vowel.

Ex किम् + अत्र kim + atra = kimatra, What is there?

Before consonants it may, without exception, be changed to Anusvāra

This is the general rule The exceptions are simply optional, viz

Before क k, ख kh, ग g, घ gh, ङ ṅ, the final m or Anusvāra may be changed into ङ ṅ

Before च ch, छ chh, ज j, झ jh, ञ ñ, to ञ ñ

Before ट t, ठ th, ड d, ढ dh, ण ṇ, to ण ṇ

Before त t, थ th, द d, ध dh, न n, to न n

Before प p, फ ph, ब b, भ bh, म m, to m

Before य y, ल l, व v, to य y, ल l, व v See § 56. 6

Hence it follows that final m may be changed into Anusvāra before all consonants, and must be so changed only before ङ ṅ, श ś, स s, ह h, and र r, the five consonants which have no corresponding nasal class-letter

It would be most desirable if scholars would never avail themselves of the optional change of final Anusvāra into ङ ṅ, न n, ण ṇ, म m. We should then be spared a number of compound letters which are troublesome both in writing and printing, and we should avoid the ambiguity as to the original nature of these class nasals when followed by initial sonant palatals, linguals, and dentals. Thus if ता जयति taṁ jayati, he conquers her, is written ताम्रयति tañ jayati, it may be taken for तान् जयति tan jayati, he conquers them, which, according to § 63, must be changed into ताम्रयति tan jayati. In the same manner तान्दमयति tan damayati may be either तान् दमयति tan damayati, he tames them, or ताम दमयति tam damayati, he tames her. All this uncertainty is at once removed if final m is always changed into Anusvāra, whatever be the initial consonant of the following word

§ 78 m at the end of a word in pausā, i. e. at the end of a sentence, remains unchanged. Some grammarians (§ 8, note) allow its being changed into Anusvāra, and it is written so throughout in this grammar. Ex एव evam, thus, (or एवम् evam)

Ex किम् + करोषि = किं करोषि (or किञ्चरोषि) kim + karoshi = kiṁ karoshi (or kñ karoshi), What doest thou?

शत्रुम् + जहि = शत्रुं जहि (or शत्रुघ्नहि) śatrum + jahi = śatruñ jahi (or śatruñ jahi), kill the enemy

नदीम् + तरति = नदी तरति (or नदीन्तरति) nadim + tarati = nadin tarati (or nadin tarati), he crosses the river

गुरुम् + नमति = गुरु नमति (or गुरुन्मति) gurum + namati = gurun namati (or gurun namati) he salutes the teacher

किम् + फल = कि फल (or किम्फल) kim + phalam = kim phalam (or kim phalam), What is the use?

शास्त्रम् + मीमासते = शास्त्र मीमासते (or शास्त्रमीमासते) śāstram + mīmāṣate = śāstram mīmāṣate (or śāstram mīmāṣate), he studies the book

Before य y, ल l, व v

सत्वरम् + याति = सत्वर याति (or सत्वरयाति) satvaram + yati = satvarayati (or satvarayati), he walks quickly

विद्याम् + लभते = विद्या लभते (or विद्यालभते) vidyam + labhate = vidyalabhate (or vidyalabhate), he acquires wisdom

तम् + वेद = त वेद (or तवेद) tam + veda = tam veda (or taṁ veda), I know him

Before र r, श s, प sh, स s, ह h

करुणम् + रोदिति = करुण रोदिति karunam + roditi = karunam roditi, he cries pitcously

शय्यायाम् + शत = शय्याया शते śayyayam + śate = śayyayam śate he lies on the couch

मोक्षम् + सेवेत = मोक्ष सेवेत mokṣham + seveta = mokṣham seveta let a man cultivate spiritual freedom

मधुरम् + हसति = मधुर हसति madhuram + hasati = madhuram hasati, he laughs sweetly

§ 79 Final म m before ह h if ह h be immediately followed by न n, म m, य y, ल l, व v may be treated as if it were immediately followed by these letters See, however, § 77

Ex किम् + ह्रते = कि ह्रते or किह्रते kim + hrate = kim hrate or kim hrate, What does he hide?

किम् + ह्य = कि ह्य or किये ह्य kim + hyah = kim hyah or kiya hyah, What about yesterday?

किम् + हलयति = कि हलयति or किहलयति kim + hmalayati = kim hmalayati or kimhmalayati What does he move?

§ 80 If क kṛ is preceded by the preposition सम sam, an स s is inserted, and म m changed to Anusvara

Ex सम + कृत = सकृत sam + kṛtaḥ = saṁskṛtaḥ hallowed.

§ 81 In सम्राज samraj, nom सम्राट samrat, king, म m is never changed

Visarga and Final ऋ and ॠ

§ 82 The phonetic changes of final sibilants which are considered the most difficult, may be reduced to a few very simple rules. It should only be borne in mind

- 1 That there are really five sibilants, and not three, that the signs for the guttural and labial sibilants became obsolete, and were replaced by the two dots () which properly belong to the Visarga only, i. e. to the unmodified sibilant
- 2 That all sibilants and Visarga are surd, and that their proper corresponding sonant is the ॠ ॠ

§ 83 The only sibilant which can be final in pausu is the Visarga. If Visarga is followed by a surd letter, it is changed into the sibilant of that class to which the following surd letter belongs

It should be observed, however, that the guttural and labial sibilants are now written by .h, and that the same sign may also be used instead of any sibilant, if followed by a sibilant

एत + काम = एतॠ काम (originally एतॠ काम) tatah + kamah = tatah kamah (originally tataḥ kamah), hence love

पूर्णे + चन्द्र = पूर्णेॠचन्द्र pūrṇah + chandrah = pūrṇas chandrah, the full moon

तरो + छाया = तरोॠछाया taroh + chhaya = taros chhaya, the shade of the tree

भग्न + ठक्कुर = भग्नॠठक्कुर bhagnah + thakkurah = bhagnashthakkurah, the broken idol

नद्या + तीर = नद्याॠतीर nadyah + tiram = nadyastiram, the border of the river

भाग + षोडश = भागॠषोडश or भागॠ षोडश bhagah + shoḍaśah = bhagash shoḍaśah or bhagah shoḍaśah, a sixteenth part

प्रथम + सर्ग = प्रथमॠसर्ग or प्रथमॠ सर्ग prathamah + sargah = prathamās sargah or prathamah sargah, the first section

Note 1.—If Visarga is followed by an initial त् ts, it is not necessarily changed into dental स् s, but may remain Visarga, as if followed by स् s

Ex शठ + त्सरति = शठ त्सरति śathah + tsaratī = śathah tsaratī, a wicked man cheats क + त्सर = क त्सर kah + tsaruh = kah tsaruh, Which is the handle of the sword?

Note 2—If, on the contrary, Visarga is followed by a sibilant with a surd letter, the Visarga is frequently dropt in MSS (Paṇ VIII 3 36, v)

Lx देवा + स्य = देवा स्य or देवा स्य devah + stha = dei ih stha or deva stha, you are gods, (also देवास्स devas stha)

हरि + स्फुरति = हरि स्फुरति or हरि स्फुरति harīh + sphuratī = harīh sphuratī or harī sphuratī, Hari appears

Note 3—If nouns ending in इस् is or उस् us, like हरि harīh or धनु dhanuh are followed by words beginning with क k, छ kh, प p फ ph, and are governed by these words, प् sh may be substituted for final Visarga सर्पिषिपिबति or सर्पिषिपिबति sarpishpibati or sarpīh pibati, he drinks ghee, but तिष्ठतु सर्पिषिपिबतु tishṭhatu sarpīh, piba tvam udakam let the ghee stand drink thou water

§ 84 If final Visarga is followed by a sonant letter, consonant or vowel the general rule is that it be changed into र r (See however, § 86) This rule admits, however, of the following exceptions

- 1 If the Visarga is preceded by अ a and followed by a sonant letter (vowel or consonant), the Visarga is dropt
- 2 If the Visarga is preceded by अ a and followed by any vowel except अ a, the Visarga is dropt.
- 3 If the Visarga is preceded by अ a, and followed by a sonant consonant, the Visarga is dropt and the अ a changed to ओ o
- 4 If the Visarga is preceded by अ a and followed by अ a the Visarga is dropt अ a changed into ओ o and the initial अ a elided The sign of the elision is ऽ, called Atagraha

§ 85 There are a few words in which the final letter is etymologically r r.*

* It is called रजातो विभक्तिः rajāto vibhaktiḥ, the Visarga produced from r. It occurs, preceded by अ, in पुनः punaḥ, again, प्रातः prātah, early, अंतः antah, within; स्वः svah, heaven; in the voc sing of nouns in अृषि, ex पिता pitah, father, from पित्र pitṛ, &c, and in verbal forms such as अजागृ ajāgar, 2 3 sing impf of जागृ jāgr.

This τr , as a final, is changed into Visarga, according to § 82, and it follows all the rules affecting the Visarga except the exceptional rules § 84 2, 3, 4, i.e. if preceded by $\text{स } a$, and followed by any sonant letter, vowel or consonant, the τr is retained

Ex पुन + अपि = पुनरपि punah + api = punarapi, even again
 भ्रात + एव = भ्रातरेव prutah + eva = prutareva, very early
 भ्रात + देहि = भ्रातदेहि bhrutah + dehi = bhrutar dehi, Brother, give!

§ 86 No τr can ever be followed by another τr . Hence final Visarga, whether etymologically $\text{स } s$ or τr , if followed by initial τr , and therefore by § 84 changed to τr , is dropt, and its preceding vowel lengthened

Ex विधु + राजते = विधु राजते vidhuh + rajate = vidhū rajate, the moon shines भ्रात + रक्ष = भ्रातरक्ष bhrutah + raksha = bhratar raksha, Brother, protect!
 पुन + रोगी = पुनरोगी punah + rogi = pun r rogi, ill again

These are the general rules on the Sandhi of final Visarga, $\text{स } s$ and τr . The following rules refer to a few exceptional cases

§ 87 The two pronouns $\text{स } sah$ and $\text{एष } esha$, thus, become $\text{स } sa$ and $\text{एष } esha$ before consonants and vowels, except before short $\text{स } a$ and at the end of a sentence

Ex स + ददाति = स ददाति sah + dadati = sa dadati, he gives स इन्द्र = स इन्द्र sah indrah = sa indrah, this Indra. The two vowels are not liable to Sandhi

But स + अभवत् = सोऽभवत् sah + abhavat = so 'bhavat, he was मृत स mritah sah, he is dead

Sometimes Sandhi takes place, particularly for the sake of the metre. Thus $\text{स एष } sa esha$ becomes occasionally $\text{सैष } saisha$, he, this person. स इन्द्र sa indrah appears as $\text{सेन्द्र } sendrah$ (Pan VI 1, 134)

The pronoun $\text{स्य } syah$, he, follows the same rule optionally in poetry (Pan VI 1, 133)

§ 88 भो bhoh, an irregular vocative of $\text{भवत् } bhavat$, thou, drops its Visarga before all vowels and all sonant consonants

Ex भो + ईशान = भो ईशान bhoh + isana = bho tsana Oh lord!
 भो + देवा = भो देवा bhoh + devah = bho devah, Oh gods!

The same applies to the interjections $\text{भगो } bhagoh$ and $\text{अघो } aghoh$, really irregular vocatives of $\text{भगवत् } bhagavat$, God, and $\text{अघवत् } aghavat$, sinner

§ 89 Numerous exceptions, which are best learnt from the dictionary, occur in compound and derivative words. A few of the more important may here be mentioned

I. Nouns in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us, forming the first part of a Compound.

1. Before derivatives of कृ kṛi, to do (e. g. कर kara, कार kāra), before derivatives of कम् kam, to desire (e. g. कान्त kānta, काम kāma), before बस kaṁsa, goblet, कुम्ब kumbha, jar, पात्र pātra, vessel, कुश kuśa, counter, कर्ण karni, ear, the final Visarga of bases in अस् as is changed to स् s. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 46.)

Ex. त्रेयः + करः = त्रेयस्करः treyaḥ + karaḥ = treyaskarah, making happy.

अहः + करः = अहस्करः ahah + karah = ahaskarah, sun.

अयः + कुम्भः = अयस्कुम्भः ayaḥ + kumbhaḥ = ayaskumbhaḥ, iron-pot.

There are several words of the same kind—which are best learnt from the dictionary—in which the Visarga is changed into dental sibilant. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 47.)

Ex. अधः + पदं = अधस्पदं adhah + padam = adhaspadam.

दिवः + पतिः = दिवस्पतिः divah + patih = divaspatih, lord of heaven.

वाचः + पतिः = वाचस्पतिः vāchaḥ + patih = vāchaspatih, lord of speech.

भाः + करः = भास्करः bhāḥ + karah = bhāskarah, sun, &c.

2. Nouns in इस् is and उस् us, such as हविः havah, धनुः dhanuḥ, &c., before words beginning with क् k, ख् kh, प् p, and फ् ph, always take स् s. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 45.)

Ex. सर्पिः + पानं = सर्पिष्पानं sarpīḥ + pānam = sarpiṣhpānam, ghee-drinking.

आयुः + कामः = आयुष्कामः āyuh + kāmah = āyushkāmah, fond of life.

Note.—भ्रातृपुत्रः bhrātṛputrah, nephew, is used instead of भ्रातुः पुत्रः bhrātuh putrah, the son of the brother.

II. Words in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us, treated as Prepositions.

1. The words नमः namah, पुरः purah, तिरः tirah, if compounded prepositionally with कृ kṛi, change Visarga into स् s. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 40.)

Ex. नमः + कारः = नमस्कारः namah + kārāḥ = namaskarah, adoration; (but नमः कृत्वा namah kṛitvā, having performed adoration.)

पुरः + कृत = पुरस्कृत purah + kṛitya = puraskṛitya, having preferred.

तिरः + कारी = तिरस्कारी tirah + kārī = tiraskārī, despising. In तिरः tirah the change is considered optional. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 42.)

2. The words निः nih, दुः duḥ, वहिः vahih, आविः āvih, प्रादुः prāduḥ, चतुः chatuh, if compounded with words beginning with क् k, ख् kh, प् p or फ् ph, take स् s instead of final Visarga. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 41.)

Ex. निः + कामः = निष्कामः nih + kāmah = nishkāmah, loveless.

निः + फलः = निष्फलः nih + phalah = nishphalah, fruitless.

आविः + कृतं = आविष्कृतं āvih + kṛitam = āviṣhkṛitam, made manifest.

दुः + कृत = दुष्कृतं duḥ + kṛitam = duṣhkṛitam, badly done, criminal.

चतुः + कोणं = चतुष्कोणं chatuh + koṇam = chatuṣhkoṇam, square.

III. Nouns in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us, before certain Taddhita Suffixes.

1. Before the Taddhita suffixes मत् mat, वत् vat, विन् vin, and वल् vala, the final स् s appears as श् sh or प् sh (§ 100).

Ex. तेजः + विन् = तेजस्विन् tejah + vin = tejasvin, with splendour.

ज्योतिः + मत् = ज्योतिष्मत् jyotih + mat = jyotishmat, with light.

रजः + वल् = रजसल rajah + vala = rajasala, a buffalo.

2. Before Taddhita suffixes beginning with त् t, the स् s, preceded by इ i or उ u, is changed into श् sh, after which the त् t becomes ट् t.

Ex. अर्चिः + त्वं = अर्चिष्ट्वं archih + tvam = archishtvam, brightness.

चतुः + तयं = चतुष्टयं chatuh + tayam = chatushṭayam, the aggregate of four.

3. Before the Taddhita suffixes पाश pāśa, कल्प kalpa, क ka, and in composition with the verb काम्यति kāmyati, nouns in अस् as retain their final स् s, while nouns in इस् is and उस् us change it into श् sh (§ 100).

Ex. पयः + पाशं = पयस्पाशं payah + pāśam = payaspāśam, bad milk.

पयः + कल्पं = पयस्कल्पं payah + kalpam = payaskalpam, a little milk.

यशः + कः = यशस्कः yaśah + kah = yaśaskah, glorious.

यशः + काम्यति = यशस्काम्यति yaśah + kāmyati = yaśaskāmyati, he is ambitious.

सर्पिः + पाशं = सर्पिष्पाशं sarpih + pāśam = sarpiṣpāśam, bad ghee.

सर्पिः + कल्पं = सर्पिष्कल्पं sarpih + kalpam = sarpiṣkalpam, a little ghee.

धनुः + कः = धनुष्कः dhanuh + kah = dhanushkah, belonging to the bow.

धनुः + काम्यति = धनुष्काम्यति dhanuh + kāmyati = dhanushkāmyati, he desires a bow.

§ 90. Nouns ending in radical र् r (§ 85) retain the र् r before the सु su of the loc. plur., and in composition before nouns even though beginning with surds.

Ex. वार् + सु = वार्षु vār + su = vārshu, in the waters.

गिर् + पतिः = गीर्पतिः gir + patih = gīrpatih, lord of speech.

In compounds, however, like गीर्पतिः gīrpatih, the optional use of Visarga is sanctioned (Pāṇ. VIII. 2, 70, v.), and we meet with गीःपतिः gīḥpatih, धूःपतिः dhūḥpatih, and धूर्पतिः dhūrpatih, स्वःपतिः svaḥpatih and स्वर्पतिः svarpatih, lord of heaven; अहःपतिः ahahpatih and अहर्पतिः aharpatih, lord of the day.

अहर् ahar, the Pada base of अहन् ahan, day, is further irregular, because its final र् r is treated like स् s before the Pada-terminations, and in composition before words beginning with र् r hence अहः + भिः = अहोभिः ahah + bhiḥ = ahobhiḥ; अहः + सु = अहःसु ahah + su = ahahsu; अहः + रात्रः = अहोरात्रः ahah + rātrah = ahorātrah, day and night. (Pāṇ. VIII. 2, 68, v.)

§ 91 च chh at the beginning of a word, after a final short vowel and after the particles आ ā and मा mā, is changed to छ chchh

Ex तव + छाया = तव छाया tava + chhāyā = tava chchhāyā, thy shade
 मा + चिदत् = मा चिदत् mā + chhidat = mā chchhidat, let him not cut आ + छादयति = आच्छादयति ā + chhadayati = achchhādayati, he covers

After any other long vowels, this change is optional

यदरीक्षाया or यदरीच्छाया badarīchhaya or badarīchchhāyā shade of Badaris

In the body of a word, the change of च chh into छ chchh is necessary both after long and short vowels

Ex इच्छति ichchhati, he wishes म्लेच्छ mlechchhah, a barbarian (Pan १। १, 73-76)

§ 92 Initial श ś, not followed by a hard consonant, may be changed into च chh, if the final letter of the preceding word is a hard consonant or म् m (for न् n)

Ex वाक + शत = वाक्शत or वाक्क्षत vāk + śatam = vākśatam or vākchhatam, a hundred speeches

परित्राद + शेते = परित्राद् शेते or परित्रादक्षेते parivrat + śete = parivrat śete or parivrat chhete, the beggar lies down

महत् + शकट = महत्शकट or महत्क्षकट mahat + śakam = mahach śakam or mahach chhakam, a great car

धावन + शश = धावन्शश or धावन्क्षश dhatan + śaśah = dhavañ śaśah or dhan chhaśah, a running hare

अप + शब्द = अपश्ब्द or अपक्षब्द ap + śabdah = ap śabdah or apchhabdah, the sound of water

§ 93 If ह h, घ gh, ट ṭh, ध dh, or भ bh stand at the end of a syllable which begins with ग् g, ङ् ṅ, द् ḍ, or ब् b, and lose their aspiration as final or otherwise, the initial consonants ग् g, ङ् ṅ, द् ḍ, or ब् b are changed into घ् gh, ट् ṭh, ध् dh, भ् bh

Ex दुह duh, a milker, becomes धुह dhuh

विश्वगुप् viśvagudh, all attracting, becomes विश्वघुत् viśvaghut

बुध् budh, wise, becomes भुत् bhut

Note—I. The sign ... means that no change takes place in the initial or final letter. II. The sign [॰], before a letter, indicates that it is preceded by a short; the sign ^ॱ, that it is preceded by a long vowel; the sign ॱ, that the letter is to be elided. III. In col. IX b, id. means that the form is the same as in col. IX a.

IV. The sign ^ॱ is used to distinguish the real and necessary from the optional Anuvāra.

NATI, or Change of Dental न् n and स् s into Lingual श् n and प् sh

§ 95 In addition to the rules which require the modification of certain letters at the beginning and end of words, there are some other rules to be remembered which regulate the transition of dental न् n and स् s into lingual श् n and प् sh in the body of words. Beginners should try to impress on their memory these rules as far as they concern the change of the dental nasal and sibilant into the lingual nasal and sibilant in simple words with regard to compound nouns and verbs, the rules are very complicated and capricious, and can only be learnt by long practice

Change of न् n into श् n

§ 96 The dental न् n, followed by a vowel, or by न् n, म m, य y, and प् p, is, in the middle of a word, changed into the lingual श् n if it is preceded by the linguals च् ch, छ् ch, र् r, or प् sh. The influence of these letters on a following न् n is not stopt by any vowel, by any guttural (क k, ख kh, ग g, घ gh, ङ n, ह h, ञ m), or by any labial (प p, फ ph, ब b, भ bh, म m, व v), or by य y, intervening between the linguals and the न् n

Ex नृ + ना = नृणा nrī + nām = nrīnām, gen plur of नृ nrī, man

कर्ण karnah, ear

दूषण dūṣhanam, abuse

वृहण vṛṣhanam, nourishing, (ह h is guttural and preceded by Anusvāra)

अकेण arkena, by the sun, (क k is guttural)

गृह्णाति grīṇati, he takes, (ह h is guttural)

क्षिप्नुः kṣhipnuḥ, throwing, (प p is labial)

प्रेम्णा preṃṇa, by love, (म m is labial)

ब्रह्मण brahmāṇah, (ह h is guttural, म m is labial, and न् n followed by य y)

निष्णः niṣhanah, (न् n is followed by न् n, which is itself afterwards changed to श् sh)

अक्षयन् akṣhamat, (श् n is followed by य y)

प्रायेण prayeṇa, generally, (य y does not prevent the change)

But अर्चन archanā, worship, (च ch is palatal)

अर्चयेन arṇaṇena, by the ocean (र् n is lingual)

दर्शन darśanam, a system of philosophy, (र् ṣ is palatal)

अर्धेन ardhena, by half, (प dh is dental)

कुर्यति kuryanti, they do, (न् n is followed by र t)

रामान् ramān, the Rāmas, (न् n is final)

Note—रुग्ण rūgaṇ like रुक्ण rṣkṇah (Pāṇ १। १, १६) should be written with श् sh. The र् ṣ is no protection for the न् n. Thus अग्नि agni has to be especially mentioned as an exception for not changing its न् n into श् sh in compounds, such as शरग्नि śarāgni (Pāṇ Gaṇa kṣabhdhādi)

§ 97 The न् n of तु nu, the sign of the Su conjugation, and the न् n of ता nî, the sign of the Kri conjugation, are not changed into र्न् n in the two verbs तृप् trip and क्षुब् kshubh (Pan VIII 4, 39) Hence

तृप्नोति tṛpnoti, he pleases * क्षुब्नोति kshubhnôti, he shakes

But शृणोति śṛṇoti, he hears पुष्पाति puṣhpati, he nourishes

क्षुब्धश्च kshubdhana, imper shake

Table showing the Changes of न् n into र्न् n

च् rî,	in spite of intervening Vowels, Gutturals (including ह h and Anusvîra), Labials (including य y), and य y,	change	if there follow Vowels, or
च् rî,		न् n	न n,
र् र,		into	म् m,
प् sh,		र्न् n	य y, र r

§ 98 The changes here explained of न् n in the middle of simple words, (whether it belongs to a suffix or a termination) are the most important to remember But न् n is likewise liable to be changed into र्न् n when it occurs in the second part of a compound the first part of which contains one of the letters च् rî, च् rî, र् र, or प् sh, and particularly after certain prepositions Here, however, the rules are much more uncertain, and we must depend on the dictionary rather than on the grammar for the right employment of the dental or lingual nasals The following rules are the most important

- The change of न् n into र्न् n does not take place unless the two members of the compound are combined so as to express a single conception Hence चार्मो bardhri, a leathern thong + नास nasa, nose, gives चार्मोनास bardhrînasâ, if it is the name of a certain animal,* according to Wilson, of a goat with long ears, according to others, of a rhinoceros, or a bird (Unâdi Sûtras, ed Aufrecht, s v Pan VIII 4 3) But चर्मन् charman, leather, + नासिका nasika, nose, gives चर्मनासिका charmanasikah, if it means having a leathern nose An important exception is सर्वनामन sarvanaman, a technical term for pronouns, (सर्व sariâ being the first in their list,) which Panini himself employs with the dental न् n only (Pan I 1, 27) Other proper names not following the general rule, are त्रिनयन trinayanah, three-eyed, name of Śiva, रघुनन्दन raghunandanah, name of Rama, स्वर्धनु svarôhanuh, name of Rahu, &c

* In the Veda we find तृप्नुहि tṛpnuhi Rv II 16 6 तृप्नुव tṛpnuv Rv III 42, 2

Note—The न् n of secondary suffixes, attached to the end of compounds, is, under the general conditions, always changed to य् y. Thus खरपः kharaṇaḥ (i.e. donkey-keeper) becomes खरपायः kharaṇāyanaḥ, the descendant of kharaṇa. मातृभोगीयः mātrubhogīyaḥ, fit to be possessed by a mother, from मातृ mātrī, mother, and भोगः bhogaḥ, enjoyment, with the adjectival suffix ईन् īna (samāsānta), is always spelt with य् n. (See also § 98 6) Again, while गर्गभगिनी gargabhagīnī, the sister of Garga, always retains its dental न् n, being an ordinary compound, गर्गभगिणी gargabhagīnī would have the lingual य् y, if it was derived from गर्गभगः gargabhagaḥ, the share of Garga, with the adjectival suffix ईन् īna, fem. इनी īnī, enjoying the share of Garga. Words which after they have been compounded take a new suffix are treated in fact like single words (samāśapada), and therefore follow the general rule of § 96. (Pān. VIII. 4, 3. Kāś. -Vṛtti VIII. 4, 11, v)

5. If the second part of the compound is monosyllabic, then the change of a final न् n followed by a terminational vowel, or of a terminational न् n, is obligatory. (Pān. VIII. 4, 12.)

Ex. वृत्रहन् vṛtrahaṇ, Vṛtra-killer; gen. वृत्रहणः vṛtrahaṇaḥ.

सुरापः surāṇaḥ, drinking surā; nom. plur. neut. सुरापानि surāṇāni.

6. If the second part of a compound contains a guttural, the change is obligatory, even though the second part be not monosyllabic. (Pān. VIII. 4, 13)

Ex. हरिकामः harikāmaḥ, loving Hari; instrum. sing. हरिकामेण harikāmena.

शुष्कगोमयेण śuṣhkagomayena, instrum. sing. of शुष्कगोमय śuṣhkagomaya;

(शुष्क śuṣhka, dry, गोमय gomaya, dung)

7. Likewise after prepositions which contain an र r, the न् n of primary affixes, such as अन् ana, अनी ani, अनीय anīya, इन् in, न na (if preceded by a vowel), and मान māna, is changed to य् n, but under certain restrictions. (Pān. VIII. 4, 29)

Ex. प्रवपणं pravāpanam, प्रमानं pramānam; प्राप्यमानं prāpyamānam.

While in these cases the change is pronounced obligatory, it is said to be optional after causative verbs (Pān. VIII. 4, 30), and after verbs beginning and ending in consonants with any vowel but अ a (Pān. VIII. 4, 31); hence प्रवपणं and °नं prayāpanam and prayāpanam, प्रकोपणं or °नं prakopenam or prakopanam. Again, after verbs beginning in a vowel (not अ a) and strengthening their bases by nasalization, the change is necessary; it is forbidden in other verbs, not beginning with vowels, though they require nasalization: hence प्र + ईगनं = प्रेगणं pra + īganam = preṅganam; but प्र + कंपनं = प्रकपनं pra + kaṇpam = prakampanam. Lastly, there are several roots which defy all these rules, viz. भृ bhā, भू bhū, पृ pṛ, कम् kaṁ, गम् gaṁ, प्याय् pyāy, वेप् vep hence प्रभानं prabhānam &c; never प्रभाणं prabhāṇam; प्रवेपनं pravepanam, never प्रवेपणं pravepaṇam.

8. After prepositions containing an र r, such as अन्तर antar, निर nir, परा parā.

परि pari, and प्र pra, and after दुर dur, the change of न् n into ख् n takes place

- 1 In most roots beginning with न् n (Pan VIII 4, 14)

प्र + नमति = प्रणमति pra + namati = pranamati, he bows

परा + नुदति = परानुदति para + nudati = paranudati, he pushes away

अन्त + नयति = अन्तर्नयति antah + nayati = antarnayati, he leads in

प्र + नायक = प्रणायकः pra + nayakah = pranayakah, a leader

The roots which are liable to this change of their initial न् n are entered in the Dhâtupâtha, the list of roots of native grammarians, as beginning with ख् n. Thus we should find the root नम nam entered as खम् nam, simply in order thus to indicate its liability to change

- 2 In a few roots this change is optional if they are followed by Krit affixes, viz (Pan VIII 4, 33)

लिसि lis, to kiss, प्रलिसित्य or प्रनिसित्य pranislasyam or pranislasyam

लिक्ष् liksh, to kiss, प्रलिक्षण or प्रनिक्षण pranikshanam or pranikshanam

लिट् lid, to blame, प्रलिट् or प्रनिट् pranindanam or pranindanam

- 3 In a few roots the initial न् n resists all change, and these roots are entered in the Dhâtupâtha as beginning with न् n, viz. (Pan VI 1, 65, v)

नृत् nrî, to dance

नट् nand, to rejoice

नर्द nard, to howl

नक्त nakk, to destroy

नाद् nât, to fall down, (Chur) *

नाप् nâth, to ask

नाध् nâdh, to beg

नृ nrî, to lead

एत् परिनर्तन parinartanam परिनन्दन parinandanam

- 4 The root नश् nas, to destroy, changes न् n into ख् n only when its श s is not changed to ष sh प्र + नश्यते = प्रणश्यते pra + nasyate = pranasyate, but प्र + नष्ट = प्रणष्ट pra + nashfah = pranashfah, destroyed. (Pan VIII 4, 36)

- 5 In the root अन् an, to breathe, the न् n is changed to ख् n if the र r is not separated from the न् n by more than one letter. Thus प्र + अनिति = प्राणिति pra + aniti = prāṇiti, he breathes, but परि + अनिति = पर्याणिति pari + aniti = paryāṇiti. The reduplicated aorist forms प्राणिसन् prāṇinat, the desiderative with परा para is पराणिसिषति paranishati. (Pan VIII 4, 19, 21)

- 6 In the root हन् han, to kill, the न् n is changed except where ह् h has to be changed to घ् gh (Pan VIII 4, 22). Thus प्र + हन्यते = प्रहण्यते pra + hanyate = prahanyate, he is struck down, अन्तर्हण्यते antarhanyate (Pan VIII 4, 24), but प्र + प्रति = प्रप्रति pra + ghnanti = praghnanti, they kill. Also प्रहणन prahananam, killing

* It is not नर्द nar to dance, but नृद् nrî of the Chur class and hence written with न्. J. n. 6 4 1dh hsum 11 p 41 note

The change is optional again where न् n is followed by म् m or व् v. (Pân. VIII. 4, 23.) Thus ग्रहन्मि or ग्रहन्मि prahanmi or prahanmi; ग्रहन्वः or ग्रहन्वः prahanvah or prahanvah.

7. The न् n of नु nu of the Su and of न् n of the Kri conjugation is changed to श् sh in the verbs हि hi, to send, and मो mi, to destroy. (Pân. VIII. 4, 15)

Ex. ग्रहन्वन्ति prahinvanti; प्रमोहन्ति pramohanti.

8. The न् n of the termination क्षानि āni in the imperative is changeable. (Pân. VIII. 4, 16.) Thus प्र + भवानि = प्रभवानि pra + bhavāni = prabhavāni.

9. The न् n of the preposition नि ni, if preceded by प्र pra, परि pari, &c., is changed into श् sh before the verbs (Pân. VIII. 4, 17) गद् gad, to speak, नद् nad, to be happy, पत् pat, to fall, पद् pad, to go, the verbs called पु ghu, माद्* mā, to measure, मेद् me, to change, मो so, to destroy, हन् han, to kill, याद् yā, to go, वा vā, to blow, द्रा drā, to flee, प्सा psā, to eat, वप् vap, to weave, वह vah, to bear, शम् sam, to be tranquil (din), चि chi, to collect, दिह dih, to anoint.

The same change takes place even when the augment intervenes. (Pân. VIII. 4, 17, v.)

प्रत्यगदत् pranyagadat; प्रत्यनदत् pranyanadat.

§ 99. In all other verbs except those which follow गद् gad, the change of नि ni after प्र pra, परि pari, &c., is optional.

प्रनिपचति or प्रणिपचति pranipachati or pranipachati.

Except again in verbs beginning with क ka or ख kha, or ending in प sh (Pân. VIII. 4, 18), in which the न् n of नि ni remains unchanged.

प्रनिक्करोति pranikkaroti, प्रनिखादति pranikhādati, प्रनिपिनष्टि pranipinashṭi.

Change of स s into प sh

§ 100. A dental स s (chiefly of suffixes and terminations), if preceded by any vowel except अ, आ ā, or by क k, र r, ल l, is always changed into the lingual प sh, provided it be followed by a vowel, or by त t, थ th, न n, म m, य y, or व v; likewise by certain Taddhita suffixes, क ka, कल्प kalpa, पाप् pāpa, &c.

* Where it seemed likely to be useful, the Sanskrit roots have been given with their diacritical letters (anubandhas), but only in their Devanāgarī form. Pāṇini in enumerating the roots which change नि ni after प्र pra, प्रति prati, &c., into शि shi, mentions मी mā, but this, according to the commentaries, includes two roots, the root माद् mā(n), which forms मीमते mīmāte, he measures, and the root मेद् me(n), which forms मयते mayate, he changes. Where in this grammar the transcribed form of a root differs from its Devanāgarī original, the additional letters may always be looked upon as diacritical marks employed by native grammarians. Sometimes the class to which certain verbs belong has been indicated by adding the first verb of that class in brackets. Thus śam (div) means śamyati, or śam conjugated like div, and not śamyate.

परि pari, and प्र pra, and after दुर dur, the change of न् n into ख n takes place

- 1 In most roots beginning with न् n (Pan VIII 4, 14)

प्र + नमति = प्रणमति pra + namati = pranamati, he bows

पर + नुदति = परानुदति para + nudati = paranutati, he pushes away

अन्त + नयति = अन्तर्नयति antah + nayati = antarnayati, he leads in

प्र + नायक = प्रणायकः pra + nayakah = pranayakah, a leader

The roots which are liable to this change of their initial न् n are entered in the Dhātupāṭha, the list of roots of native grammarians, as beginning with ख n. Thus we should find the root नम nam entered as खम् nam, simply in order thus to indicate its liability to change

- 2 In a few roots this change is optional if they are followed by Kṛt affixes, viz (Pan VIII 4 33) *

खिसि nis, to kiss, प्रखिसितव्यं or प्रनिमित्तव्यं pranimitavyam or pranimistavyam

खिद् niksh, to kiss, प्रखिद्यन् or प्रनिद्यन् pranikshanam or pranikshanam

खिदि nid, to blame, प्रखिदन or प्रनिदन pranindanam or pranindanam

- 3 In a few roots the initial न् n resists all change, and these roots are entered in the Dhātupāṭha as beginning with न् n, viz. (Pan VI 1, 65, v)

नृत nṛt to dance

नन्द nand to rejoice

नर् nard, to howl

नष्ट nakk, to destroy

नाद् nāt, to fall down, (Chur) *

नाष् nath, to ask

नाध nādhi to beg

नृ nṛi, to lead

Ex परिमर्तन parimartanam परिमन्दन parimandanam

- 4 The root नश् nas, to destroy, changes न् n into ख n only when its श s is not changed to ष sh. प्र + नश्यते = प्रणश्यते pra + naśyate = pranasyate but

प्र + नष्ट = प्रणष्ट pra + naśtah = pranastah, destroyed. (Pan VIII 4, 36)

- 5 In the root अन् an, to breathe, the न् n is changed to ख n if the र r is not separated from the न् n by more than one letter. Thus प्र + अति = प्राति pra + anti = prāti, he breathes, but परि + अति = पर्याति pari + anti = paryati. The reduplicated norist forms प्राणिन्त prānint the desiderative with परा para is पराणिष्यति paranishyati (Pan VIII 4, 19, 21)

- 6 In the root हन् han, to kill, the न् n is changed except where ह h has to be changed to घ gh. (Pan VIII 4, 22) Thus प्र + हन्यते = प्रहण्यते pra + hanyate = prahanyate, he is struck down, अन्तर्हण्यते antarhanyate (Pan VIII 4 24), but प्र + प्रति = प्रघ्ति pra + ghnanti = praghanti, they kill. Also प्रहन् prahanam, killing

* It is not नद् naḍ to dance, but नृ nṛ of the Chur class and hence written with a ṛ. See also Kaum II p 41 note

The change is optional again where न् n is followed by म् m or य y (Pān. VIII 4, 23) Thus ग्रहन्नि or ग्रहयिन् grahanmi or grahanmi, ग्रहन्तः or ग्रहयन्तः grahanvah or grahanvah

7. The न् n of नु nu of the Su and of न् n of the Kṛi conjugation is changed to ण् n in the verbs हि hi, to send, and मी mi, to destroy (Pān. VIII 4, 15)

Ex. ग्रहयन्ति grahayanti प्रमीयन्ति pramīyanti

8 The न् n of the termination ज्ञानि ñni in the imperative is changeable (Pān. VIII 4, 16) Thus प्र + भयानि = प्रभयानि pra + bhayāni = prabhayāni

9 The न् n of the preposition नि ni, if preceded by प्र pra, परि pari, &c, is changed into ण् n before the verbs (Pān. VIII 4, 17) गद् gad, to speak, नद् nad, to be happy, पत pat, to fall, पद pad, to go, the verbs called घु ghu, माड* mā, to measure, मेद् me, to change, मो so, to destroy, हन् han, to kill, या yā, to go, वा vā, to blow, द्रा dra, to flee, प्सा psā, to eat, यप् yap, to weave, वह vah, to bear, शम् sam, to be tranquil (du), चि chu, to collect, दिह dih, to anoint

The same change takes place even when the augment intervenes (Pān. VIII. 4, 17, v)

प्रत्यगदत् pranyagadat, प्रत्यनदत् pranyanadat.

§ 99 In all other verbs except those which follow गद् gad, the change of नि ni after प्र pra, परि pari, &c, is optional

प्रनिपचति or प्रणिपचति pranipachati or pranipachati

Except again in verbs beginning with क ka or ख kha, or ending in प sh (Pān. VIII 4, 18), in which the न् n of नि ni remains unchanged

प्रनिकरोति pranikaroti प्रनिखादति pranikhādati प्रनिपिनष्टि pranipinashṭi

Change of म् s into प् sh

§ 100 A dental म् s (chiefly of suffixes and terminations), if preceded by any vowel except अ, आ ā, or by क् k, ख् kh, ल् l, is always changed into the lingual प् sh, provided it be followed by a vowel, or by त t, थ th, न n, म m, य y, or व v likewise by certain Taddhita suffixes, क ka, कल्प kalpa, पाश paśa, &c

* Where it seemed likely to be useful the Sanskrit roots have been given with their diacritical letters (anubandhas) but only in their Devanāgarī form. Pāṇini in enumerating the roots which change नि ni after प्र pra प्रति prati &c into णि ni mentions माड mā but this, according to the commentaries includes two roots the root माड mā(n) which forms मीमते mīmate he measures and the root मेद् me(n) which forms मयते mayate he changes. Where in this grammar the transcribed form of a root differs from its Devanāgarī original the additional letters may always be looked upon as diacritical marks employed by native grammarians. Sometimes the class to which certain verbs belong has been indicated by adding the first verb of that class in brackets. Thus śam (dṛ) means śumyati, or śam conjugated like dṛ, and not śamayate

If Anusvāra* or Visarga or प् sh intervenes between the vowel and the स् s, the change into प् sh takes place nevertheless.

Ex. सर्पिस् sarpis, inflectional base; सर्पिः sarpīḥ, nom. sing. neut. clarified butter; instrum. सर्पिणा sarpīṇā; nom. plur. सर्पिण्य sarpīṇyā (here the Anusvāra intervenes); loc. plur. सर्पिषु sarpīṣhu (here the Visarga intervenes); or सर्पिष्पु sarpīṣṣhu (here the प् sh intervenes).

वाद्य vādkshu, loc. plur. of वाच् vāch, speech.

सर्वेशक् + सु = सर्वेशक्षु sarvaśak + su = sarvaśakshu, omnipotent.

चित्रलिक् (क्) + सु = चित्रलिक्षु chitralikh (k) + su = chitralikshu, painter.

गीर्षु gīrshu, loc. plur. of गिर् gir, speech.

कमल् + सु = कमलक्षु kamal + su = kamalshu, naming the goddess Lakshmi.

मोक्षति dhrokshyati, fut. of द्रुह् druḥ, to hate; (here ह् h is changed to क् k, and the aspiration thrown on the initial द् d.)

पोष्यति poḥshyati, fut. of पुष् puṣh, to nourish; (here प् sh is changed into क् k.)

सर्पिः + कः = सर्पिष्कः sarpīḥ + kaḥ = sarpīṣkah; adj. formed by क ka, having clarified butter.

सर्पिः + तरः = सर्पितरः sarpīḥ + tarah = sarpīṣtarah; (here the त् t of तरः tarah is changed into द् d, as in § 89, III. 2.) If the penultimate vowel be long, no change takes place; गीस्तार gīstārā. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 101.)

सर्पिः + मत् = सर्पिष्मत् sarpīḥ + mat = sarpīṣmat, having clarified butter.

Table showing the Changes of स् s into प् sh.

Any Vowel except अ, आ ई, (in spite of intervening Anusvāra or Visarga or sibilant,) and क्, ख्, र्, ल् if immediately preceding.	change स् s into प् sh *	if there follow Vowels, or त् t, प् ph, न् n, म् m, य् y, य् v.

§ 101. The same rule produces the change of स् s into प् sh in roots beginning with स् s, if reduplicated, provided the vowel of the reduplicated syllable is not अ, आ ई: Ex. स्वप् svap, to sleep; Redupl. Perf. सुप्ताप् sushvāpa,

* The Anusvāra must not represent a radical nasal; hence पुंसु punṣu, not पुंशु punṣhu, loc. plur. of पुंस् punṣ, man; Paṇ. base पुंस् pun. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 58) The Śārasvatī prescribes पुंशु punṣhu. The स् s must not be a radical स् s, hence मुषिमी muṣimī, because the स् s belongs to the root पिष् piṣ. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 59) Yet आशिषः āśiṣah, from root शस् śas. The rules do not apply to final स् s; hence अग्निस्तत्र agnis tatra. (Pāṇ. VIII. 3, 55)

I have slept सिपू सुद्ध, Des मिदिमहि सुद्धितु This rule is liable to exceptions

§ 102 Again, many roots beginning with शृ change it into ष after prepositions requiring such a change, viz. अधि adhi over, अनु anu, after, अपि api, upon, अभि abhi, towards, नि ni, in, निर् nir, out, परि pari, round, प्रति prati, towards, वि vi away. I x अभि + श्रीति = अभिशीति abhi + śrīti — abhiśhīti, he praises. The same change takes place even after the augment has been added, in which case the शृ is really preceded by an अ. I x आश्रीति abhyāśhīti, he praised. Some verbs, after these prepositions, keep the शृ in the reduplicated perfect. I x मिष śich, to sprinkle, अभिषिषति abhiśhī chati, he sprinkles, अभिषिषेच abhiśhīshecha he has sprinkled. In the intensive मिष śich does not follow this rule, hence अभिसेमिष्यते abhiśesichyate (Pān viii 3 112), but in the desiderative शृ is changed, अभिषिषिष्यति abhiśhīshikṣati. Many other cases must be learnt from the dictionary or from Pāṇini.

§ 103 In order to give an idea of the minuteness of the rules as collected by native grammarians, and of the complicated manner in which these rules are laid down, the following extracts from Pāṇini have been subjoined, though they by no means exhaust the subject according to the views of native grammarians. It need hardly be added that beginners should not attempt to burden their memory with these rules though a glance at them may be useful by giving them an idea of the intricacies of Sanskrit grammar.

Native grammarians enumerate all monosyllabic verbs beginning with स् s, and followed by a vowel or by a dental consonant (likewise स्मिद् smi, स्मिद् smi स्मद् smad, स्मन् smā), as if beginning with ष sh. Thus they write षिद् shidh, ष्मद् shmad, ष्मन् shman (Pan. vi. 1, 64).

This is not done with मृ mr̥, मृन् mr̥n, मृत् mr̥t, मृम mr̥m ये ya, मे ek, मृ mr̥, in order to show that their initial मृ mr̥ is not liable to be changed into मृ mr̥ under any circumstances.

They then gave the general rule that this initial य श is to be changed into म् s, in all these verbs, except श्रि श्रि and श्रि श्रि, (and according to some in श्रि श्रि, Sur) unless where य श is enjoyed a second time

Now य् sh for य् s in these verbs is enjoined a second time

- 1 When a preposition, or what else precedes it, requires such permutation, according to general rules $रि + स्तीति = रिशीति$ $रि + स्तौति = रिशितौ$ $मेत् ser$ forms $सिमेत्$ $sisheta$ in the reduplicated perfect
- 2 In desideratives when the reduplicative syllable contains इ or उ i or u.
 $सिद्$ $siddh$, Des $सिषिद्सिद्$ $sishitsats$

But if the η of the desiderative element must itself be changed to η η .

the initial स s remains unchanged. सिद् siddh, सिद्धेयिषति siddheyishati. (Pān. VIII. 3, 61.)

Except in स्तु stu, and in derivative verbs in अय aya, where स s is changed to श sh. लु stu, Des. लुष्टयति lushṭishati. सिद् siddh, Caus. सिध्यति siddhayati, Des. सिद्धेयिषति siddheyishati; but सुसिद्धति surūishati. (VIII. 3, 61.)

Except again, in certain causatives, in अय aya (VIII. 3, 62), where स s is not changed into श sh. सिद् sidd, सिद्धेयिषति siddedayishati. स्वद् svad, सिस्वादयिषति sivśvadayishati. मद् sah, सिसाहयिषति sisahayishati.

3. In certain verbs, after prepositions which require such a change, even when they are separated from the verb by the augment, viz. सु su (so), मू śū (tud), सो so (dir), स्तु stu (ad), लुब् lubbh (bhū); or even if separated by reduplication, in the verbs म्या śhṛ, सेनय senaya, सिद् siddh, सिद् sich, संज् śanj, संज् śrañj, मद् sad, मंज् śambh, सन् śran, सेत् set, (the last only after परि pari, नि ni, वि vi: VIII. 3, 65.)

After prepositions: अभिषुनोति abhiśhunoti. अभिषुयति abhiśhuyati. अभिष्यति abhiśhyati. परिशीति parishīṭi. परिशीते parishīṭhate. अभिषिषति abhiśhiṣṭi. अभिषेयति abhiśheyati. परिषेयति pariśedhati. अभिषिषति abhiśhiṣṭi. परिषयति pariśayati. परिषयते pariśayate (VIII. 3, 65). निषीदति niśīdati, but प्रतिनीदति pratīśīdati (VIII. 3, 65). अभिषिषति abhiśhiṣṭi (VIII. 3, 67 and 114). Also अश्रयति aśrayati (VIII. 3, 68, in certain senses). वि and अश्रयति vi and aśrayati (VIII. 3, 69, in the sense of eating). परिषेयते pariśeyate.

स् is changed to श whenever ह becomes र् in nom तुरासाह turāśāh
acc तुरासाह turāśaham (Pan VIII 3, 56)

Change of Dental य dh into Lingual ढ dh

§ 105 The य dh of the second pers plur Ātm is changed to ढ dh in the reduplicated perfect, the nomst, and in यीय śhīdhīām of the benedictive, provided the य dh, or the यी shi of यीय śhīdhīām, follows immediately an inflective root ending in any vowel but अ, आ ई. (Pan VIII 3, 78)

Rules of Internal Sandhi

§ 106 The phonetic rules contained in the preceding paragraphs (§ 32-94) apply, as has been stated, to the final and initial letters of words (padas), when brought into immediate contact with each other in a sentence, to the final and initial letters of words formed into compounds, and to the final letters of nominal bases before the Pada terminations and before certain secondary or Taddhita suffixes, beginning with any consonant except य.

There is another class of phonetic rules applicable to the final letters of nominal (pratilpadika) and verbal bases (dhatu) before the other terminations of declension and conjugation, before primary or kṛit suffixes, and before secondary or Taddhita suffixes beginning with a vowel or य. Some of these rules are general and deserve to be remembered. But in many cases they either agree with the rules of Internal Sandhi, or are themselves liable to such numerous exceptions that it is far easier to learn the words or grammatical forms themselves as we do in Greek and Latin, than to try to master the rules according to which they are formed or supposed to be formed.

The following are a few of the phonetic rules of what may be called Internal Sandhi. The student will find it useful to glance at them without endeavouring, however, to impress them on his memory After he has learnt that द्विष् duṣh, to hate, forms द्वेषि diśhi, I hate, द्वेषि diśhi, thou hatest, द्वेष्टि dveṣhi, he hates, अद्वेष्ट adveṣ, he hated, द्विष्टु dviṣṭu, Hate! द्विष्ट dviṣṭ, a hater, द्विष duṣhah, of a hater, द्विषु duṣu, among haters—he will refer back with advantage to the rules, more or less general, which regulate the change of final ṣ into k, t, d, &c, but he will never learn his declensions and conjugations properly, if, instead of acquiring first the paradigms as they are, he endeavours to construct each form by itself, according to the phonetic rules laid down in the following paragraphs

1 Final Vowels

§ 107 No hiatus is tolerated in the middle of Sanskrit words Words such as प्रयुग praiyuga, fore-yoke, तिलक tilak, sieve, are isolated exceptions The hiatus in compounds, such as पुरस्तात् puraṣṭa, going in front, नामउक्ति nama uktiḥ, saying of praise, which is produced by the elision of a final ṣ before certain vowels has been treated of under the head of External Sandhi (§ 84 2)

§ 108 Final ṣ and ā coalesce with following vowels according to the general rules of Sandhi

- हुद + अस्ति tuda + asti = हुदस्ति tud asti, I beat
- हुद + इ tuda + i = हुदे tude, I beat, Ātm
- दान + इ dāna + i = दाने dāne, in the gift
- दान + ई dāna + ī = दाने dāne, the two gifts

If we admit the same set of terminations after bases ending in consonants and in short ṣ a, it becomes necessary to lay down some rules requiring final ṣ a to be dropt before certain vowels Thus if अस्ति asti is put down as the general termination of the acc sing, as in वाच ich asti, it is necessary to enjoin the omission of final ṣ a of शिर śira before the ṣ am of the acc sing, in order to arrive at शिर śiram In the same manner if अस्ति asti is put down as the termination of the 1 p sing impf Par, and ए e as that of the 1 p sing pres Ātm, we can form regularly अद्वेष्ट adveṣṭ-am and द्विष्टे dviṣṭe but we have to lay down a new rule, according to which the final ṣ a of हुद tuda is dropt, in order to arrive at the correct forms अहुद atud(a)-am and हुदे tud(a)e By following the system adopted in this grammar of giving two sets of terminations, and thus enabling the student to arrive at the actual forms of declension and conjugation by a merely mechanical combination of base and termination, it is possible to dispense with a number of these phonetic rules

Again in the declension of bases ending in radical ṣ ā, certain phonetic rules had to be laid down, according to which the final ṣ ā had to be elided before certain terminations beginning with vowels. Thus the dative शंखमा + ए śankhadhmā + e was said to form शंखमे śankhadhme, (to the shell-blower,) by dropping the final आ ā, and not शंखामे śankhadhmai. Here, too, the same result is obtained by admitting two bases for this as for many other nouns, and assigning the weak base, in which the आ ā is dropt, to all the so-called Bha cases, the cases which Hopp calls the weakest cases (Pān. vi. 4, 140). Each of these systems has its advantages and defects, and the most practical plan is, no doubt, to learn the paradigms by heart without asking any questions as to the manner in which the base and the terminations were originally combined or glued together.

§ 109. With regard to verbal bases ending in long आ ā, many special rules have to be observed, according to which final आ ā is either elided, or changed to ई i or to ए e. These rules will be given in the chapter on Conjugation. Thus पुना + संति punā + anti = पुनन्ति punanti, they cleanse.

पुना + मः punā + mah = पुनीमः punīmah, we cleanse.

दा + हि dā + hi = देहि dehi, Give!

§ 110. Final इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ए e, ऐ ai, if followed by vowels or diphthongs, are generally changed to य y, व v, र r.

Ex. मति + ऐ = मते matī + ai = matyai, to the mind.

जिति + उः = जियुः jigī + uḥ = jigyuh, they have conquered.

भानु + ओः = भान्वीः bhānu + oḥ = bhānōḥ, of the two splendours.

पितृ + आ = पिता pitṛī + ā = pitṛā, by the father.

बिभी + संति = बिभ्यति bibhī + anti = bibhyati, they fear.

In some cases इ i and ई ī are changed to इय iy, उ u and ऊ ū to उप uv; ए e to रि ri; ऐ ai to इर ir and, after labials, to उर ur.

Ex. गी + संति = गियन्ति gī + anti = giyanti, they go.

भी + इ = भियि bhī + i = bhigi, in fear.

सुपू + ए = सुपुवे sushū + e = sushue, I have brought forth.

भू + इ = भुवि bhū + i = bhuvī, on earth.

गू + संति = गिरति gū + anti = girati, he swallows.

पपू + इ = पपुरि papū + i = papuri, liberal.

यु + संति = युवन्ति yu + anti = yuvanti, they join.

युयु + उः = युयुवुः yuyu + uḥ = yuyuvuḥ, they have joined.

When either the one or the other takes place must be learnt from paradigms and from special rules given under the heads of Declension and Conjugation.

§ 111. Final ए e, if followed by terminational consonants, is changed to इर ir; and after labials to उर ur.

गृ grī, to shout, Passive गीर्यते gīr-yate, Part पूर्यते gīr-nah

पृ prī, to fill; Passive पूर्यते pūr-yate, Part पूर्यते pūr-nah

§ 112 ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au, before vowels and diphthongs are centrally changed into अय् ay, आय् āy, अव् av, आव् āv

• दे + अते = दयते de + ate = dayate, he protects

रै + ए = राये rai + e = rāye, to wealth

गो + ए = गवे go + e = gāve, to the cow

नौ + अ = नाव nau + ah = nāvah, the ships

Roots terminated by a radical diphthong (except ये ye in redupl perf, Pan VI 1, 46) change it into आ ā before any affix except those of the so-called special tenses (Pân VI 1, 45)

दे + ता = दाता de + tā = dātā, he will protect

दे + सीय = दासीय de + sīya = dāsīya, May I protect

मै + ता = म्लान mai + tā = mldātā, he will wither

शो + ता = शान šo + tā = śātd, he will pare

But in the Present ग्ले + अति = ग्लायति glai + ati = glayati, he is weary.

2 Final Consonants

§ 113 The rules according to which the consonants which can occur at the end of a word are restricted to क् k, न् n, द् t, ल् l, न् n, त् t, न् n, प् p, म् m, ल् l, ः h, ः m, must likewise be observed where the last letter of a nominal or verbal base becomes final, i e where it is not followed by any derivative letter or syllable

Thus the nominal base युध् yudh, battle, would in the vocative singular be युध् yudh. Here, however, the ध् dh must be changed into द् d, because no aspirate is tolerated as a final (§ 54 1), and द् d is changed into त् t, because no word can end in a soft consonant (§ 54 2) वाच vach, speech, in the voc sing would change its च् ch into क् k, because palatals can never be final (§ 54 3)

In अधोक adhok, the aspiration of the final is thrown back on the initial द् d (§ 118) The final ह् h or घ् gh, after losing its aspiration, becomes ग् g, which is further changed to क् k

§ 114 Nominal or verbal bases ending in consonants and followed by terminations consisting of a single consonant, drop the termination altogether, two consonants not being tolerated at the end of a word (§ 55) The final consonants of the base are then treated like other final consonants

वाच् + स = वाक् vach + s = vak, speech, nom sing

प्राच् + स = प्राक् prāñch + s = pran, eastern, nom sing masc Here प्राक् prāñk, which remains after the dropping of स् s, is, according to the same rule, reduced again to प्रह् práh, the final nasal remaining guttural, as it would have been guttural if the final क् k had remained

सुवल् + स = सुवल् सुवल् + s = suval, well jumping Here, after the dropping of स् s, there would remain सुवल् suvalk but as no word can end in two consonants, this is reduced to सुवल् suval Before the Pada terminations सुवल् suvalg assumes its Pada form सुवल् suval (§ 53), hence instrum plur सुवल्भिः suvalbhīḥ

अहन् + स = अहन् ahan + s = ahan thou killedst, 2 p sing impf Par

अद्वेप् + त् = अद्वेप् advēṣ + t = advēṣ, he hated, 3 p sing. impf Par

अदोह् + त् = अदोह् adoh + t = adhok, he milked, 3 p sing impf Par

Exceptions will be seen under the heads of Declension and Conjugation

§ 115 With regard to the changes of the final consonants of nominal and verbal bases, before terminations, the general rule is,

- 1 Terminations beginning with sonant letters, require a sonant letter at the end of the nominal or verbal base
- 2 Terminations beginning with surd letters, require a surd letter at the end of the nominal or verbal base
- 3 In this general rule the terminations beginning with vowels, semivowels, or nasals are excluded, i. e. they produce no change in the final consonant of the base

1 वच् + धि = वच्धि vach + dhi = vagdhi, Speak! 2 p sing imp Par

पृच् + ध्वे = पृच्ध्वे prich + dhve = prigdhve, you mix, 2 p plur pres Åtm

2 अद् + ति = अत्ति ad + ti = atsi, 2 p sing pres thou eatest

अद + ति = अत्ति ad + ti = atti, 3 p sing pres he eats

3 मरुत् + इ = मरुत्ति marut + i = maruti, loc sing in the wind

वच् + मि = वच्मि vach + mi = vachmi, I speak

ग्रथ् + यते = ग्रथ्यते grath + yate = grathyate, it is arranged.

Exceptions such as भिद् + न = भिन्न bhid + nah = bhinnah, divided, भङ्ग + न = भङ्ग bhany + nah = bhagnah, broken, must be learnt by practice rather than by rule

§ 116 Aspirates, if followed by terminations beginning with any letter (except vowels and semivowels and nasals), lose their aspiration (§ 54. 1)

Ex मामच् + ति = मामत्ति mamath + ti = m imatti, 3 p sing pres Par of the intensive मामच् m imath, he shakes much.

रुप् + ध्वे = रुद्ध्वे rundh + dhve = runddhve, 2 p plur pres. Åtm. of रुप् rudh, you impede

लभ् + स्ये = लप्स्ये labh + sye = lapsye, I shall take

But युप् + इ = युधि yudh + i = yudhi, loc sing in battle

लुभ् + यः = लुभ्यः lubbh + yah = lubhhyah, to be desired.

क्षुभ् + नाति = क्षुभ्नाति kshubh + nāti = kshubhnāti, he agitates.

It is a general rule that two aspirates can never meet in ordinary Sanskrit.

§ 117. If final घ् gh, ङ् dh, च dh, भ bh are followed by त् t or थ th, they are changed to the corresponding soft letters, ग् g, द d, च् ch, भ b. but the त् t and थ th are likewise softened, and the द d receives the aspiration. See also § 128.

Ex. रुणध् + ति = रुणद्धि runadh + ti = runaddhi, he obstructs.

लभ् + तः = लभः labh + tah = labdhah, taken.

रुध् + यः = रुद्धः rundh + thah = runddhah (also spelt रुधः rundhah), you two obstruct.

रुध् + तः = रुद्धः rundh + tah = runddhah, they two obstruct.

अर्वाध् + तः = अर्वाद्धं abāndh + tan = abānddham, 2. p. dual aor. 1. Par. you two bound.

अर्वाध् + याः = अर्वाद्धाः abāndh + thāh = abānddhāh, 2. p. sing. aor. 1. Âtm. thou boundest.

In अर्वाद्धं abānddham, 2. p. dual aor. 1. Par., the aspiration of final घ् dh is not thrown back upon the initial च् ch, because it is supposed to be absorbed by the न tan of the termination, changed into च dham. The same applies to अर्वाद्धाः abānddhāh, though here the termination याः thāh was aspirated in itself.

§ 118. If घ् gh, ङ् dh, च dh, भ bh, ङ् h, at the end of a syllable, lose their aspiration either as final or as being followed by ङ् dhv, भ bh, ङ् s, they throw their aspiration back upon the initial letters, provided these letters be no other than ग् g, द d, च् ch. See § 93.

Ex. Inflective base धुप् budh, to know; nom. sing. भुत् bhut, knowing.

Instrum. plur. भुभिः bhubhūh.

Loc. plur. भुत्सु bhutsu.

Second pers. plur. aor. Âtm. अभुद्धं abhuddham.

Second pers. sing. pres. Intens. बोधोप् + सि = बोधोसि bobodh + si = bobhotsi.

Desiderative of दध् dadh, धिष्यति dhipsyati, he wishes to hurt.

First pers. sing. fut. of बध् + स्यामि = भक्ष्यामि bandh + syāmi = bhantsyāmi, I shall bind.

दद् dadh, to burn; धक् dhak, nom. sing. a burner.

दुद् dudh, to milk; अधुग्धुवाम् adhugdhuvam, 2. p. plur. impf. Âtm.: but 2. p. sing. imp. Par. दुग्धि dugdhi.

Note—दध् dadh, the reduplicated base of धा dah, दधाति dadhāmi, I place, throws the lost aspiration of the final घ् dh back on the initial ङ् d, not only before ङ् dhv, ङ् s, but likewise before त् t and थ th, where we might have expected the application of § 117 दध् + तः = धतः

$dadh + tak = dhattak$ दध् + त् = पत्त $dadh + thak = dhattak$ दध् + से = पत्ते $dadh + se = dhatsē$, दध् + ध्व = धद्ध $dadh + dhvam = dhaddhvam$

§ 119 If च् ch, ज् j, झ् jh are final, or followed by a termination beginning with any letter, except vowels, semivowels, or nasals, they are changed to क् k or ग् g

Ex. Nominal base वाच् vāch, voc वाक ruk, speech

Verbal base वच् vach 3 p sing pres वच् + ति = वक्ति $vach + ti = vakti$

युज् + पि = युजिष्य $yuj + dhi = yujishy$, 2 p sing imp Join!

But loc sing वाच् + इ = वाचि $vach + i = vacchi$

वाच् + य = वाच्य $vach + ya = vāchyā$, to be spoken

वच् + म = वच्म $vach + mah = vacmah$, we speak

वच् + प = वच्प $vach + vah = vacchah$, we two speak (See also § 124)

§ 120. प् sh at the end of nominal and verbal bases, if it becomes the final of a word, is changed into द् t

Ex Nominal base द्विप् dvish, nom sing द्विद् dvit, a hater

Verbal base द्विप् dvish, 3 p sing impf. Par अद्वेद् adit, he hated

§ 121 Before verbal terminations beginning with स् s, it is treated like क् k

Ex द्वेप् + ति = द्वेक्षि $dvish + si = dīekshi$, thou hatest, aor अद्विषत् advishat, he hated

पोष्यति pokshyati ($push + syati$), he will nourish

§ 122 Before त् t or थ् th it remains unchanged itself, but changes त् t and थ् th into द् t and द् th

Ex द्विप् + त = द्विट् $dvish + tak = dvishatak$, they (two) hate

Thus rule admits of a more general application, namely, that every dental त् t, थ् th, द् d, ध् dh, न् n, and स् s, is changed into the corresponding lingual, if preceded by द् t, द् th, द् d, द् dh, ख् n, and प् sh

Ex द्विट् + पि = द्विद्वि $dvid + dhi = dviddhi$, hate thou

मृद + नाति = मृदयाति $mrid + nati = mridnati$

ईद + ते = ईद्वे $id + te = iddve$, he praises

Ex द्विप् + ध्व = द्विद्धु $dvish + dhvam = dviddhvam$, 2 p plur impf Ātm
Hate ye!

द्विप् + सु = द्विद्वसु $dvish + su = dvishsu$, loc plur among haters

Exceptions to this rule, such as धृप् dhriśh, nom धृक् dhrik, and to other rules will be seen under the heads of Declension and Conjugation

§ 124. In the roots ध्रञ् dhrañ, to shine, मृञ् mriñ, to wipe, यञ् yaj, to sacrifice, रञ् raj, to shine, मृञ् mriñ, to let forth, and भ्रञ् bhrañ, to roast (भ्रञ्ज dhraja, Pan VIII 2, 36), the final ञ् is replaced by प् sh, which, in the case enumerated above, is liable to the same changes as an original प् sh. Thus मृन् + च = मृच mry + cha = mrishta, you wipe.

राज् + सु = राजसु raja + su = rajasu, &c

§ 125 Most verbal and nominal bases ending in ज्ञ ś, छ् chh, क्ष् ksh, श् śh (some in ञ्, § 124) are treated exactly like those ending in simple प् sh

Ex. Nominal base विज् vis nom विद् viś, a man of the third caste

Fut वेश् + स्यामि = वेक्ष्यामि veś + syāmi = vekshyāmi, I shall enter

Fut periphr वेश् + ता = वेश्ता veś + ta = veshṭa, I shall enter

विज्ञ् + ध्व = विद्ध्यु vis + dhvam = viddhām, enter you

Loc plur विज् + सु = विदसु viś + su = viśsu, among men

Nominal base प्राच्छ् prachh nom प्राट् praś, an asker

Verbal base प्राच्छ् prachh प्राच्छ् + स्यामि = प्रक्ष्यामि prachh + syāmi = prakshyāmi, I shall ask

प्राच्छ् + ता = प्रष्टा prachh + ta = prasṭā, I shall ask

प्राच्छ् + सु = प्रादसु prachh + su = praśsu, among askers

Nominal base तक्ष् taksh तक्ष् + सु = तदसु taksh + su = taśsu, among carpenters.

Nominal base रक्ष् raksh गोरक्ष् + सु = गोरदसु goraksh + su = goratsu, among cowherds

Verbal base चक्ष् chaksh चक्ष् + से = चक्षे chaksh + se = chakshe, thou seest चक्ष् + ध्वे = चक्ष्दे chaksh + dhvé = chaqdhve, you see.

व्राच्छ् vraśch, to cut, nom sing वट् vraś

व्राच्छ् + स्यामि = व्रक्ष्यामि vraśch + syāmi = vrakshyāmi I shall cut

व्राच्छ् + ता = व्राश्टा vraśch + ta = vrashṭā, he will cut.

§ 126 The ज्ञ ś of दिञ् diś, to show, दृञ् drś to see, मृञ् mriś, to stroke, स्पृञ् spriś to touch if final or followed by Pada terminations is changed into क् k

Ex Nominal base दिञ् diś nom sing दिक् dik instrum plur दिग्भिः digbhīḥ loc plur दिक्षु dikshu

दृञ् drś nom sing दृक् drīk instrum plur दृग्भिः drigbhīḥ

In the root नञ् nas, the change of ज्ञ ś into क् k or ट् t is optional (Pan VIII 2 63) For further particulars see Declension and Conjugation

§ 127 ह् h at the end of verbal bases, if followed by a termination beginning with स् s is treated like प् gh, i.e. like a guttural with an inherent aspiration, which aspiration may be thrown forward on the initial letter

Ex लेह् + स्यामि = लेक्ष्यामि leh + syāmi = lekshyāmi, I shall lick.

दोह् + स्यामि = दोक्ष्यामि doh + syāmi = dhokshyāmi, I shall milk

§ 128 In all other cases, whether at the end of a word or followed by terminations, ह h is treated either (1) like घ gh in most words beginning with द d (Pan VIII 2, 32), and in उष्णिह् ushnih or (2) like द dh in all other words

Ex (1) दुह् duh nom धुक् dhuk instrum plur धुभिः dhugbhīḥ loc plur धुक् dhukshu part. pass दुग् dugdhah
 $दृह + त = दृढ$ drih + tah = dṛdhaḥ, fast is an exception

Ex. (2) लिह् lih nom लिट् lit instrum plur लिट्भिः lidbhīḥ loc. plur लिट्सु litsu (पाह् i ah, वादसु i isu)
 $लिह् + त = लीट$ lih + tah = lidhaḥ
 $रुह + त = रुढ$ ruh + tah = rūdhaḥ

In लीट् lidhaḥ and रुढ् rūdhaḥ, $द + त$ dh + t are changed (§ 117) to $ड$ d + $ढ$ dh then the first ड d is dropt and the vowel lengthened. The only vowel which is not lengthened is अ a ṛ e ḡ $पृह + त = पृढ + त = पृडढ = पृढ$ rih + ta = ṛidh + ta = ṛid-dīa = ṛidha

§ 129 The final ह of certain roots (दृह् druh, मुह् muh, सुह् snuh छिह् snih) is treated either as घ gh or द dh. From दृह् druh, to hate, we have in compounds the nom sing ध्रुक् dhruk and ध्रुट् dhruṭ (Pan VIII 2, 33), past participle दृग् drugdhah or दृढ् drūdhaḥ

§ 130 The final ह h of नह् nah to bind is treated as ध dh

Ex उपानह् upanah, slipper, nom sing उपानत् upanat instrum plur उपानट्भिः upanadbhīḥ

Past part pass नह + त = नद्ध nah + tah = naddah bound ✓

As to अनदुह् anaduh ox &c, see Declension

§ 131 Nominal bases ending in radical स् s change it to त t if final and before the Pada terminations. (Pan VIII 2, 72)

ध्वस् dhvas to fall, nom sing ध्वत् dhvat nom plur ध्वसः dhvasah, instrum

§ 132 Verbal bases ending in स् s, change it to त् t, before terminations of the general tenses beginning with स् s (Pan VII 4, 49)

वस् vas, to dwell, fut वस् + म्यामि = वत्स्यामि vas + syami = vatsyami

Before other terminations beginning with स् s final स् s remains unchanged

वस् + से = वस्से vas + se = vasse thou dwellest

सस् + सि = ससि sas + si = sasi, thou sleepest

निस् + से = निस्से nims + se = nisse, thou kissest.

पेपस् + सि = पेपेप्सि pepes + si = pepeshsi thou hurtest * (§ 100)

In certain verbs final स् s is dropt before पि dhi of the imp

शास् + पि = शापि śas + dhi = śadhi (Pan VI 4 35)

चक्रास् + पि = चक्रापि chak s + dhi = chakadhi

In the same verbs final स् s, if immediately followed by the termination of the second person, स् s, may be changed to त् t or remain स् s

अशास् + स् = अशात् or अशा asas + s = asat or asāh

Before the त् t of the third person, it always becomes त् t

अशाम् + त = अशान् asas + t = asat (Pan VIII 2, 73 74)

§ 133 न् n and म् m at the end of a nominal or verbal base, before sibilants (but not before the सु su of the loc plur), are changed to Anusvara

Ex जिघासति jighamsati, he wishes to kill, from हन् han
कस्यते kamsyate, he will step, from क्रम kram

§ 134 न् n remains unchanged before semivowels

Ex हन्य hanyah, to be killed, from हन् han
तन्वन् tamnan, extending, from तन् tan
प्रेन्वन् *prenvanam, propelling from इन् inv

§ 135 म् m remains unchanged before the semivowels य y, र r, ल l

Ex काम्य kam yah, to be loved, from कम् kam
ताम्र tamram, copper, from तम् tam and suffix र ra
अम्ल amlah, sour, from अम् am and suffix ल la

§ 136 म् m at the end of a nominal or verbal base, if no suffix follows, or if followed by a Pada termination or by personal terminations beginning with म् m or व् v, is changed into न् n (Pan VIII 2, 65)

Ex प्रशान् praśan nom sing and प्रशान्भिः praśanbhiḥ, instrum plur, प्रशान्सु praśansu, loc plur, from प्रशाम् praśam quieting (Pan VIII 2, 64) अगन्म aganma, we went and अगन्व aganva we two went, from गम् + म् gam + m gam + ma, गम् + व gam + va

But nom plur प्रशाम् praśamah

§ 137 With regard to nasals, the general rule is that in the body of a word the firsts, the seconds the thirds and the fourths of each class can only be preceded by their own fifths, though in writing the dot may be used as a general substitute (§ 8)

Ex आशङ्कते or आशङ्कते asāṅkate or asāṅkate he fears आलिङ्गति or आलिङ्गति alingati or aliṅgati, he embraces वञ्चयति or वञ्चयति vanchayati or vanchayati he cheats
उत्कण्ठते or उत्कण्ठते utkaṅthate or utkaṅthate he longs
गन्तु or गन्तु gantum or gantum, to go
कम्पते or कम्पते kampate or kampate he trembles

In compounds, such as सम + कल्प sam + kalpaḥ, it is optional to change

* If the न् n before य् y were treated as Anusvara, the सु su of the loc plur would be changed into a lingual (§ 96) Pan VIII 4 2 v

final म्, standing at the end of a Pada, into the fifth or into real Anusvara, सकल्प or सङ्कल्प samkalpah or sa kalpah (See § 77)

§ 138 In the body of a word, Anusvara is the only nasal that can stand before the sibilants श्, ष्, स्, and ह

Ex दशन damśanam, biting ययूषि yayūṣhi, the prayers
हंस hamsah, goose रहते ramhate, he goes

§ 139 न n following immediately after च ch or ज j is changed to न् n

Ex याचना yachna, prayer राज्ञी rajñī, queen जज्ञे jagne, he was born

§ 140 छ chh in the middle of a word between vowels or diphthongs must be changed to च्छ chchh (See § 91)

Ex युक्त richh, to go, युच्यति richchhati, he goes
मेच्छ mlechchhah, a barbarian

§ 141 छ chh before a suffix beginning with न् n or म् m is changed to श्छ śch

Ex प्रश्च + न = प्रश्च prachh + na = praśna, question

पापश्च + मि = पापश्चि paprachh + mi = paprasmi, I ask frequently

Before व् this change is optional

§ 142 Roots ending in य् y and व् v throw off their final letters before terminations beginning with consonants except य् y

Ex पूय + त = पूत puy + tah = putah decaying
तुर्व + न = तूर्न turv + nah = turnah, killed

§ 143 Roots ending in व् v and र् r, if preceded by इ i or उ u, lengthen their इ i and उ u, if व् v or र् r is followed immediately by a terminational consonant (Pan VIII 2, 77)

Ex. दिव div, to play, दीव्यति divyati, he plays दीव्यस div-yasam
गुर gur, to exert, गूर्न gurnah

जृ jrī (i e जिर jr), to grow old, जीर्यति jiiryati

There are exceptions (Pan VIII 2, 79)

कुर kur, to sound कूर्यस kuryasam

On a similar principle उ u is lengthened in तूर्व + आह = तूर्वाह turv + āh = tūrāhah (Pan VIII 2, 78)

§ 144 Nominal and verbal bases ending in इर् ir and उर् ur lengthen इ i and उ u when र् r becomes final after the loss of another final consonant. (Pan VIII 2, 76)

Ex गिर + स् = गीर or गी gir + s = gīr or gī, nom sing voice

§ 145 Nominal bases ending in इस् is or उस् us (the इस् is or उस् us being radical) lengthen इ i and उ u when final, and before terminations beginning with भ bh or स् s Likewise सयुस् sayus

and neut सुपी supīh

Nom sing masc सनुस् + स = सन् sayus + s = saydh nom sing neut

Doubling of Consonants

According to some grammarians any consonant except र r and ह h, followed by another consonant and preceded by a vowel, may be doubled, likewise any consonant preceded by र r or ह h, these letters being themselves preceded by a vowel. As no practical object is obtained by this practice, it is best, with Sakalya, to discontinue it throughout.

In our editions doubling takes place most frequently where any consonant, except the sibilants and ह h, is preceded by र r or ह h, these being again preceded by a vowel. Thus

अर्के arka, sun is frequently written अर्क्के arkka

ब्रह्मन् brahman may be written ब्रह्मन् brahmmān

§ 146 If an aspirated consonant has to be doubled the first loses its aspiration. Thus वर्धन् or वद्धन् vardhana or varddhana, increase

§ 147 A sibilant after र r must not be doubled, unless it is followed by a consonant. Thus it is always, वर्षा arshah, rainy season, आदर्श adarsah, mirror. But we may write either दर्शते or दार्शते darsyate or darīsyate, it is shown

Explanation of some Grammatical Terms used by Native Grammarians

§ 148 Some of the technical terms used by native grammarians have proved so useful that they have found ready admittance into our own grammatical terminology. Guna and Vridhhi are terms adopted by comparative grammarians in the absence of any classical words to mark the exact changes of vowels comprehended under these words by Pāṇini and others. Most Sanskrit grammars have besides sanctioned the use of such terms as Parasmaipada, Ātmanepada, Tatpuruṣa, Bahuvrīhi, Karmadhāraya, Krit, Taddhita, Unadi, and many more. Nothing can be more perfect than the grammatical terminology of Pāṇini, but as it was contrived for his own peculiar system of grammar, it is difficult to adopt part of it without at the same time adopting the whole of his system. A few remarks, however, on some of Pāṇini's grammatical terms may be useful.

All words without exception, or according to some grammarians with very few exceptions, are derived from roots or *dhatu*s. These roots have been collected in what are called Dhatupāṭhas root recitals the most important of which is ascribed by tradition to Pāṇini.*

CHAPTER III

DECLENSION

§ 149 Sanskrit nouns have three genders, Masculine, Feminine, and Neuter, 'three numbers,' Singular, Dual, and Plural, and eight cases, Nominative, Accusative, Instrumental, Dative, Ablative, Genitive, Locative, and Vocative.

Note.—There are a few nouns which are indeclinable in Sanskrit सर śar, heaven, अयम् ayam fire; सयत्नं sahrat year, (of Vikramāditya's era); स्वयं swyam, self, मामि śam, half, भू bhū, atmosphere; सुदि sudi light fortnight, यदि yadi, dark fortnight &c

Some nouns are pluralia tantum, used in the plural only, दारः dārāḥ, plur masc wife, आपः āpāḥ plur fem water, वर्षाः varṣāḥ, plur fem the rainy season, i.e. the rains, गिरजा gīrjā plur fem sanl

§ 150 Sanskrit nouns may be divided into two classes

1. Those that have bases ending in consonants
2. Those that have bases ending in vowels

1. Bases ending in Consonants

§ 151 Nominal bases may end in all consonants except इ i, ए ē, य y. The final letters of the inflective bases of nouns, being either final or brought in contact with the initial letters of the terminations, are subject to some of the phonetic rules explained above

§ 152 Bases ending in consonants receive the following terminations

Terminations for Masculines and Feminines

	SINGULAR	DUAL	PLURAL
Nom	स s (which is always dropt)	औ au	अ aḥ
Acc	अ am
Instr	आ a	भ्या bhyam	भि bhiḥ

Loc	इ i		सु su
Voc	like Nom, except bases in न n and स s	औ au	अ aḥ

Neuters have no termination in the Nom, Acc, and Voc singular (Pada cases)

They take ई ī in the Nom, Acc, and Voc dual (Bha cases)

They take इ i in the Nom, Acc, and Voc plural, and insert a nasal before the final consonant of the inflective base (Anga cases) This nasal is determined by the consonant which follows it; hence $\text{ङ् } n$ before gutturals, $\text{ञ् } n$ before palatals, $\text{ण् } n$ before linguals, $\text{न् } n$ before dentals, $\text{म् } m$ before labials, Anusvāra before sibilants and $\text{ह् } h$. Neuters ending in a nasal or a semivowel do not insert the nasal in the plural. (See Śāraṣv. i. 8, 5; Colebrooke, p. 83.)

§ 153. Bases ending in consonants are divided again into two classes:

1. Unchangeable bases.
2. Changeable bases.

Nouns of the first class have the same base before all terminations, this base being liable to such changes only as are required by the rules of Sandhi. Nouns of the second class have two or three bases, according as they are followed by certain terminations.

Thus from $\text{प्रत्यच् } pratyach$, Nom. Dual $\text{प्रत्यौचौ } prātyāñch-āu$; base $\text{प्रत्यच् } prā-$ tyāñch . (Anga.)

Instrum. Plur. $\text{प्रत्यग्भिः } pratyag-bhiḥ$; base $\text{प्रत्यच् } prātyach$. (Pada.)

Gen. Dual $\text{प्रतीचौ } prātīch-oh$, base $\text{प्रतीच् } prātīch$. (Bha.)

1. UNCHANGEABLE BASES.

Paradigm of a regular Noun with unchangeable Base.

§ 154. Bases ending in $\text{ञ् } n$ and $\text{ल् } l$ are not liable to any phonetic changes before the terminations, except that in the Nom. Sing. the $\text{स् } s$ of the termination is dropt (see §§ 114; 55); and that in the Loc. Plur. a $\text{ह् } h$ may be inserted after the final $\text{ञ् } n$.

Base $\text{सुगल् } sugan$, a ready reckoner, masc. fem. neut. (from $\text{सु } su$, well, and root $\text{गल् } gan$, to count.)

‡ The form वृश्च vriś (not वृश्च vriś) is confirmed by Siddhānta Kaumudī (1863), I p 182

§ Some authorities admit प्राश्च prāś, in the Nom Plur, and the same base प्राश्च prāś in all other cases beginning with a vowel

¶ On the two final consonants, see § 55 The Nom Plur Neut would be ऊर्जि ūry or ऊर्जि urj, in compounds, बहूर्जि bahurj or बहूर्जि bahūrj (Siddh Kaum I p 194)

2. अययान् arayāj, name of a Vedic priest, has two bases. The Nom. Sing. is अययाः arayāḥ, and all the cases beginning with consonants (Pada cases) are formed from the same base, अययन् arayas. The Voc. Sing., too, is irregular, being, against the rule of these bases, identical with the Nom. Sing. Some grammarians, however, allow हे अययः he arayaḥ.

§ 165. Bases in स् s.

(A.) Bases formed by the suffixes अस् as, इस् is, उस् us.

Bases ending in स् s change the स् s according to the general euphonic rules explained above. Thus .

अस् as, if final, becomes अः ah. (§ 83)

अस् as followed by terminations beginning with vowels remains unchanged. इस् and उस् is and us followed by terminations beginning with vowels are changed to इप् ish and उप् ush. (See § 100.)

अस् as before भ् bh becomes ओ o (§ 84. 3); इस् is and उस् us before भ् bh become इर् ir and उर् ur. (§ 82.)

अस् as before सु su becomes अस् as or अः ah, इस् is and उस् us before सु su become इप् ish or इः ih, उप् ush or उः uh.

Besides these general rules, the following special rules should be observed :

1. Nouns formed by the suffix अस् as lengthen their अ a in the Nom. Sing. masc. and fem., but not in the Vocative. Thus Nom. Sing. m. f. सुमनाः sumandh, well-minded (εὐμενής); Voc. सुमनः sumanah.
2. Nouns formed by the suffixes इस् or उस् is or us do not lengthen their vowel in the Nom. Sing. masc. and fem. Hence Nom. Sing. m. f. सुज्योतिः sijyotih, having good light, from सु su, good, and ज्योतिः jyotih, n. light; सुचक्षुः suchakshuh, having good eyes, from सु su, good, and चक्षुः chakshuh, n. eye. (Pāṇ. v. 4. 133, com)
3. Neuter nouns in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us, lengthen their vowel and nasalize it in the Nom. Acc. Voc. Plur. from मनः manah, मनोसि manāsi, from ज्योतिः jyotih, ज्योतीषि jyotīṣhi, from चक्षुः chakshuh, चक्षुषि chakshuṣhi.

2. NOUNS WITH CHANGEABLE BASES.

A. Nouns with two Bases.

§ 179. Many nouns in Sanskrit have more than one base, or rather they modify their base according to rule before certain terminations.

Nouns with two bases, have one base for the

Nom. Voc. and Acc. Sing.	} of masc. nouns* ;
Nom. Voc. and Acc. Dual
Nom. Voc. (not Acc.) Plural
Nom. Voc. and Acc. Plural of neuter nouns ; and a second base for all other cases.

The former base will be called the Āṅga base. Bopp calls it the strong base, and the terminations the weak terminations.

The second base will be called the Pada and Bha base. Bopp calls it the weak base, and the terminations the strong terminations.

The general rule is that the simple base, which appears in the Pada and Bha cases, is strengthened in the Āṅga cases. Thus the Pada and Bha base प्राच् prāch becomes in the Āṅga cases प्राच् prāñch. The Pada base of the present participle खाद् adai, eating, becomes खाद् adant in the Āṅga cases. This gives us the following system of terminations for words with two bases :

SINGULAR.		DUAL.		PLURAL.

प्राच् prāch, forward, eastern, has two bases, प्राच् prāñch for its Āṅga, प्राच् prāch for its Pada and Bha base, and is declined accordingly.

* Most nouns with changeable bases form their feminine in इ i. A few, however, such as दामन् dāman, are said to be feminine without taking the इ i, and some of them occur as feminine at the end of compounds.

B Nouns with three Bases

Nouns with three bases have their Ānga or strong base in the same cases as the nouns with two bases. In the other cases, however, they have one base, the Pada base, before all terminations beginning with consonants; and another base, the Bha base, before all terminations beginning with vowels.

In these nouns with three cases, Bopp calls Ānga base the strong base; the Pada base the middle base; the Bha base the weakest base.

This gives us the following system of terminations for words with three bases:

§ 183. There is a very difficult rule according to which certain participles keep the च्त् n in the Nom. and Acc. Dual of neuters, and before the च्त् f of the feminine. This rule can only be fully understood by those who are acquainted with the ten classes of conjugations. It is this,

I. Participles of verbs following the Bhū, Div, and Chur classes must preserve the च्त् n

II Participles of verbs following the Tud class may or may not preserve the च्त् n. The same applies to all participles of the future in स्यत् syat, and to the participles of verbs of the Ad class in चा ā

III Participles of all other verbs must reject the च्त् n

§ 184. Another rule, which ought not to be mixed up with the preceding rule, prohibits the strengthening of the Aūga base throughout in the participles present of reduplicated verbs, except in the Nom. Acc. Bases in अन् an (अन् an मन् man वन् van)

§ 191 Words in अन् an have three bases their Anga or strong base is आन् ān their Bha or weakest base न् n and their Pada or middle base अ a

Mark besides

- 1 That the Nom Sing masc has आ a, not आन् an(s)
- 2 That the Nom Sing neut has अ a not अन् an
- 3 That the Voc Sing neut may be either identical with the Nominative, or take न् n
- 4 That words ending in मन् man and वन् van keep मन् man and वन् van as their Bha bases, without dropping the अ a when there is a consonant immediately before the मन् man and वन् van This is to avoid the concurrence of three consonants such as पर्वे parve from पर्वन् parvan or आत्मन् ātman from आत्मन् ātman This rule applies, only to words ending in मन् man and वन् van not to words ending in simple

अन् an. Thus तद्यन् talshān forms तद्यत् talshāṭ; मूर्धन् mūrdhan, मूर्ध्ना mūrdhnā, &c.

5. That in all other words the loss of the अ a is optional in the Loc. Sing. and in the Nom. Acc. Voc. Dual of neuters. The feminine, however, drops the अ a; thus राज्ञी rājñī.

They might be ranged, in fact, with the nouns having unchangeable bases, for the lengthening of the vowel in the Nom and Acc Plur neut is but a compensation for the absence of the nasal which is inserted in these cases in all bases except those ending in nasals and semivowels

§ 205 Participles in यस् vas which insert an इ i between the reduplicated root and the termination, drop the इ i whenever the termination यस् vas is changed into उष् ush. Thus तस्थिवान् tasthivān, from स्था sthā, to stand, forms the fem. तस्थुष् tasthush.

पेचिवान् pechivān, from पच pach, to cook, forms the fem. पेचुष् pechush.

A very common word following this declension is विद्वान् vidvān, wise, (for विविद्वान् vividvān), fem. विदुषी viduṣhī

If the root ends in इः or ईः, this radical vowel is never dropt before उप ush, the contracted form of वृ vas * Hence from नो नः, निनीयान् ninīdān; Instr. निनुषा ninyuṣhā, fem निनुषी ninyuṣhī.

2. Bases ending in Vowels

§ 215 Bases ending in vowels may be subdivided into two classes

- 1 Bases ending in any vowels, except अ a and आ ā
- 2 Bases ending in अ a and आ ā

1 Bases ending in any Vowels, except अ a and आ ā

§ 216 Instead of attempting to learn, either according to the system followed by native grammarians or according to the more correct views of comparative philologists, how the terminations appended to consonantal bases are changed when appended to bases ending in vowels it will be far easier to learn by heart the paradigms such as they are without entering at all into the question whether there was originally but one set of terminations for all nouns, or whether from the beginning, different terminations were used after bases ending in consonants and after bases ending in vowels

as consonantal bases They remain unchanged before terminations beginning with consonants, but change final ई i and ऊ u into इय् iy and उय् uy, before vowels (Pāṇ ११ ४, ८२, ८३) Their Vocative is the same as their Nominative

(B) At the end of compounds

§ 221 These monosyllabic bases rarely occur except at the end of compounds Here they may either change ई i and ऊ u into इय् iy and उय् uy, or into य् y and व् v They change it

1° Into इय् iy and उय् uy

a If the first member of the compound forms the predicate of the second and the second maintains its nominal character Thus परमनी paramanī, the best leader, Acc Sing परमनिय paramanyam Here नी nī is treated as a noun, and seems to have lost its verbal character शुद्धधी suddhadhī, a pure thinker, a man of pure thought, Acc Sing शुद्धधिय suddhadhiyam कुधी kudhī, a man of bad thought, Acc Sing कुधिय kudhiyam (Sār)

b If ई i and ऊ u are preceded by two radical initial consonants जलक्री jalakrī, a buyer of water, makes Acc Sing जलक्रिय jalakriyam सुखी sukhī, well faring, Acc. Sing सुखिय sukhiyam (Siddh-Kaum १ p 119) This is a merely phonetic change, intended to facilitate pronunciation (Pāṇ ११ ४, ८२)

2 Into य् y and व् v, under all other circumstances, i.e. wherever the monosyllabic bases retain their verbal character ग्रामनी gramanī, leader of a village, Acc Sing ग्रामन्य gramanyam here ग्राम grāma is not the predicate of नी nī, but is governed by नी nī, which retains so far its verbal character प्रधी pradhī, thinking in a high degree, Acc Sing प्रधय pradhiyam, here प्र pra is a preposition belonging to धी dhi, which retains its verbal nature उनी unnī, leading out, Acc Sing उन्य unniyam here उद् ud is a preposition belonging to नी nī Though ई i is preceded by two consonants, one only belongs to the root शुद्धधी suddhadhī (if a Tatpurusha compound), thinking pure things, would form the Acc Sing शुद्धधय suddhadhiyam, and thus be distinguished from शुद्धधी suddhadhī (as a Karmadhāraya compound), a pure thinker, or as a Bahuvrīhi compound a man possessed of pure thoughts (Siddh-Kaum १ p 119), which both have शुद्धधिय suddhadhiyam for their accusative The general idea which suggested the distinction between bases changing their final ई i and ऊ u either into इय् iy and उय् uy, or into य् y and व् v seems to have been that the former were treated as real monosyllabic nouns that might be used by themselves (धी dhih, a thinker), or in such compounds as a noun admits of (सुधी *sudhīh, a good thinker, शुद्धधी śuddhadhīh, a pure thinker or pure thoughted), while the latter always retained somewhat of their verbal character, and could therefore not be used by themselves, but only at the end of compounds, preceded either by a preposition (प्रधी pradhīh, providens) or by a noun which was governed by them. The nouns in which ई i and ऊ ū stand after two radical consonants form an exception to this general rule, which exception admits, however, of a phonetic explanation, so that the only real exception would be in the case of certain compounds ending in भू bhū. This भू bhū becomes भुव् bhuv before vowels, whether it be verbal or nominal (Pan vi 4, 85) Ex स्वयम् svayambhūh, self existing, Acc Sing स्वयम्भुव् svayambhuvam (Sar i 6, 61 Siddh Kaum i p 119) Not, however, in वर्षाम् varṣabhūh, frog, Acc Sing वर्षाब्ज varṣabhujam (Pan vi 4, 84), and in some other compounds, such as करम् karabhūh or कारम् karabhūh, nail, पुनर्भू punarbhūh, re born, द्रुम् drimbhūh, thunderbolt (Pan vi 4, 84, v)

2 Polysyllabic Bases in ई i and ऊ ū.

§ 222 Polysyllabic bases in ई i and ऊ ū being both masculine and feminine, such as पपी papīh, protector, the sun, ययी yayīh, road, and नृत् nṛtīh, dancer, are declined like the verbal compounds प्रधी pradhīh and वृक्षल् vṛkṣalīh, except

- 1 they form the Acc. Sing in ई īm and ऊ ūm
- 2 they form the Acc. Plur in ईन् īn and ऊन् ūn.

Remember also, that those in ई i form the Loc. Sing in ई i, not in यि yi

यातप्रमी ratapramīh, antelope, may be declined like पपी papīh but if derived by कृप् kṛp, it may entirely follow the verbal प्रधी pradhīh (Siddh-Kaum i p 116) The same applies to nouns like सुती sutīh, wishing for a son, सुखी sukhīh, wishing for pleasure. They follow the verbal प्रधी pradhīh throughout, but they have their Gen and Abl Sing in उ u सुतु sutyu (Siddh-Kaum i p 120). If the final long ई i is preceded by two consonants, it is changed before vowels into इय् iy Ex. सुष्की śuṣkīh, सुष्कियो śuṣkīyam, &c

* सुधी sudhīh is never to be treated as a verbal compound but always forms Acc Sing सुधिम् sudhīyam &c as if it were a Karmadhāraya compound. (Pan vi 4 85)

§ 223 All these compounds may be used without any change, whether they refer to nouns in the masculine or in the feminine gender. If the head borough or the sweeper should be of the female sex, the Dat Sing would still be ग्रामस्त्रे स्त्रिये grāmanye striyai, खलस्त्रे स्त्रिये khalaṁstriyai (Kāśikā 1 4, 3). Sometimes, however, if the meaning of a compound is such that it may by itself be applied to a woman as well as to a man, e g प्रीति pradhīti, thinking, some grammarians allow such compounds to be declined in the feminine, like लक्ष्मी lakṣmī, except in the Acc Sing and Plur, where they take च am and च ah प्रिय pradhīyam, प्रिया pradhīyah, not प्रीति pradhīti or प्रीति pradhīti (Siddh-Kaum. 1 p 136). A similar argument is applied to पुनर्भू punarbhū, if it means a woman married a second time. It may then form its Vocative हे पुनर्भू he punarbhū (Siddh-Kaum. 1 p 138), and take the five fuller feminine terminations (§ 224).

§ 224 Bases like चि dhi, intellect, श्री śrī, happiness, ह्री hrī, shame, भू bhū, fear, and भ्रू bhrū, brow, may be declined throughout exactly like the monosyllabic bases in ई and ऊ, such as लू lū, a cutter. Their only peculiarity consists in their admitting a number of optional forms in the Dat Abl Gen and Loc Sing and Gen Plur. Compounds ending in Monosyllabic Feminine Bases in ई and ऊ.

§ 226. Compounds the last member of which is a monosyllabic feminine base in ई or ऊ, are declined alike in the masculine and feminine. * Thus सुधीः sudhīḥ, masc. and fem. * if it means a good mind, or having a good mind, is declined exactly like धीः dhīḥ. सुधूः subhūrāḥ, masc. and fem. having a good brow, is declined exactly like धूः dhūrāḥ†, without excluding the fuller

* The following rule is taken from the Siddh. Kaum 1 p. 136 If धीः dhīḥ, intellect, stands at the end of the Karmadhāraya compound like मधीः madhīḥ, eminent intellect, or if it is used as a Bahuvrīhi compound in the feminine, such as मधीः madhīḥ, possessed of eminent intellect, it is in both cases declined like लक्ष्मीः lakṣmīḥ. It would thus become identical with मधीः madhīḥ, thinking eminently, when it takes exceptionally the feminine terminations (§ 223) The Acc Sing. and Plur., however, take am and ah. The difference, therefore, would be the substitution of y for ī before vowels, the obligation of using the fuller fem terminations only, and the Vocative in ई, for these are the only points of difference between the declension of लक्ष्मीः lakṣmīḥ and धीः dhīḥ, fem. The Siddhānta-Kaumudī, while giving these rules for मधीः madhīḥ, agrees with the rules given above with regard to सुधीः sudhīḥ, &c.

† The Voc Sing. सुधु subhū is used by Bhaṭṭi, in a passage where Rāma in great grief exclaims, हा पितः छासि हे सुधु hā pitaḥ kṛōsi he subhū, Oh father, where art thou, Oh thou fine-browed (wife)! Some grammarians admit this Vocative as correct; others call it a mistake of Bhaṭṭi; others, again, while admitting that it is a mistake, consider that Bhaṭṭi made Rāma intentionally commit it as a token of his distracted mind. (Siddh. Kaum 1 p. 137) terminations (रि ai, चाः āh, चां ām, नां nām)* for the masculine, or the simple terminations (रि e, चाः ah, चाः ah, इः i, चां ām) for the feminine. The same applies to the compound मुषीः sudhīh, when used as a substantive, good intellect.

If the same compounds are used as neuters, they shorten the final इ i or ए e of their base, and are declined like वरि vāri and मृदु mṛidu, with this difference, however, that in the Inst. Dat. Abl Gen. Loc. Sing. Dual and Plural they may optionally take the masculine forms.

In the masculine final इ i is shortened to इ i, and the compound declined like कविः kaviḥ, except in the Nom. Acc. Voc. and Gen. Loc. Dual. In the Acc. Sing. and Plur. optional forms are admitted. (Siddh.-Kaum. 1. p. 134.)

The feminine may be the same as the masculine, except in the Instr. Sing. and Acc. Plur., but it may likewise be declined like स्त्री strī in the Dat. Abl. Gen. Loc. Sing.

The neuter has the usual optional forms.

Bases in इ i and उ u, Masculine, Feminine, Neuter.

§ 230. There are masculine, feminine, and neuter bases in इ i and उ u. They are of frequent occurrence and should be carefully committed to memory.

Adjectives in इ i are declined like substantives, only that the masculine may optionally be substituted for the neuter in all cases except the Nom. and Acc. Sing.; Nom. Acc. and Voc. Dual and Plur. इषः śuciḥ, masc. bright; इषः śuciḥ, fem.; इषि śuchi, neut.

The same applies to adjectives in उ u, except that they may form their feminine either without any change, or by adding इ i. Thus लघुः laghuḥ, light, is in the fem. either लघुः laghuḥ, to be declined as a feminine, or लघु laghi, to be declined like नदी nadī.

If the final उ u is preceded by more than one consonant, the fem. does not take इ i. Thus पङ्गु pāṅgu, pale; fem. पङ्गुः pāṅguḥ.

Some adjectives in उ u lengthen their vowel in the fem., and are then declined like वयः radhūḥ. Thus पङ्गुः pāṅguḥ, lame; fem. पङ्गुः pāṅguḥ. लक्ष्मिः lakṣmīḥ, a Kuru; fem. लक्ष्मिः lakṣmīḥ. some compounds ending in उरुः ūruḥ, thigh, such as वामोरुः vāmōruḥ, with handsome thighs, fem. वामोरुः vāmōruḥ.

सखि sakhi for the Pada and Bha base.

It is irregular in some of its cases:

nouns * Masculine nouns in short उ are भानु bhānu, sun, वायु vāyu, wind, पिप्पु pippu, fish, nom. prop. पीतु pītu, as masc. is the name of a tree; as neuter, the name of its fruit (bār 18.17)

Feminine nouns in short उ are चन्दु chandu, cow, रज्जु rajju, rope, तनु tanu, body

§ 234. The neuter bases अक्षि akṣi, eye, अस्थि aśthi, bone, दधि dadhi, curds, सक्थि sakṭhi, thigh, are declined regularly like वरि vāri, but in the Bha cases they substitute the bases अक्षन् akṣh, अस्त् aśth, दध् dadh, सक्थ् sakṭh. In these cases they are declined, in fact, like neuters in अन् an, such as नामन् nāman. (See note to § 203.)

After the second model are declined masculines, such as भ्रातृ bhrātṛi, brother; जामातृ jāmātrī, son-in-law; देव devi, husband's brother; सव्येश्वर savyeśhvār, a charioteer; and feminines, such as दुहितृ duhitṛi, daughter; ननन्दतृ nanandṛi, husband's sister; यतृ yātṛi, husband's brother's wife. Most terms of relationship in ṣṭhi (except स्वसृ svasṛi, sister, and नप्तृ naptṛi, grandson) do not lengthen their ṣṭ.

Note.—If words in ṣṭhi are used as adjectives, the masculine forms may be used for the neuter also, except in the Nom. and Acc. Sing. and Nom. Acc. Voc. Dual and Plural. The feminine is formed by ṛi. कर्तृ kartṛi, fem. कर्त्री kartṛī, like नदी nadī.

§ 236. क्रोष्टृ kroṣṭṛi, a jackal, is irregular; but most of its irregularities may be explained by admitting two bases, क्रोष्टृ kroṣṭṛi (like मृष्टृ mṛṣṭṛi) and क्रोष्टृ kroṣṭṛi (like नप्तृ naptṛi).

The base क्रोश krōśh is the only one admissible as Āga i e in the strong cases, excepting the Vocative (हे क्रोश he krōśhaḥ is, I believe, wrongly admitted by Wilson)

The base क्रोशु krōśhu is the only one admissible as Īpaḍ, i e before terminations beginning with consonants

The other cases may be formed from both bases, but the Acc Plur is क्रोशन् krōśhaṇ only (P in VII 1, 95-97)

Those who admit क्रोशन् krōśhaṇ as Acc Plur likewise admit क्रोशु krōśhu as Acc Sing (Śār I 6, 70)

The feminine is क्रोशी krōśhrī declined like नदी nadī

§ 237 नृ nṛ man, a word of frequent occurrence, though, for convenience sake, often replaced by नर nara is declined regularly like विश्व viśva, except in the Gen Plural, where it may be either नृणां nṛṇām or नृणां nṛṇām (P p VI 4 6)

CHAPTER IV

DECLENSION OF ADJECTIVES

§ 241 As every noun in Sanskrit may, at the end of a compound, form the final portion of an adjective, all the essential rules for the declension of such compound adjectives had to be given in the preceding chapter. Thus in the declension of neuter nouns in चस् as, like मनस् manas, mind, the declension of मुनस् munas, as an adjective masc. fem. and neut., was exhibited at the same

Acc Voc Sing Dual and Plur had to be exhibited. See § 158. जलमुक् jalamuk, जलमुची jalamuchī, जलमुचि jalamuḥi. In the declension of nouns with changeable bases, the more important feminine and neuter forms were separately mentioned; and in the declension of nouns ending in vowels, all necessary rules with regard to the same subject were fully stated.

§ 242. The chief difficulty which remains with regard to the declension of adjectives is the exact formation of the feminine base, and the rules on this subject are often so complicated that they have to be learnt by practice rather than by rule. The feminine bases, however, once given, there can be no doubt as to their declension, as they follow exactly the declension of the corresponding feminine nouns. A few observations on this point must suffice.

§ 243. Adjectives * in च a form their feminines in चा á. Ex. प्रिय prīya, dear, masc. प्रियः prīyah, fem. प्रिया prīyá, neut. प्रियं prīyam, to be declined like कान्त kānta (§ 238).

§ 244. Certain adjectives derived by चक aka form their feminines in इका iká. Ex. पाचक pāchaka, cooking, masc. पाचकः pāchakah, fem. पाचिका pāchiká, neut. पाचकं pāchakam. Likewise masc. सर्वक sarvakah, fem. सर्विका sarviká, every; कारक kārah, doing, कारिका kāriká; इत्यक ihatyakah, present here, इत्यिका ihatyiká. But क्षिपक kshipaká, fem. one who sends; कन्यक kanyaká, fem. maiden; चटका chaṭaká, fem. sparrow; तारक taraká, fem. star. Sometimes both forms occur; अजका ajaká and अजिका ajiká, a she-goat.

§ 247. Certain adjectives in तः taḥ, expressive of colour, form their feminine either in ता tā or in नी nī: श्वेत śyetaḥ, white, श्वेता śyeta, श्वेती śyentī; रतः etah, variegated, रता etā or रती entī; रोहित rohitaḥ, red, रोहिता rohita or रोहिणी rohini, but श्वेत śvetaḥ, white, श्वेता śveta, अश्विता asitā, white; पलित palitaḥ, grey-haired.

* गुणवचन gunavachana, the name for adjective, occurs in Pān v. 3, 58.

§ 248. The formation of feminine substantives must be learnt from the dictionary. Thus घनः ajah, goat, forms घना aji. अश्वः ashv, horse, forms अश्वी ashvī.

बालः bālah, boy, forms बाली bālī.

शूद्रः śūdrah, a Śūdra, forms { शूद्रा śūdrī, a woman of the Śūdra caste.
शूद्री śūdrī, the wife of a Śūdra.

मातुलः mātulah, maternal uncle, forms मातुली mātulī or मातुलानी mātulanī, an uncle's wife.

आचार्यः āchāryah, teacher, forms आचार्यानी *āchāryānī, wife of the teacher; but आचार्या āchāryā, a female teacher.

पतिः patih, lord, forms पत्नी patnī, wife, &c.

Degrees of Comparison.

§ 249. The Comparative is formed by तर tara, or ईयम् īyas (§ 206); the Superlative by तम tama, or इष्ट ishtha. These terminations तर tara and तम tama are not restricted in Sanskrit to adjectives. Substantives such as नृ nṛ, man, form नृतमः nṛtamaḥ, a thorough man; स्त्री stṛī, woman, स्त्रीतरा stṛītarā, more of a woman. Even after case-terminations or personal terminations, तर tara and तम tama may be used. Thus from पूर्वाह्ने pūrvāhne, in the forenoon, पूर्वाह्नेतरा pūrvāhnetara, earlier in the forenoon (Pāṇ. vi. 3. 17). From पचति pachati, he cooks, पचतितरा pachatitarā, he cooks better (Pāṇ. v. 3. 57), पचतितमः pachatitamam, he cooks best (Pāṇ. v. 3. 56).

§ 250. तर tara and तम tama, if added to changeable bases, require the Pada base. Thus from प्राच् prāch (§ 180), प्राक्तरा prāktara; from धनिन् dhanin (§ 203), धनितर dhanitara; from धनवत् dhanavat (§ 187), धनवत्तरा dhanavattara, from विद्मस् vidmas (§ 204), विद्वत्तम vidvattama; from प्रत्यच् pratyach (§ 181), प्रत्यक्तरा pratyaktara. There are, however, a few exceptions, such as दस्युहन्तः dasyuhantam, from दस्युहन् dasyuhan, demon-killer; सुपथितः supathitah, from सुपथिन् supathin, with good roads.

§ 251. ईयम् īyas and इष्ट ishtha are never added to the secondary suffixes नृ nṛ, मत् mat, वत् vat, तल् tal, चिन् cin, इन् in. If adjectives ending in these suffixes require ईयः īyah and इष्ट ishtha, the suffixes are dropt, and the ईयः īyah and इष्ट ishtha added to the last consonant of the original base. बलवान् balavān, strong, बलीयम् balīyah, बलिष्ठ balīshtha. दोग्ध्रि dogdhrī, milking, दुहीयम् duhīyah, दुहिष्ठ duhīshtha. श्रिग्विन् śragvin, garlanded, श्रिगीयम् śragīyah, more profusely garlanded. मतिमान् matimān, wise, मतीयम् matīyah, मतिष्ठ matīshtha.

* On the dental नृ, see Gāṇ. Kāśubhādī in the kāśī-Vṛtti.

† Femines in ई, derived from masculines, must shorten the ई before तर tara and तम tama; ब्राह्मणी brāhmaṇī forms ब्राह्मणीतरा brāhmaṇītarā. Other femines in ई or अ may or may not shorten their vowels; स्त्री stṛī forms स्त्रीतरा stṛītarā or स्त्रीतम stṛītama. Also श्रेयसीतरा śreyasītarā or श्रेयसीतम śreyasītama. विदुषीतरा viduṣītarā or विदुषीतम viduṣītama (Pāṇ. vi. 3. 43-45).

§ 252 Other adjectives, too, lose their derivative elements before ईयस् īyas and इश् ishīha, or are otherwise irregular by substituting new bases for the Comparative and Superlative. पापः pāpah, bad; पापीयस् pāp-īyas, worse; पापिश् pāp-ishīha, worst.

Cardinals with bases ending in न् n, such as सप्तन् sapṭan, नवन् navan, दशन् daśan, एकादशन् ekādaśan, &c, follow the declension of पञ्चन् pañchan विशतिः viṇśatiḥ is declined like a feminine in इ i, those in त् t like feminines in न् n, शतं śatam like a neut or masc. in अ a

§ 258. The construction of the cardinals from 1 to 19 requires a few remarks. एक eka is naturally used in the singular only, except when it means some, एकै ekai adanti, some people say द्वि dvi is always used as a dual, all the rest from 3 to 19 as plurals. Ex त्रिभिः पुरुषैः tribhīḥ puruṣaiḥ, with three men, एकादश पुरुषान् ekādaśa puruṣān, eleven men, acc. The cardinals after four do not distinguish the gender; एकादश नारीः ekādaśa nārīḥ, eleven women, acc.

* Not त्रिम् trisrī, not चतस्रि chatsarī

‡ Pān vi 1, 55

While the numerals from 1 to 19 are treated as adjectives, agreeing with their substantives in gender, if possible, and in number and case, विंशतिः viṃśatiḥ and the rest may be treated both as adjectives and as substantives. Hence विंशतिः शत्रूणां viṃśatiḥ śatrūṇāṃ, 'twenty enemies, or विंशतिः शतवः viṃśatiḥ śatavah; षष्टिः शिशवः ṣaṣṭiḥ śiśavah, sixty boys; शतं फलानि śataṃ phalāni, a hundred fruits; त्रिंशत् वृद्धैः triṃśatā vṛiddhāiḥ, by thirty elders; शतं दामीनो śataṃ dāmīnāṃ or शतं दाम्यः śataṃ dāmyah, a hundred slaves; सहस्रं पितरः sahasraṃ pitarah, a thousand ancestors.

Exceptionally these cardinals may take the plural number: पञ्चाशद्भिर्हयैः pañcāśadbhir hayaiḥ, with fifty horses.

Compound Pronouns

§ 275 By adding दृश् dris, दृश drisha, or दृक्ष driksha, to certain pronominal bases, the following compound pronouns have been formed.

तादृश् tādrish, तादृश tādrisha, तादृक्ष tādriksha, such like

एतादृश् etadrish, एतादृश etadrisha, एतादृक्ष etādriksha, this like यादृश् yādrish, यादृश yādrisha, यादृक्ष yādriksha, what like.

इदृश् idrish, इदृश idrishā, इदृक्ष idriksha, this like कोदृश् kīdrish, कीदृश kīdrisha, कोदृक्ष kīdriksha, What like?

These are declined in three genders, forming the feminine in ई i तादृक् tādrīk, म m, तादृगी tādrīgī, ई i, or तादृगः, ०शी, ०श, tādrīgah, ī, am Similarly formed are मादृश mādrisha, त्वादृश tivādrisha, like me, like thee, &c

§ 276 By adding वत् vat and यत् yat to certain pronominal bases, the following compound pronouns, implying quantity, have been formed.

तावत् tāvat, so much,

एतावत् etavat, so much, } declined like nouns in वत् vat (§ 187)

यावत् yāvat, as much,

इयत् iyat, so much,

कियत् kīyat, How much? } इयान् īyan, इयती iyatī, इयत् iyat

Note—On the declension of कति kati How many? तति tati so many and यति yati as many see § 231

§ 277. By adding चित् chit, चन chana, or अपि api, to the interrogative pronoun किं kim, it is changed into an indefinite pronoun

कश्चित् kaśchit, काचित् kachit, किञ्चित् kimchit,*some one, also कच्चित् kachchit, anything

कश्चन kaśchana, काचन kachana, किञ्चन kimchana, some one.

कोऽपि ko 'pi, कापि kapi, किमपि kimapi,*some one

In the same manner indefinite adverbs are formed— कदा kadd, When? कदाचित् kaduchit, कदाचन kadachana, once, क्व ki, Where? न क्वापि na kiapi, not anywhere.

Sometimes the relative pronoun is prefixed to the interrogative, to render it indefinite यः कः yah lak, whosoever, यस्य कस्य yasya kasya, whosoever Likewise यः कश्चित् yah kaśchit, whosoever, or यः कश्च yah kaścha, or यः कश्चन yah kaśchana

The relative pronoun, if doubled, assumes an indefinite or rather distributive meaning यो यः, या या, यद् यद्, yo yah ya yā, yad yad, whosoever. Occasionally the relative and demonstrative pronouns are combined for the same purpose— यत्तद् yattad, whatsoever.

Pronominal Adjectives

§ 278 Under the name of Sarīanāman, which has been freely translated by Pronoun, but which really means a class of words beginning with sarīa, native grammarians have included, besides the real pronouns mentioned before, the following words which share in common with the real pronouns certain peculiarities of declension. They may be called Pronominal Adjectives and it is to be remembered that they are affected by these peculiarities of declension only if they are used in certain senses.

1 सर्व sarīa, all, 2 विश्व viśva, all, 3 उभ ubha, two, 4 उभय ubhaya, both, 5 अन्य anya, other, 6 अन्यतर anyatara, either, 7 इतर itara, other, 8 त्व tvā, other (some add त्वद् tvad, other), 9 words formed by the suffixes इतर tara and इतम tama, such as 9 कतर katara, Which of two? 10 कतम katama, Which of many? 10 सम sama, all, 11 मिम suma, whole, 12 नेम nema, half, 13 एक eka, one, 14 पूर्व pūrvā, east or prior, 15 पर para subsequent, 16 अपर apara, west or posterior, 17 दक्षिण dakshina, south or right, 18 उत्तर uttara, north or subsequent, 19 अधर adhara other or inferior, 20 अधर adhara, west or inferior, 21 स्व sva, own, 22 अतर antara, outer, (except अतरा पृ antara pūh, suburb) or lower (scil garment)

If सम sama means equal or even, it is not a pronominal adjective, nor दक्षिण dakshina, if it means clever, nor स्व sva, if it means kinsman or wealth, nor अतर antara, if it means interval, &c, nor any of the seven from पूर्व pūrvā to अपर apara, unless they imply a relation in time or space. Hence दक्षिण गायका dakshina gāthakāh, clever minstrels, उत्तरा कुरव uttara kurav, the northern Kurus, (a proper name), प्रभूता खा prabhūta khā, great treasures (Kas 1 1, 35), ग्रामयोरन्तरे वसति gramayor antare vasati, he lives between the two villages

At the end of Bahuvrīhi compounds the Sarvanāman's are treated like ordinary words: Dat Sing. प्रियोभयाय priyobhayāya, to him to whom both are dear (Pāṇ. 1. 1, 29). The same at the end of compounds such as मासपूर्वः māsapūrvah, a month earlier; Dat. मासपूर्वाय māsapūrvāya (Pāṇ. 1. 1, 30). Likewise in Dvandvas; पूर्वोपर्यां pūrvōparānām, of former and later persons (Pāṇ. 1. 1, 31), though in the Nom. Plur. these Dvandvas may take ए; पूर्वोपरे pūrvōpare or पूर्वोपराः pūrvōparāh. Only in compounds expressive of points of the compass, such as उत्तरपूर्व uttara-pūrva, north-east, the last element may throughout take the pronominal terminations (Pāṇ. 1. 1, 28).

Adverbial Declension.

§ 285. In addition to the regular case-terminations by which the declension of nouns is effected, the Sanskrit language possesses other suffixes which differ from the ordinary terminations chiefly by being restricted in their use to certain words, and particularly to pronominal bases. The ordinary case-terminations, too, are frequently used in an adverbial sense. Thus

Acc. चिरं chiram, a long time.

Instr. चिरेण chireṇa, in a long time

Dat. चिराय chirāya, for a long time.

Abl. चिरात् chirāt, long ago.

Gen. चिरस्य chirasya, a long time.

Loc. चिरे chire, long.

Other adverbial terminations are,

1. तः tah, with an ablative meaning, becoming generally local.

2. त्रा tra, with a locative meaning.

3. दा dā, with a temporal meaning; also raised to दानो dānām.

4. तत् it, with a locative meaning
5. या thi, with a meaning of modality, likewise च tham and च tha
6. मात् si, expressive of effect.

CHAPTER VII.

CONJUGATION.

§ 286. (Sanskrit verbs are conjugated in the Active and the Passive.)
Ex. बोधति bodhati, he knows; बुध्यते budhyate, he is known.

§ 287. The Active has two forms:

(1. The Parasmai-pada, i. e. transitive, (from परस्मै parasmai, Dat. Sing. of पर para, another, i. e. a verb the action of which refers to another.)

Ex. ददाति dadâti, he gives.

2. The Âtmane-pada, i. e. intransitive, (from आत्मने âtmane, Dat. Sing. of आत्मन् âtman, self, i. e. a verb the action of which refers to the agent.)

Ex. खादते âdatte, he takes.

Note—The distinction between the Parasmaipada and Âtmanepada is fixed by usage rather than by rule. Certain verbs in Sanskrit are used in the Parasmaipada only, others in the Âtmanepada only; others in both voices. Those which are used in the Parasmaipada only, are verbs the action of which was originally conceived as transitive, e. g. भूमिं मंथति bhûmim manthati, he shakes the earth; मांसं खादति mânsam kâdati, he eats meat; ग्राममगच्छति grâmam agacchati, he goes to or approaches the village. Those which are used in the Âtmanepada only, were originally verbs expressive of states rather than of actions; e. g. एष्यते edhate, he grows; स्पन्दते spandate, he trembles, मोदते modate, he rejoices; शेते shete, he lies down.

In the language of the best authors, however, many verbs which we should consider intransitive, are conjugated in the Parasmaipada, while others which govern an accusative.

are always conjugated in the Ātmanepada हसति hasati he laughs is always Parasmaipada, whether used as transitive or neuter (Colebr p 297) it is so even when reciprocity of action is indicated, in which case verbs in Sanskrit mostly take the Ātmanepada, *e g पयतिहसति pyatīhasati, they laugh at each other (Pān 1 3 15, 1) But स्मयते smayate he smiles is restricted by grammarians to the Ātmanepada; and verbs like दायते trāyate he protects are Ātmanepadin (i e used in the Ātmanepada) though they govern an accusative, e g दायस्व मा trāyasva mām, Protect me! These correspond to the Latin deponents

Verbs which are used both in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada, take the one or the other form according as the action of the verb is conceived to be either transitive or reflexive, e g पचति pachati he cooks, पचते pachate, he cooks for himself, यजति yajati he sacrifices यजते yajate, he sacrifices for himself The same applies to Causals (Pān 1 3 74)

These distinctions however, rest in many cases, in Sanskrit as well as in Greek, on peculiar conceptions which it is difficult to analyse or to realize; and in Sanskrit as well as in Greek the right use of the active and middle voices is best learnt by practice Thus नीत nīta to lead, is used as Parasmaipada in such expressions as गडं विनयति *gadam vinayati, he carries off a swelling, but as Ātmanepada in क्रोधं विनयते krodham vinayate, he turns away or dismisses wrath, a subtle distinction which it is possible to appreciate when stated, but difficult to bring under any general rules

Again in Sanskrit as well as in Greek some verbs are middle in certain tenses only, but active or middle in others, e g Ātm वरति vardhate he grows, never वर्धति vardhati but Aor अवृधत् avardhat, Par, or अवर्धिष्ट avardhishtha, Ātm he grew (Pān 1 3 91)

Others take the Parasmaipada or Ātmanepada according as they are compounded with certain prepositions e g विशति visati he enters, but निविशति ni-visate he enters in (Pān 1 3 17)

§ 288 Causal verbs are conjugated both in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada Desideratives generally follow the Pada of the simple root (Pān 1 3, 62) Denominatives ending in चय aya have both forms (Pān 1 3, 90) The intensives have two forms one in यय, which is always Ātmanepada, the other without यय, which is always Parasmaipada

§ 289 The passive takes the terminations of the Ātmanepada, and prefixes यय to them in the four special or modified tenses In the other tenses the forms of the passive are, with a few exceptions the same as those of the Ātmanepada

§ 290 There are in Sanskrit thirteen different forms, corresponding to the tenses and moods of Greek and Latin

Signification of the Tenses and Moods

§ 291 1 2 The Present and Imperfect require no explanation The Imperfect takes the Augment (§ 299)

3 The principal senses of the Optative are, a Command, e g त्व ग्राम गच्छे tvam grāmam gachchheh, thou mayest go, i.e. go thou to the village

b Wish, e g भवानिहासीत bhavan ihasita, Let your honour sit here!

c Inquiring, e g वेदमधीषीय उत तर्कमधीषीय vedam adhiṣīya, uta tarkam adhiṣīya, Shall I study the Veda or shall I study logic?

d Supposition (sambhāvana), e g भवेदसी वेदपारगो ब्राह्मणात् bhaved asau vedapārago brahmanatvāt, he probably is a student of the Veda, because he is a Brahman.

e Condition, e g ददद्येन्न भवेद्वाक विनश्येयुरिमा प्रना dandas chen na bhavet loka rinasyeyur imah prayāh, if there were not punishment in the world, the people would perish य पठेत् स आप्नुयात् yah patet sa apnuyat, he who studies, will obtain यद्यद्वोचत विप्रव्यस्तत्तद्वादात्मकम् yad yad rocheta vipredhgas tat tat dadyuḥ amatsarak whatever pleases the Brahmanas let one give that to them not niggardly

f It is used in relative dependent sentences, e g यच्च त्वदेव कुर्या न चक्ष्ये yach cha tvam etam kuryā na śchaddadhe, I believed not that thou couldst act thus यत्नादृशा कृष्ण निदरन्नाथयै yat tādṛśah krishnam nunderann aścharyam, that such persons should revile Krishna, is wonderful

4 The Imperative requires no explanation, as far as the second person is concerned, e g तुद tuda Strike! The first and third persons are used in many cases in place of the Optative, e g इच्छामि भवान्भुक्ता ichchhami bhavan bhuiktām, I wish your honour may eat

5 The Reduplicated Perfect denotes something absolutely past

- 6 Certain verbs which are not allowed to form the reduplicated perfect, form their perfect periphrastically, i.e. by means of an auxiliary verb
- 7 8 The First and Second Aorists refer generally to time past, and are the common historical tenses in narration. They take the Augment (§ 299)
- 9 The Future, also called the Indefinite future, e.g. देवयेदृषियति धानं यस्याम devaś ched varshishyati dhanyam rapsyamaḥ, if it rain we shall sow rice यावज्जीवमन्नं दास्यति yauvajjīvam annam disyati, as long as life lasts, he will give food. Under certain circumstances this Future may be used optionally with the Periphrastic Future, e.g. कदा भोक्ता kadā bhoktā or भोक्ष्यते bhokshyate, When will he eat?
- 10 The Conditional is used, instead of the Optative if things are spoken of that might have, but have not happened (Pan III 3 139), e.g. सुवृषिद्येदभविष्यत्तदा मुनिक्षमभविष्यत् survṛṣidyēdabhaviṣyattada munikṣamabhaviṣyāt if there had been abundant rain, there would have been plenty. The Conditional takes the Augment (§ 299)
- 11 The Periphrastic or Definite Future, e.g. अयोध्यां च प्रयातसि ayodhyāṁ śvaḥ prayāśasi, thou wilt to-morrow proceed to Ayodhya
- 12 The Benedictive is used for expressing not only a blessing but also a wish in general, e.g. श्रीमान् भूयात् śrīman bhūyat, May he be happy! चिरं जीवात् chiram jīyat May he live long!
- 13 The Subjunctive occurs in the Veda only

§ 292 The Sanskrit verb has in each tense and mood three numbers, Singular, Dual, and Plural, with three persons in each

CHAPTER VIII

SPECIAL AND GENERAL TENSES AND THE TEN CLASSES OF VERBS

§ 293 Sanskrit grammarians have divided all verbs into ten classes, according to certain modifications which their roots undergo before the terminations of the Present, the Imperfect the Optative, and Imperative. This division is very useful, and will be retained with some slight alterations. One and the same root may belong to different classes. Thus धा dhā, भ्रा bhā, भ्र bhr, क्र kra, क्ल klam, त्र tra, तृ trū, ल la belong to the Bhū and Div classes. धाते dhāte or धारयत dhārayate &c (Pan III 1, 70). Again कु ku, कुम् kum, क्लम् klam, कुम् kum belong to the Su and Kri classes. कुनोति skunoti or कुनात skunati (Pan III 1 82)

§ 294 The four tenses and moods which require this modification of the root will be called the Special or Modified Tenses the rest the General or Unmodified Tenses. Thus the root चि chi is changed in the Present, Imperfect, Optative, and Imperative into चिनु chi nu. Hence चिनुम् chi nu mah, we search, अचिनुम् achi nu ma, we searched. But the Past Participle चित chitah, searched, or the Reduplicated Perfect चिच्यु chichy uh, they have searched without the नु nu. We call चि chi, the root, चिनु chinu, the base of the special tenses.

§ 295 Verbal bases are first divided into two divisions

- I Bases which in the modified tenses end in च a
 - II Bases which in the modified tenses end in any letter but च a
- This second division is subdivided into,
- II a Bases which insert नु nu, उ u, or नी ni, between the root and the terminations
 - II b Bases which take the terminations without any intermediate element

I First Division

§ 296 The first division comprises four classes

- 1 The Bhû class (the first with native grammarians and called by them भूदि bhûdi because the first verb in their lists is भू bhû, to be)
 - a च a is added to the last letter of the root
 - b The vowel of the root takes Guna, where possible (i e long or short i, u, r, if final, short i, u, r i, u, if followed by one consonant)
- बुध budh, to know, बोधति bodh-a ti, he knows भू bhû to be, भवति bhav a ti, he is

Note—The accent in verbs of the Bhû class was originally (as we know from the ancient Vedic language) on the radical vowel hence Guns of that vowel

Many derivative verbs—such as causal ves भावयति bhāvayati he causes to be desideratives बुभूषति bubhūshati he wishes to be from भू bhū intensive in the Atmane pada चमिद्यति chamidyati he cuts much and denominatives लोहितयति lohityati he grows red,—follow this class

- 2 The Tud class (the sixth with native grammarians, and called by them हुदि tudadi because the first root in their lists is हु tud, to strike)

a च a is added to the last letter of the root

b Before this च a, final इ i and ई ī are changed to इय iy

उ u and ऊ ū

to उव् uv

to रिय् riy

अ a

to इत् it (§ 110)

हु tud, to strike, हुति tud a ti

गि gi, to go, गिय giy a ti

नू nu, to praise, नुति nuv-a-ti

मृ mri, to die; म्रियते mriy-a-te.

कृ kri, to scatter; किरति kir-a-ti.

Note—The accent in verbs of the Tud class was originally on the intermediate अ a; hence never Guna of the radical vowel.

3. The Div class (the fourth with native grammarians, and called by them दिवादि divādi, because the first root in their lists is दि di, to play).

a. य ya is added to the last letter of the root.

नह् nah, to bind; नयति nah-ya-ti.

बुध् budh, to awake; बुध्यते budh-ya-te.

Note—The accent in verbs of the Div class is now on the radical vowel; but there are traces to show that some verbs of this class had the accent originally on य ya.

4. The Chur class (the tenth with native grammarians, and called by them चुरादि churādi, because the first root in their lists is चुर chur, to steal).

a. अय aya is added to the last letter of the root.

b. If the root ends in a simple consonant, preceded by अ a, ए e is lengthened to आ ā.

दत् dal, to cut; दत्तयति dāt-aya-ti, (many exceptions.)

c. If the root ends in a simple consonant, preceded by इ i, उ u, ए ri, ऌ li, these vowels take Guna, while ए ri becomes ई ī.

श्लिप् shlish, to embrace; श्लेषयति shlesh-aya-ti.

चुर chur, to steal; चोरयति chor-aya-ti.

मृष् mriśh, to endure; मर्षयते marsh-aya-te.

कृत् kri, to praise; कीर्तयति kīrt-aya-ti.

d. Final इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऌ li, ए ri, and ए rl, take Viddhi.

जि jri, to grow old; जाययति jrāy-aya-ti.

मी mī, to walk; माययति māy-aya-ti.

धृ dhri, to hold; धारयति dhār-aya-ti.

पृ pri, to fill; पारयति pār-aya-ti.

Note—Many, if not all roots arranged under this class by native grammarians, are secondary roots, and identical in form with causative, denominatives, &c. This class differs from other classes, inasmuch as verbs belonging to it, keep their modificatory syllable अय aya throughout, in the unmodified as well as in the modified tenses, except in the Benedictive Par. The accent was on the first अ a of अय aya.

II. Second Division.

§ 297. The second division comprises all verbs which do not, in the special tenses, end in अ a before the terminations.

It is a distinguishing feature of this second division that, before certain terminations, all verbs belonging to it require strengthening of their radical vowel, or if they take नु nu, उ u, नी nī, strengthening of the vowels of these syllables. This strengthening generally takes place by means of Guna, but नी nī is raised to ना na in the Kṛi, and न् n to न na in the Rudh class.

We shall call the terminations which require strengthening of the inflective base, the weak terminations, and the base before them, the strong base, and vice versa, the terminations which do not require strengthening of the base, the strong terminations, and the base before them, the weak base.

Originally the accent fell on the strong terminations, and on the strong base, thus establishing throughout an equilibrium between base and termination.

II a Bases which take नु nu, उ u, नी nī

§ 298 This first subdivision comprises three classes

- 1 The Su class (the fifth class with native grammarians, and called by them स्वादि śvādī, because the first root in their lists is सु su)

a नु nu is added to the last letter of the root, before strong terminations, नो no before weak terminations

Ex सु su, to squeeze out, सुनुम su nu-mah, 1st pers plur Pres
सुनोमि su-no-mi, 1st pers sing Pres

- 2 The Tan class (the eighth class with native grammarians, and called by them तनादि tanādī, because the first root in their lists is तन् tan)

a उ u is added to the last letter of the root, before strong terminations, ओ o before weak terminations

Ex तन् tan, to stretch, तनुम tan u-mah, 1st pers plur Pres
तनोमि tan-o-mi, 1st pers sing Pres

Note—All verbs belonging to this class end in न् n except one कृ kṛi करोमि karomi I do

- 3 The Kṛi class (the ninth with native grammarians, and called by them कृयादि kṛyādī, because the first root in their lists is क्री kṛī)

a नी nī is added to the last letter of the root, before strong terminations, ना na before weak terminations

न na before strong terminations beginning with vowels

Ex क्री kṛī, to buy, क्रीणाम kṛī nī mah, 1st pers plur Pres
क्रीणामि kṛi-nā mi, 1st pers sing Pres

II b Bases to which the terminations are joined immediately

§ 299 The second division comprises three classes

- 1 The Ad class (the second class with native grammarians, and called by them अदादि adādī, because the first root in their lists is अद् ad to eat)

a The terminations are added immediately to the last letter of the base, and in the contact of vowels with vowels, vowels with consonants, consonants with vowels, and consonants with consonants, the phonetic rules explained above (§§ 107-145) must be carefully observed

b The strong base before the weak terminations takes Guna, where possible (§ 296, 1, 6)

Ex. लिह् lih, to lick, लिमः lih mah, we lick

लेमि leh-mi, I lick

लेसि lek-shi, thou lickest (§ 127)

लीढ liḍha, you lick (§ 128)

अलेद् alet, thou lickedst (§ 128)

The intensive verbs, conjugated in the Parasmaipada, follow this class

2 The Hu class (the third class with native grammarians, and called by them जुहोत्यादि juhotyādi, because the first root in their lists is हु hu, जुहोति juhoti)

a The terminations are added as in the Ad class

b The strong base before the weak terminations takes Guna, where possible

c The root takes reduplication (Rules of Reduplication, § 302)

Ex हु hu, to sacrifice, जुहुम ju hu-māh, we sacrifice

जुहोमि ju hō-mi, I sacrifice. (Pan VI 1, 192)

3 The Rudh class (the seventh class with native grammarians, and called by them रुधादि rudhadi, because the first root in their lists is रु ru, रुद्धि runaddhi, to obstruct)

a The terminations are added as in the Ad class

b Between the radical vowel and the final consonant न् n is inserted, which in the strong base before weak terminations is raised to नः na

Ex युज् yuj, to join, युजम yu n-j māh, we join

युजामि yu na-j mi, I join

CHAPTER IX

AUGMENT, REDUPLICATION, AND TERMINATIONS

§ 300 Before we can leave the subject which occupies us at present, viz the preparation of the root previous to its assuming the terminations, we have to consider two processes, the Augment and the Reduplication, modifications of the root with which we are familiar in Greek, and which in Sanskrit as well as in Greek form the distinguishing features of certain tenses (Imperfect, Aorist, Conditional, and Perfect) in every verb

§ 301 Roots beginning with consonants take short अ a as their initial augment Thus अ a has the accent Thus from बुद् बुद्, Present बोधादि bodhami, Imperfect अबोध abodham

Roots beginning with vowels always take Vridhhi, the irregular result of the combination of the augment with the initial vowels (Pan vi 1, 90)

अ a with अ a, or आ ā, = आ ā

अ a with इ i, ई ī, ए e, or ऐ ai, = ऐ ai

अ a with उ u, ऊ ū, ओ o, or औ au, = औ au

अ a with दृ ṛ, or दृ ṛī, = दृ ṛ

From अर्च arch, अर्चति archati, he praises, आर्चत् archat, he praised

From ईक्ष iksh, ईक्षति ikshate, he sees, ऐक्षत् aikshata, he saw

From उद् und, उनति unati, he wets, औनत् aunat, he wetted

From वृ ṛ, वृच्छति ṛichchhati, he goes, आर्चत् archchhat, he went

In the more ancient Sanskrit, as in the more ancient Greek, the augment is frequently absent In the later Sanskrit, too, it has to be dropt after the negative particle मा ma (Pan vi 4. 74) मा भवान् कर्षीह् मा भवान् karshīt, Let not your Honour do thus! or मा स करोत् mā sma karot, May he not do it!

Reduplication

§ 302 Reduplication takes place in Sanskrit not only in the reduplicated perfect, but likewise in all verbs of the Hu class. Most of the rules of reduplication are the same in forming the base of the perfect of all verbs, and in forming the special base of the verbs of the Hu class These will be stated first, afterwards those that are peculiar either to the reduplication of the perfect or to that of the verbs of the Hu class

The reduplication in intensive and desiderative verbs and in one form of the aorist will have to be treated separately

General Rules of Reduplication

§ 303 The first syllable of a root (i.e. that portion of it which ends with a vowel) is repeated.

बुद् budh = बुबुद् bubudh भृ bhṛ is exceptional in forming बभृद् babhṛ (Pān VII 4 73)

§ 304 Aspirated letters are represented in reduplication by their corresponding unaspirated letters

भिद् bhid, to cut, = बिभिद् bibhid

धृ dhd, to shake, = दुधृ dudhd

§ 305 Gutturals are represented in reduplication by their corresponding palatals, ह h by ञ् j (Pān VII 4, 62)

कुद् kut, to sever, = चुकुद् chukut

खन् khan, to dig, = चखन् chakhan

गम् gam, to go, = जगम् jagam

हस् has, to laugh, = जहस् jahas

§ 306 If a root begins with more than one consonant, the first only is reduplicated

क्रुञ् kruś, to shout, = चुक्रुञ् chukruś

क्षिप् kship, to throw, = चिक्षिप् chikship

§ 307 If a root begins with a sibilant followed by a tenuis or aspirated tenuis, the tenuis only is reduplicated

स्तु stu, to praise, = तुस्तु tushṭu (§ 103, 1)

स्तन् stan, to sound, = तस्तन् taśtan

स्पर्ध् spardh, to strive, = पस्पर्ध् paspardh

स्था sthā, to stand, = तस्था taśtha

क्ष्युन् śchyut, to drop, = चुक्ष्युन् chuśchyut

But स्मृ smṛ, to pine, = सस्मृ sasmṛ

§ 308 If the radical vowel, whether final or medial, is long, it is shortened in the reduplicative syllable

गाह gah, to enter, = जगाह jagah

क्री kṛ, to buy, = चिक्री chikṛ

सूद् sād, to strike, = सुपूद् sushād

§ 309 If the radical (not final) vowel is ए e or ऐ ai, it becomes इ i, if it is ओ o or औ au, it becomes उ u

सेव् sei, to worship, = सिपेव् sisei

दीक् dhauk, to approach, = दुदीक् dudhauk

§ 310 Roots with final ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, are treated like roots ending in आ a, taking अ a in the reduplicative syllable

धे dhe, to feed, = दधी dadhai

गै gai, to sing, = जगै jagau

शो śo, to sharpen, = जशो śasau

§ 311 The following roots are slightly irregular on account of the semivowels which they contain, and which are liable to be changed into vowels (This change is called Samprasāraṇa) Pāṇ VI 1, 17

§ 312. Roots beginning with short अ a, and ending in a single consonant, contract अ a + अ a into छा ā.

छद् ād, to eat, = छाद् ād

§ 313 Roots beginning with short अ a, and ending with more than one consonant, prefix जान् an

अर्च् arch = जानर्च् ānarch (Also अज् as (Su), जानश्चे anāśe) Pāṇ VII 4, 72

§ 314 Roots beginning with इ i or उ u (not prosodically long), contract इ + इ i + i and उ + उ u + u into ई i and ऊ ū, but if the radical इ i or उ u take Guna or Vriddhi, य् y and व् v are inserted between the reduplicative syllable and the base. (Pāṇ VI 4, 78)

* The weak forms appear in all persons of the reduplicated perfect where neither Vriddhi nor Guna is required

† The weakest forms of these verbs do not belong to the reduplicated perfect, but have been added as useful hereafter for the formation of the past participle the benedictive the passive &c.

‡ यप् yap is a substitute for येरे in the reduplicated perfect (Pāṇ II 4 41) If that substitution does not take place, then येरे forms यती carau, यतु caruh (Pāṇ VI 1, 40)

§ Pāṇ VI 1, 39, 39

¶ Or जिशाव śiśava (Pāṇ VI 1, 30)

 = इषेय iy esh-a (Guna), I have gone
 उक्क् ukh = ऊकतु ukh atuh, they two have withered
 = उपोर ui-okh-a (Guna), I have withered

§ 315 The root च्च ri forms the base of the reduplicated perfect as च्च dr
 Other roots beginning with च्च ri prefix चान् dn (Pāṇ VII 4 71)

चन् ry to obtain, = चानृन् dn-ry

As to roots which cannot be reduplicated or are otherwise irregular, see the rules given for the formation of the Reduplicated and Periphrastic Perfect

Special Rules of Reduplication

§ 316 So far the process of reduplication would be the same whether applied to the bases of the Reduplicated Perfect or to those of the Hu class. But there are some points on which these two classes of reduplicated bases differ, viz

- 1 In the Reduplicated Perfect, radical च्च ri, च्च ri, whether final or medial are represented in reduplication by च a
- 2 In the bases of the Hu class final च्च ri and च्च ri (they do not occur as medial) are represented in reduplication by इ :

Reduplicated Perfect.

भृ bhr, to bear, = बभार babhāra

सृ sri, to go, = ससार sasara

दृ hri to take, = जहार jahāra

Hu Class. Present, &c

भृ bhr = बिभर्ति bibharti

सृ sri = सिस्ति sisati

दृ hri = जिहति jihati

The root च्च ri, to go forms इयति iy-ati पूरति pū-ri, to fill, पिपति pī-ri

§ 317 The three verbs निन् ny, पिन् ry, and विष् rish of the Hu class take Guna in the reduplicated syllable. (Pāṇ VII 4, 75)

निन् ny to wash नेनेक्ति nenekti, नेनिके nenikte पिन् ry, to separate, पेरेक्ति perēkti विष् rish, to pervade, पेरेष्टि pereshṭi

§ 318 The two verbs मा mā to measure, and हा hi to go, of the Hu class take इ in the reduplicative syllable (Pāṇ VII 4, 76)

मा mi, मीमिहे mimīte हा hi, जिहिहे jihīte

§ 319 Certain roots change their initial consonant if they are reduplicated हन् han to kill, जघान jaghāna Likewise in the desiderative जिघामसि jighāmsati, and the intensive जघाम्यते jaghanyate (Pāṇ VII 3 55)

हि hi, to send (Su) जिघाय jighaya Likewise in the desiderative जिघीषति jighīshati, and the intensive जेघीयते jeghīyate (Pāṇ VII 3, 56)

जि ji, to conquer जिगाय jigaya. Likewise in the desiderative जिगीषति jigīshati but not in the intensive, which is always जेजीयते jegīyate (Pāṇ VII 3 57)

चि chi, to gather, has optionally चिचाय chichaya or चिकाय chikaya The same option applies to the desiderative, but in the intensive we have चेचीयते chechīyate only (Pāṇ VII 3 58)

Terminations.

§ 320. After having explained how the verbal roots are modified in ten different ways before they receive the terminations of the four special tenses, the Present, Imperfect, Optative, and Imperative, we give a table of the terminations for the special or modified tenses and moods.

§ 321. The terminations for the modified tenses, though on the whole the same for all verbs, are subject to certain variations, according as the verbal bases take स a (First Division), or नु nu, उ u, नी nt (Second Division, A.), or nothing (Second Division, B.) between themselves and the terminations. Instead of giving the table of terminations according to the system of native grammarians, or according to that of comparative philologists, and explaining the real or fanciful changes which they are supposed to have undergone in the different classes of verbs, it will be more useful to give them in that form in which they may mechanically be attached to each verbal base. The beginner should commit to memory the actual paradigms rather than the different sets of terminations. Instead of taking आथे áthe as the termination of the 2nd pers. dual Âtm, and learning that the आ á of आथे áthe is changed to इ i after bases in स a (Pân. VII. 2, 81), it is simpler to take इथे ithe as the termination in the First Division; but still simpler to commit to memory such forms as बोधेथे bodhethe, द्विषाथे dvisháthe, मिमाथे mimáthe, without asking at first any questions as to how they came to be what they are.

§ 322 By means of these terminations the student is able to form the Present Imperfect, Optative and Imperative in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada of all regular verbs in Sanskrit, and any one who has clearly understood how the verbal bases are prepared in ten different ways for receiving their terminations, and who will attach to these verbal bases the terminations as given above according to the rules of Sandhu, will have no difficulty in writing out for himself the paradigms of any Sanskrit verb in four of the most important tenses and moods both in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada. Some verbs, however, are irregular in the formation of their base, these must be learnt from the Dhātupāṭha

* The Su and Tan classes take no term nat on except when उ is preceded by a conjunct consonant

† Hu class and अभ्यस्त abhyasta i.e. reduplicated bases take अति ati

‡ Hu class reduplicated bases and चि ci to know take उ u before which verbs ending in a vowel require Guna. उ u is used optionally after verbs in आ ā, and after द्वि dvi to hate (Pāṇ III 4 109—112)

CHAPTER X

GENERAL OR UNMODIFIED TENSES

§ 323 In the tenses which remain, the Reduplicated Perfect, the Periphrastic Perfect the First and Second Aorist, the Future, the Conditional, the Periphrastic Future, and Benedictive, the distinction of the ten classes vanishes. All verbs are treated alike, to whatever class they belong in the modified tenses, and the distinguishing features, the inserted नु nu, उ u, नी nī, &c., are removed again from the roots to which they had been attached in the Present, the Imperfect, the Optative, and Imperative. Only the verbs* of the Chur class preserve their चय aya throughout, except in the Aorist and Benedictive.

r Reduplicated Perfect

§ 324 The root in its primitive state is reduplicated. The rules of reduplication have been given above (§§ 302-319)

§ 325 The Reduplicated Perfect can be formed of all verbs, except

- 1 Monosyllabic roots which begin with any vowel prosodially long but च a or चा u such as ईद् id, to praise, दुष् edh, to grow, ईप् indh, to light, उद् und, to wet चृच्छ richchh and ऊर्णु urnu are excepted
- 2 Polysyllabic roots, such as चकास् chakas, to be bright
- 3 Verbs of the Chur class and derivative verbs, such as Causatives, Desideratives, Intensives, Denominatives

§ 326 Verbs which cannot form the Perfect by reduplication, form the Periphrastic Perfect by means of composition (§ 340)

So do likewise दय day, to pity, &c., अय ay, to go चास् as, to sit down (Pan III 1, 37), कास् kas to cough (Pan III 1, 35), also काश kaś to shine (Sar), optionally उष् ush, to burn, (ओषा oshām), विद् vid, to know, (विदा vidam), जागृ jagrī, to wake, (जागरा jagaram, Pan III 1, 38), and, after taking reduplication, भी bhī (बिभया bibhayām), ह्री hrī (निहया nihrayam) भृ bhri (बिभ्रा bibhāram), and हु hu (जुहवा juhavā, Pan III 1, 39)

The verb ऊर्णु urnu to cover, although polysyllabic, allows only of ऊर्णुनाच urnunāca as its Perfect.

चृच्छ richchh, to fail, although ending in two consonants, forms only चानर्च्छ ānarchchha

Terminations of the Reduplicated Perfect

SINGULAR

1	च a	ए e
2	इप् iha	इप् ihe
3	च a	ए e

DUAL.
1. इय itā	इयहे itāhe
2. अथुः athuh	अथे āthe
3. अतुः atuh	अते āte
PLURAL.
1. इम ima	इमहे imahe
2. अ a	इये idhie or इहे idhie
3. उः uh	इरे ire

These terminations are here given, without any regard to the systems of native or comparative grammarians, in that form in which they may be mechanically added to the reduplicated roots. The rules on the omission of the initial इ i of certain terminations will be given below.

§ 327 The accent falls on the terminations in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada, except in the three persons singular Parasmaipada. In these the accent falls on the root, which therefore is strengthened according to the following rules :

1. Vowels capable of Guna, take Guna throughout the singular, if followed by a consonant.

भिद् bhid, बिभेद् bibhed-a, बिभेदिष bibhed-itha, बिभेद् bibhed-a.

बुध् budh, बुबोध bubodh-a, बुबोधिष bubodh-itha, बुबोध bubodh-a.

But, जीव् jīu, a long medial vowel not being liable to Guna, forms जिवीष jīviv-a, जिवीषिष jīviv-itha, जिवीष jīviv-a.

2. Final vowels take Vriddhi or Guna in the first, Guna in the second, Vriddhi only in the third person singular.

नी nī, निनाय nindā-a or नितय ninay-a, निनयिष ninay-itha, निनाय nindā-a.

3. अ a if followed by a single consonant, takes Vriddhi or Guna in the first, Guna in the second, Vriddhi only in the third person singular.

हन् han, जघात jaghān-a or जघन jaghan-a, जघनिष jaghan-itha, जघात jaghān-a.

Note—If the second person singular Parasmaipada is formed by ए thā, the accent falls on the root, if with इय itā, the accent may fall on any syllable, but generally it is on the termination. In this case the radical vowel may, in certain verbs, be without Guna, पिन् pi, पिपेत् pipeta, but पिपिनिष piyitha (Pān 1, 2, 3)

§ 328. As there is a tendency to strengthen the base in the three persons singular Parasmaipada, so there is a tendency to weaken the base, under certain circumstances, before the other terminations of the Perfect, Parasmai and Ātmanepada. Here the following rules must be observed :

1. Roots like पठ् pat, i. e. roots in which अ a is preceded and followed by a single consonant, and which in their reduplicated syllable repeat the initial consonant without any change (this excludes roots beginning with aspirates and with gutturals; roots beginning with च् r, and शस् *śas and दद् dad are likewise excepted), contract such forms as पपत् papat into पेत pet, before the accented terminations, (including इत् *it*ha, Pān VI 4, 120 121)

पच् pach पक्कच् papaktha, but पेचिच् pechitha पेचिम pechima, पेचुच् pechuh तन् tan, तेनिच् tenitha, तेनिम tenima तेनु tenuh

- 2 Roots mentioned in § 311 take their weak form

वह rah उवाह uraha, ऊहिम uhima

वच् vach, उवाच uvacha, ऊचु ūchuh

Note—The roots तृ tri मल्ल phal भञ्ज bhaj त्रप् trap अष् śrath (Pān VI 4 122) and राध rādh in the sense of killing (123) from their Reduplicated Perfect like पपत् papat. The roots जृ jri भ्रम् bhrem and त्रस् tras (124) may do so optionally and likewise फण् phan रान् rāj भ्राज् bhrāj भ्राज् bhrāś भृज् bhṛāś स्वम् syam स्वन् svan

- 3 The roots गम् gam, हन् han, जन् jan, खन् khan, घस् ghas drop their radical vowel (Pān VI 4, 98)

गम् gam जगमत् jagmatuh

हन् han, जगमत् jaghnatuh

खन् khan चखत् chakhnatuh

घस् ghas, जखत् jakshatuh

- 4 Roots ending in consonants preceded by a nasal (Pān I 2, 5), such as मन् manth, स्रम् srams, &c, do not drop their nasal in the weakening forms Ex 3rd pers dual ममयत् mamanthatuh सस्रसे sasramse

- 5 The verbs अष् śranth, ग्रष् granth, दम् dambh, and स्वन् svany, however, may be weakened, and form श्रेयत् srethatuh, ग्रेयत् grethatuh, देभत् debhatuh, सखने sasvaye (loss of nasal and e, cf Pān I 2, 6, v) But according to some grammarians the forms श्रयत् śakranthatuh &c. are more correct.

§ 329 Roots ending in आ a, and many roots ending in diphthongs, drop their final vowel before all terminations beginning with a vowel (Pān VI 4 64) In the general tenses, verbs ending in diphthongs are treated like verbs ending in आ a

The same roots take औ au for the termination of the first and third persons singular Parasmai

दा da, दद् dad-au, ददिय dad u.a, ददयु dad-athuh, ददिरे dad ire

म्लै mlai मम्लौ maml au, मम्लिय maml u.a, मम्लयु maml athuh, मम्लिरे maml ire

Except ये ye, हे he &c, see § 311

§ 330 Roots ending in इ i, ई ī, उ u, if preceded by one consonant, change their vowels before terminations beginning with vowels, into य y, र r

* शस् हितायामिति केचित् केचित्तु शस्य भुतगत्यामिति । Prasāda p 13 a. In a later passage the Prasāda (p 17 b) dec des for both शस् śas and शस्य śas

If preceded by more than one consonant, they change their vowels into इ iy, ए ar *

Roots ending in उ u, ऊ ū, change these vowels always into उ ar

Most roots ending in च् ch, change the vowel to ए ar (Pag VII 4, 11) गृ grī, जगरत् jagaratuh †.

नी nī, निमिष nimīṣa, we two have led

स्रि sri, सिद्धिषि siddhiṣi, we two have gone

कृ kṛi, चक्रत् chakr-athuh, you two have done

स्तृ stṛi, तस्तत् tastat-athuh, you two have spread

यु yu, युयुत् yuyut-athuh, you two have joined.

स्तु stu, तुष्टत् tushṭur-athuh, you two have praised

कृ kṛi, चक्रत् chakar-athuh, you two have scattered

CHAPTER XI

THE INTERMEDIATE इ

§ 331 Before we can proceed to form the paradigms of the Reduplicated Perfect by means of joining the terminations with the root, it is necessary to consider the intermediate इ, which in the Reduplicated Perfect and in the other unmodified tenses has to be inserted between the verbal base and the terminations, originally beginning with consonants. The rules which require, allow, or prohibit the insertion of this इ form one of the most difficult chapters of Sanskrit grammar, and it is the object of the following paragraphs to simplify these rules as much as possible.

The general tendency, and so far the general rule, is that the terminations of the unmodified or general tenses, originally beginning with consonants, insert the vowel इ between base and termination, and from an historical point of view it would no doubt be more correct to speak of the rules which require the addition of an intermediate इ than (as has been done in § 326) to represent the इ as an integral part of the terminations, and to give the rules which require its omission. But as the intermediate इ has prevailed in the vast majority of verbs, it will be easier, for practical purposes, to state the exceptions, i.e. the cases in which the इ is not employed, instead of defining the cases in which it must or may be inserted.

* च् ch forms the perf चार ara 3rd pers dual चारत् aratat चुञ्च chukchā forms चानच् ānarchān 3rd pers dual चानच्त् ānarchātāt (Pān VII 4 11)

† In गृ grī, दृ dṛi and पू pū a further shortening may take place, जगरत् jagaratāt being shortened to जगत् jagatāt &c (Pān VII 4 22)

One termination only, that of the 3rd pers plur Perf Âtm, इरे, keeps the intermediate इः under all circumstances. In the Veda, however, this इः, too, has not yet become fixed, and is occasionally omitted, e.g. दृदुहे duduh-re

Let it be remembered then, that there are three points to be considered

- 1 When is it necessary to omit the इः?
- 2 When is it optional to insert or to omit the इः?
- 3 When is it necessary to insert the इः?

For the purposes of reading Sanskrit, all that a student is obliged to know is, When it is necessary to omit the इः? Even for writing Sanskrit this knowledge would be sufficient, for in all cases except those in which the omission is necessary, the इः may safely be inserted, although, according to views of native grammarians, it may be equally right to omit it. A student therefore, and particularly a beginner, is safe if he only knows the cases in which इः is necessarily omitted, nor will anything but extensive reading enable him to know the verbs in which the insertion is either optional or necessary. Native grammarians have indeed laid down a number of rules, but both before and after Panini the language of India has changed, and even native grammarians are obliged to admit that on the optional insertion of इः authorities differ, that is to say, that the literary language of India differed so much in different parts of that enormous country, and at different periods of its long history, that no rules, however minute, would suffice to register all its freaks and fancies.

Taking as the starting point the general axiom (Pāṇ VII 2, 35) that every termination beginning originally with a consonant (except य्य) takes the इः, which we represent as a portion of the termination, we proceed to state the exceptions, i.e. the cases in which the इः must on no account be inserted, or, as we should say, must be cut off from the beginning of the termination.

§ 332 The following verbs, which have been carefully collected by native grammarians (Pāṇ VII 2, 10), are not allowed to take the intermediate इः in the so-called general or unmodified tenses, before terminations or affixes beginning originally with a consonant (except य्य) (Note—The reduplicated perfect and its participle in वृत् are not affected by these rules, see § 334.)

- 1 All monosyllabic roots ending in आ d
- 2 All monosyllabic roots ending in इ, except स्मि smi, to attend (21, 31)*, स्मि smi, to grow (23 41) (Note—स्मि smi, to laugh, must take इः in the Desiderative Pāṇ VII 2 74)

5. All monosyllabic roots ending in च ri, except चृ ri, to choose (31, 38) Important exception in the Fut and Cond. in च्य sya, all verbs in च ri take इ i (Pāṇ VII 2, 70) सृ sri, to sound, may take इ i (Pāṇ VII 2, 44) भृ bhri, to carry, may take इ i in the Desider (Pāṇ VII 2, 49) दृ dri, to regard, धृ dhri, to hold, and चृ ri, to go, take इ i in the Desider (Pāṇ VII 2, 74, 75) In the Benedictive and I Aorist verbs ending in च ri and beginning with a conjunct consonant may take इ i (Pāṇ VII 2, 43)

कृप् kṛp, to shape, Fut. कल्पति kalptā, Fut. कल्पस्यति kalpsyati, Cond. कल्पेत् kalpsyāt, Desid. चिकृप्सति chikṛpsati, Part. कृप्त्वा kṛptah

B. In the future and conditional (formed by स्य syā), the desiderative base, and the participle in त ta, the following four verbs must not take ३, if used in the Parasmaipada (Pān. vii 2, 59) .

वृत् vṛt, to exist, Fut. वर्त्स्यति varisyati, Cond. वर्त्सेत् avarisyāt, Desid. विवृत्सति vivṛtsati, Part. वृत्तः vṛttah. (Pān. vii 2, 15, 56)

ग्रह् grah, निगृह्णति niḡṛhṇati, Part. गृह्णीतः grāhṇah (long i by special rule, cf. Pāp. vii 2, 37)

(Verbs ending in अ ri, and अ ri are liable to exception. See § 337. Pān. vii 2, 38-41)

D. Participial formations

1. Roots which may be without the ३ in any one of the general tenses, must be without it in the participle in त ta.

(Remark that the participle in त ta is most opposed, as the reduplicated perfect is most disposed to the admission of ३.)

Monosyllabic roots ending in उ u, अ a, अ ā, अ ri, अ ri, do not take ३ before the participle in त ta, nor before other terminations which tend to weaken a verbal base. (Pān. vii. 2, 11.)

गाह् gāh, to enter, may form (Pān. VII. 2, 44) the future as गाहिता gāh-i-tā or गाढा gādhā; hence its participle गाढः gādhah only.

गुप् gup, to protect, may form (Pān. VII. 2, 44) the future गोपिता gop-i-tā or गोप्ता gop-tā; hence its participle गुप्तः guptah only.

2. Roots which by native grammarians are marked with technical चा d or ई i do not take इ i in the participle in त ta. (Pān. VII. 2, 14, 16) *

सिद् srid, to sweat (marked as निष्पिदा nīshvidā); सिक् svinnah.

Intermediate 2 in the Reduplicated Perfect

§ 334 The preceding rules, prohibiting in a number of roots the z, for all or most general tenses, do not affect the reduplicated perfect. Most of the verbs just enumerated which must omit z in all other general tenses, do not omit it in the perfect. So general, in fact, has the use of the z, become in the perfect, that eight roots only are absolutely prohibited from taking it. These are (P¹⁰ vii 2 13).

- 1 कृ kṛi, to do, (unless it is changed to कृ skṛi), 1st pers dual कृता et'at'ra but संचास्करि sanchaskarira 2nd pers sing संचास्करि sanchaskariritha
- 2 गृ gṛi to go, गमय gasya-va
- 3 भृ bhṛi, to bear, बभूव babhrira

- 7 सु srū, to flow, सुसृ susru-va सुसृते susro-ṭha
- 8 शृ śrū, to hear, शृणु śuru-va शृणुते śuro-ṭha

§ 335 In the second person singular of the reduplicated perfect Pr the z before va tha must necessarily be left out,

- 1 In the eight roots, enumerated before (The form चरथे carar tha, however, being restricted to the Veda, चरथि चारaritha is considered the right form)
- 2 In roots ending in vowels, which are necessarily without इ in the future (ता ti), Pan vii 2 61 See § 332, where these roots are given या ya, to go, Fut याता yāta ययाथ yaya tha
चि chi, to gather, Fut चेता chet चिथेथ chithe tha
- 3 In roots ending in consonants and having an अ for their radical vowel which are necessarily without इ in the future (ता ti), Pan vii 2, 62 See § 332, where these roots are given

पच pach, to cook, Fut. पक्ता pakt; पचयच papach tha

But भृषति krishati, he dregs, Fut कश् karshā चक्रदिष chakarsh : 'ha (Bharadiya requires the omission of इ, after roots with अ् in only, which are necessarily without इ, in the future (Pan VII 2, 63), except root अ् itself. Hence he allows चेषिष ječitha, besides पपक्ष papaktha, इक्षिष īkṣitha, besides इष्य īṣyatha).

* यम् र्णः (१, ४) परस्मै parane च यम् र्णः (३१, ४) चापरस्मै decarane च यम् र्णः (३१, ३४) सप्तमी samdhahatw हत्

† The form पश्यिष्य paśyīṣya which Westergaard mentions may be derived from another root पृष् the rule of lān in being restricted by the commenta or to पृष्मि and पृष्मि

- 4 All other verbs ending in consonants with any other radical vowel but ख a, require इ १, and so do all verbs with which इ १ is either optional or indispensable in the future (ता ta)

Exceptions

- 1 In सृज् sry and दृश् drish, the omission is optional
सृज् sry, सस्रश् sasrashtha, or ससृजिष sasryitha
- 2 The verbs अस्ति asti, अस्ति asti, व्यपति vyayati must take इ १
अद् ad, आदिष ad : tha, (exception to No 3)

* The technical ऊ ३ shows that in the other general tenses the इ १ is optional § 335 १

Optional Insertion of इ i.

§ 337. For practical purposes, as was stated before, it is sufficient to know when it would be wrong to use the intermediate इ i; for in all other cases, whatever the views of different grammarians, or the usage of different writers, it is safe to insert the इ i.

As native grammarians, however, have been at much pains to collect the cases in which इ i must or may be inserted, a short abstract of their rules may here follow, which the early student may safely pass by.

इ i may or may not be inserted:

I. Before any ārdhadhātuka (i. e. an affix of the general tenses not requiring the modified verbal base) beginning with consonants, except य y:

1. In the verbs स्वरि svri; Per. Fut. स्वरिता svaṛ-i-tā, or स्वरता svartā, &c. (Pān. VII. 2, 44.) (Except future in स्वरिष्यति svaṛishyati only. Pān. VII. 2, 70.)

2. नू nū (as Ad and Diy, not as Tud), मयिता may-i-tā, or सोता soṭā, &c. धू dhū (not as Tud), धयिता dhaṇ-i-tā, or धोता dhotā, &c. (Except aorist Parasmaipada, which must take इ i. Pān. VII. 2, 72.)

3. In all verbs having a technical ऊ ū; (Pān. VII. 2, 44.) गाह् gāh, Per. Fut. गाहिता gāh-i-tā, or गाढा gādhā. (See § 333, D. 1.)

But अंज añj (though marked अंजू añjū) must take इ i in the I aorist. (Pān. VII. 2, 71) अंजिषुः añjishuḥ.

3. In the eight verbs beginning with रप् radh (Pān. VII. 2, 45.)

(26, 84) रप् radh, to perish, रयिता radh-i-tā, or रद्धा raddhā

(26, 85) नश् naś, to vanish, नयिता naś-i-tā, or नश्टा naṁśhṭā.

(26, 86) तृप् trip, to delight, तयिता tarp-i-tā, or तर्ता tarptā, or त्रता trapṭā.

(26, 87) दृप् drip, to be proud, दयिता darṇ-i-tā, or दर्ता darptā, or द्रता draptā

(26, 88) दुह् duh, to suck, दूयिता duh-i-tā, or दूयता duṇyā, or दूयता duṇyā.

(26, 89) मुह् muh, to be bewildered, मोहिता moh-i-tā, or मोघ्या mogdhā, or मोढा modhā.

(26, 90) सुह् snuh, to vomit, सोहिता snoh-i-tā, or सोघ्या snogdhā, or सोढा snodhā.

(26, 91) स्निह् snih, to love, स्नेहिता snēh-i-tā, or स्नेघ्या snegdhā, or स्नेढा snedhā.

According to some this option extends to the reduplicated perfect: but this is properly denied by others.

4. In the verb कृप् kush (Chur class), preceded by निर nir; but here इ i is necessary in the participle with त ta. (Pān. VII. 2, 46; 47.)

इ i may or may not be inserted:

II. Before certain ārdhadhātukas only:

1. Before ārdhadhātukas beginning with त् t.

In the verbs इष् ish (Tud only), सह sah, लुप् lubbh, रुप् rush, रिप् rish. (Pān. VII. 2, 48.)

ग्रह grah, Per Fut ग्रहीता grahitā, Inf ग्रहीतु grahitum, but Perf जगृह्म jagrāhma

Periphrastic Perfect

§ 342 Verbs which, according to § 325, cannot form a reduplicated perfect, form their perfect by affixing चाम् am (an accusative termination of a feminine abstract noun in चा a) to the verbal base, and adding to this the reduplicated perfect of कृ kri, to do, भू bhū, to be, or अस् as, to be

उद् und, to wet, उदा चकार, चभूव, चास, undam chakāra, babhūva, āsa

चकास् chakās, to shine, चकासा चकार, चभूव, चास, chakasam chakara, babhūva, āsa

बोधय bodhaya, to make known, बोधया चकार, चभूव, चास, bodhayam chakara, babhūva, āsa

After verbs which are used in the Ātmanepada, the auxiliary verb कृ kri is conjugated as Ātmanepada, but अस् as and भू bhū in the Parasmaipada. Hence from एधे edhate, he grows,

एधा चक्रे edh-am chakre, but चभूव babhūva and चास āsa

In the passive all three auxiliary verbs follow the Ātmanepada

* The forms given in the Calcutta edition of Pāṇini VII 2, 42, वरीषीष्ट varishīṣṭa, तरीषीष्ट tarishīṣṭa, are wrong (See Pān VII 2, 39)

§ 343 Intensive bases which can take Guna, take it before च da; desiderative bases never admit of Guna. (§ 339)

बोध् bodhā, frequentative base of भू bhū, बोधयि bodhayi lobhat-don chakira.
But बुबोधिप् bubodhiṣ, desiderative base of बुप् budh, बुबोधिषा bubodhiṣā lic.
bubodhiṣām chakdra &c.

CHAPTER XII.

STRENGTHENING AND WEAKENING OF THE VERBAL BASES
IN THE SIX REMAINING GENERAL TENSES.

§ 344. It may be useful, without entering into minute details, to distinguish between two sets of general tenses, moods, and verbal derivatives, which differ from each other by a tendency either to strengthen or to weaken their base. The strengthening takes place chiefly by Guna, but, under special circumstances, likewise by Vṛddhi, by lengthening of the vowel, or by nasalization. The weakening takes place by shortening, by changing vr̥ to ṛ, by Samprasāraṇa, or by dropping of a nasal. There are many roots, however, which either cannot be strengthened or cannot be weakened, and which therefore are liable to change in one only of these sets. Some resist both strengthening and weakening, as, for instance, all derivative bases, causatives, desideratives, and intensives (in the Ātm.), which generally have been strengthened, as far as their bases will allow, previously to their taking the conjugational terminations.

The first set comprises:

1. The Future.
2. The Conditional.
3. The Periphrastic Future.
4. The Benedictive Ātmanepada.
(Except bases ending in conson. or vr̥, and not taking interm. ṛi Pān. I. 2, 11; 12 vr̥ II 2, 42)
5. The First Aorist, I. II.
(Except First Aor. II. Ātm. of verbs ending in conson, vr̥, or vr̥a d.)

The second set comprises:

1. The Participle in ta (unless it takes intermediate ṛi)
2. The Gerund in trā (unless it takes intermediate ṛi).
3. The Passive.
4. The Benedictive Parasmaipada.
5. The First Aorist, IV.
6. The Second Aorist.
(Except verbs in vr̥ vr̥i, &c)

Note—Among derivative verbs, causatives strengthen their base, intensives do not strengthen it, and desideratives admit of both, according to general rules to be stated hereafter

CHAPTER XIII.

AORIST

§ 346 We can distinguish in Sanskrit, as in Greek, between two kinds of Aorists, one formed by means of a sibilant inserted between root and termination,—this we call the First,—another, formed by adding the terminations to the base, this we call the Second Aorist.

Both Aorists take the Augment, and, with some modifications, the terminations of the Imperfect

§ 347 The First Aorist is formed in four different ways

* Or नष्टा namishṭā

† Roots which thus may drop the r nasal, are written in the Dhātupāṭha with their nasal, स्रस् or स्रम् sras while others which retain their nasal throughout, are written without the nasal but with an indicative इ : नदि naḍ &c (Pān VI 4, 24, VII 1, 58) Two verbs thus marked by इ, लङ्गि lag and कपि kap may, however drop their nasal the general rule notwithstanding if used in certain meanings विलङ्गित vilagitaṃ, burnt, विकपित vikapitaṃ deformed (Pān VI 4 24 1) गृहि gr̥hi गृह्णति gr̥hṇati drops its nasal before terminations beginning with a vowel but not before the intermediate इ : गृहयति gr̥hayaṭi, but गृह्णति gr̥hṇati रङ्ग raṅg, to tinge may drop its nasal even in the causative (i e before a vowel), if it means to sport रङ्गयति raṅgayati (Pān VI 4 24 v) The same root like some others, drops its nasal before śāradhātuka affixes रङ्गति raṅgati, &c (Pān VI 4, 26) अञ्च् añch, if it means to worship, must retain its nasal (Pān VI 4 30) and take the intermediate इ : (Pān VII 2, 53) अञ्चित añchitaḥ worshipped, otherwise अक्त aktaḥ or अञ्चितः añchitaḥ, bent

‡ Or स्रगिता srasitaḥ

Terminations of the First Aorist.

ĀTMANEPAḌA.

इषं isham इष् ishca इष्म ishma इषि ish इष्महि ishcahi इषमहि ishmahi
 इः *ish इष्टे ishtam इष्ट ishṭa इष्टाः ishṭhā इषायां ishṭhām इभ्यं or इद्भ्यं ishcam or ishcam
 इष्ट ishṭ इष्टां ishṭām इषुः ishuh इष्ट ishṭa इषातां ishṭām इषते ishata

In this first set of terminations the intermediate इ i stands as part of the terminations, because all the verbs that take this form are verbs liable to take the intermediate इ i. The first and second forms of the First Aorist differ, in fact, by this only, that the former is peculiar to verbs which take, the latter to verbs which reject intermediate इ i. (See § 332, 4, note.)

2.

Second Form.

 सीत् si सां sām or sām सुः suḥ स sa or sa सातां sāthām सत sata

3.

Third Form.

There are some verbs which add स् s to the end of the root before taking the terminations of the Aorist, and which after this स् s, employ the usual terminations with इ i, viz. इषं isham, &c. They are conjugated in the Parasmaipada only.

Fourth Form.

Lastly, there are some few verbs, ending in अ a, ए ē, इ i, preceded by इ i, उ u, ऋ ṛ, which take the following terminations, without an intermediate इ i (kṣa).

Special Rules for the First Form of the First Aorist.

§ 348. For final vowel, Vṛddhi in Parasmaipada†. लृ lū, to cut, अलृषिषं alāṛiṣham (Pāṇ VII. 2, 1).

* For इषीः ish(i) and इषीत् ish(i)

† Except णि ṇi, to swell, अण्यपीत् aṇyapī; जागृ jāgru, to wake, अजागरोत् ajāgarōt (Pāṇ. VII. 2, 5) ऊर्गु ūrgu, to cover, may or may not take Vṛddhi; जीर्गुपीत् jīrgupī, or जीर्गुपीत् jīrgupī, or जीर्गुपीत् jīrgupī (Pāṇ VII. 2, 6)

§ 353 The roots मी mī (mīnāli), to destroy, मि mi (minoti), to throw, and दी dī, to destroy, change their final vowels into आ a in the Ātmanepada, and ली lī, to stick, does so optionally ली lī, अलासीत् alasiit (§ 358) or अलिषीत् alایشiit

§ 354 हन् han, to kill, drops its nasal in the Ātmanepada (Pan 1 2, 14), अहत् ahata, अहसात् ahasatam

§ 355 गम् gam, to go, drops its nasal in the Ātmanepada optionally (Pan 1 2, 13), अगत agata or अगस्त agamsta The same rule applies to the benedictive Ātmanepada, गसीष्ट gasishṭa or गसीष्ट gamsishṭa

§ 356 यम् yam drops its nasal, necessarily or optionally, according to its various meanings, उदयत् udayata, he divulged (Pan 1 2, 15), उपायत् upayata, he espoused or उपायस्त upayamsta (Pan 1 2, 16)

Special Rules for the Third Form of the First Aorist

§ 357 Most verbs taking this form of the Aorist end in आ ā, or in diphthongs which take आ ā as their substitute This आ a remains unchanged In the Ātmanepada these verbs take the Second Form

§ 358 The verbs मि mi, to throw, मी mī to destroy, and ली lī, to stick, if taking this form, change likewise their final vowels into आ ā Ex. अमासिष् amasisham, I threw, and I destroyed, अलासिष् alāsisham (or अलिषिष् alایشisham)

§ 359 Three roots ending in न् n take this form, यम् yam, to hold यम् ram, to rejoice, नम् nam, to bend, Aor अपसिष् ayamsisham, &c (Pan 1 2, 73)

Special Rules for the Fourth Form of the First Aorist

§ 360 The roots which take this form must end in श् ś (except दृश् drīś to see, Pan 1 1 47), श् śh, श् s, ह h, preceded by any vowel but आ, आ ā They must be verbs which reject the intermediate इ i § 332, 17-20, (Pan 1 1, 45) Their radical vowel remains unchanged

§ 361 The root श्लिष् śliśh takes this form only if it means to embrace (Pan 1 1, 46), अश्लिषत् aślikshat Other verbs, such as पुष् puśh and शुष् śuśh, are specially excepted (§ 366)

§ 362 The roots दुह् duh, to milk, दिह् dih to anoint, लिह् lih to lick गुह् guh, to hide (Pan 1 3, 73) may take in the Ātmanepada.

था thā instead of सथा sathā वहि val instead of सवहि sāvali
त ta — मत sata ध्व dhvam — सध्व sadhvam

They thus approach to the Second Form of the first aorist in most, yet not in all persons

Ex दुह् duh 2 p sing Ātm अदुग्धा adugdha or अधुक्षथा adhukshathā

3 p sing Ātm अदुग्धा adugdha or अधुक्षथा adhukshatā

SECOND AORIST

Second or Reduplicated Form

§ 370 A few primitive verbs, and the very numerous class of the Clitic roots, the denominatives and causatives in चय cy, reduplicate their base in the second aorist, taking the augment as before, and the usual terminations of the imperfect.

§ 371. The primitive verbs which take this form are चि śri, to go, द्रु dru, to run, मृ mṛ, to flow, चम km, to love (Pan III 1, 48), if expressing the agent; अशिचियत् ashicyat.

Optionally, चि śi, to grow, धे dhe, to suck (Pan III 1, 49), if expressing the agent, अदधत् adadhat, § 364 (or सधत् adhāt or सधामी adhāmi) Their reduplicative syllable, as far as consonants are concerned, is formed like that of the reduplicated perfect.

अशिचियत् ashicyat, he went अद्रुद्रुत् adudrurāt, he ran अमृमृत् amamurāt, he flowed अचमचमत् achakamat, he loved अदधत् adadhat, he sucked अशिचियत् ashicyat, he grew; also See Aor सधत् adhāt and First Aor सधामी adhāmi (Pan III 1, 49) धे dhe, to call, forms its Aor. Caus अमुहयत् ajuhayāt (Pan VI 1, 32)

§ 372 The verbs in चय ay drop चय ay, and (with certain exceptions*) reduce their Guna and Viddhi vowels to the simple base vowels आ a to अ a ए e to इ i ओ o to उ u, अर, आर ār, to अय ay ईर īr to अय ay

Thus मादयति madayati would become मद् mad, (Aor समीक्ष amsikṣam)

भेदयति bhedayati — — भिद् bhid, (Aor सविभ asabhiṣam)

मोदयति modayati — — मुद् mud (Aor समुद् amsamudam)

§ 373 In the exceptional roots, which do not admit this shortening process, आ a, ई i, ए e, ऐ ai, ऊ u, औ au are represented in the reduplicative syllable by अ a, इ i, ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, औ au

* These exceptional verbs are (Iap VII 4, 2)

Certain denominatives From माती matī a garland is formed the denominative मादयति madayati Red Aor समवातद् samavāt Caus मादयति madayati, he garlands Red Aor सजगामत् sajagamāt

आद् ād to oblige भाद् bād to shake भाद् bād to speak शीघ्र śīghra to hurry मोह moh to meet पीड pīḍ to vex अन्तर the vowel optional, य ई ī आद् ād सधयत् sadhayāt or सविधयत् sasadhayāt (§ 374)

† वेद् ved to surmount वेद्य vedya to move take et hoc &c. चय cy in the reduplicative syllable सवेद्यत् savedya or सविवेद्यत् sasavedya सोमद्य somady to Exhort takes इ i अशिमुत् ashimurāt

मालयति malayati, अममाल amamalam टीकयति tikayati, अटिटीक atitikam
 लोकयति lokayati, अलुलोक alulokam

§ 374 In the vast majority of roots, however, the shortening takes place, thus leaving bases with short अ a, इ i, उ u, अर् r. Here the tendency is to make the reduplicated base, with the augment, either उ-उ or उ-उ- . Hence all roots in which the shortened vowel is not long by position, lengthen the vowel of the reduplicative syllable (amāmudat). Those in which the vowel is long by position, leave the vowel of the reduplicative syllable short (ararakṣat).

Where, as in roots beginning with double consonants, the vowel of the reduplicative syllable is necessarily long by position, it is not changed into the long vowel (achuchyutat, not achūchyutat). In roots beginning and ending in two consonants, this metrical rhythm is necessarily broken (achakṣandat).

§ 375 In the roots which do not resist the shortening process,

अ a, इ i, उ u, अर् r are represented in the reduplicative syllable by अ a or इ i, उ u, इ i and all lengthened, where necessary

Thus अस् as forms the Caus असाय् asay This after throwing off अय् ay, and lastly, with augment and termination, असास् as as am

§ 380 In the preceding §§ occasional rules have been given as to the particular forms of the aorist which certain verbs or classes of verbs adopt. As in Greek, so in Sanskrit, too, practice only can effectually teach which forms do actually occur of each verb, and the rules of grammarians,

* Radical अ a is reinflected by अ a if the root ends in a double consonant however minute and complicated, are not unfrequently contradicted by the usage of Sanskrit authors.

However, the general rule is that verbs follow the first aorist, unless this is specially prohibited, and that they take the first form of the first aorist, unless they are barred by general rules from the employment of the intermediate इ i. Verbs, thus barred, take the second form of the first aorist.

The number of verbs which take the third form of the first aorist is very limited, three roots ending in म् m, and roots ending in च् च i.

The fourth form of the first aorist is likewise of very limited use; see § 360.

As to the second aorist, the roots which must or may follow it are indicated in § 367, and so are the roots which take the reduplicated form of the second aorist in § 371.

Roots which follow the second aorist optionally, or in the Parasmaipada only, are allowed to be conjugated in the first aorist, subject to the general rules.

§ 382. The changes which the base undergoes before the terminations of the strengthening tenses, the two futures, the conditional, and the benedictive Ātm are regulated by one general principle, that of giving weight to the base, though their application varies according to the peculiarities of certain verbs. See illustrations in § 344 (bhaviṣhyāmi) and § 345 (mārṣhyāmi). These peculiarities must be learnt by practice, but a few general rules may here be repeated

- 1 Final ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o are changed to एत ā, ने gai, to sing, गास्यामि gāsyāmi, &c
- 2 Final इ i and ई ī, उ u, ऊ ū, ऋ rī and ॠ rī, take Guna, जि ji, to conquer, जेष्यामि jeshyāmi, भू bhū, भविष्यामि bhaviṣhyāmi कृ kṛ, करिष्यामि karishyāmi दृ dṛ, to tear, दरिष्यामि darishyāmi or दरोष्यामि darishyāmi There are the usual exceptions, कृ kṛ, to sound, कुविष्यामि kuviṣhyāmi (§ 345, note)

Benedictive

§ 385 The so called benedictive is formed in close analogy to the optative. It differs from the optative by not admitting the full modified verbal base, and, secondly, by the insertion of an स् before the personal terminations. In the Parasmaipada this स् stands between the या yā of the optative and the actual signs of the persons, being lost, however, in the 2nd and 3rd pers sing. Thus, instead of

Opt	या, या, यात्, याव	यात, याता, याम	यात्, यु,
	yām yāh yāt yāva	yātam yātām yāma	yāt a yuh we have
Den	यास, या, यात्, यास्व, यास्त	यासा, यास्म, यास्त, यातु
	yāsam yāh yāt yāsva yāstām	yāstām yāsmā yāstā yāstuh

These two sets of terminations stand to each other in the same relation as the terminations of the imperfect and those of the first aorist II. याम yusāh and यास्त yusāt are contracted to या yāh and यात् yāt, like the 2nd and 3rd pers sing of the first aorist I. इषी ishīh to ई ih, इषीत् ishīh to ईत् it, or like the सी sīh and सीत् sīt of the first aorist II, which really stand for स् + स् + s and स् + त् + t.

In the Ātmanepada the स् stands before the terminations of the optative e.g. सीय sīya instead of ईय īya. Besides this, the personal terminations originally beginning with त् t or त् h take an additional स् (Remark that the स् before these terminations is liable to be dropt after a short vowel in the first aorist, § 351). Thus, instead of

Opt	ईय, ईषा, ईत	ईवहि	ईसाया, ईयाता	ईमहि, ईध्व, ईरन्
	īya īhāh īta	īvāhi	īyāthām īyātām	īmāhi īdhvam īran we have
Ben	सीय सीष्टा, सीष्ट, सीवहि, सीयास्या, सीयास्ता	सीमहि, सीध्व	सीरन्
	sīya sīstīhāh sīstīhā, sīpahī sīyāstīhām sīyāstām	sīmāhi sīdhvam	sīran

§ 386 Verbal bases ending in अय ay (Chur, Caus Denom &c.) drop अय ay before the terminations of the benedictive Par चोरय choray, Ben चोरयाम choryasam but in Ātm चोरयिषीय chorayishīya Denominative bases in य y drop य y in the Ben Par पुत्रीय putrīy, Ben पुत्रीयाम putrīyasam but in Ātm पुत्रीयिषीय putrīyishīya.

§ 387 The benedictive Parasmaipada belongs to the weakening, the benedictive Ātmanepada to the strengthening forms (§ 344) Hence from चित् chit, Par चित्वास chityasam, Ātm चेतिसीय chetishīya

§ 388 The benedictive Parasmaipada never takes intermediate इः The benedictive Ātmanepada generally takes intermediate इः Exceptions are provided for by the rules §§ 331 seq

Weakening of the Base before Terminations beginning with य्

§ 389 Some of the rules regulating the weakening of the base, which is required in the benedictive Parasmaipada, may here be stated together with the rules that apply to the weakening of the base in the passive and intensive

§ 390 While, generally speaking the terminations of the benedictive, passive, and intensive exercise a weakening influence on the verbal base, there is one important, though only apparent, exception to this rule with regard to verbs ending in इः, उः, च्चः Final इः and उः, before the य् of the terminations of benedictive, passive, and intensive, are lengthened (Pan VII 4, 25), but not strengthened by Guna

चिच् chi, to gather, Ben चीयात् chiyat Pass चीयते chīyate Int. चेचीयते chechīyate Final च्चः is changed, to चिः (Pan VII 4, 28)

कृः kr, to do, Ben क्रियात् kriyat Pass क्रियते kriyate (The Intensive has चेक्रीयते chekriyate, Pan VII 4, 27)

In roots, however, beginning with conjunct consonants, final च्चः is actually strengthened by Guna, and appears as चर ar (Pan VII 4, 29)

स्मृ smri, to remember, Ben स्मर्यात् smaryat Pass स्मर्यते smaryate, Int स्मस्मर्यते asmarmaryate

Also in च्चः, to go, Ben अर्यात् aryat Pass अर्यते aryate Int अरार्यते araryate Final च्चः is changed to ईर ir, and, after labials, to ऊर् ūr

स्तृ stir, to stretch, Ben स्तोर्यात् sturyāt Pass स्तोर्यते stiryate Int तेस्तोर्यते testīryate

पृ pri, to fill, Ben पूर्यात् puryat Pass पूर्यते pūryate Int पोपूर्यते popūryate Exceptions शी śi is changed to शय् śay

शी śi, to lie down, (Ben शय्यात् śayyat does not occur, because the verb is Ātmanepadin), Pass शय्यते śayyate Int शशय्यते śasayyate (Pan VII 4, 22)

इः after prepositions, does not lengthen the final इः in the benedictive

इः, to go, Ben ईयात् īyat but समियात् samiyāt (Pan VII 4, 24)

उह् ūh, to understand, after prepositions, is shortened to उह् ūh (Pan VII 4, 23)

Ben ऊह्यात् ūhyat Pass ऊह्यते ūhyate

Ben समुह्यात् samuhyat Pass समुह्यते samuhyate

§ 391 The following roots may or may not drop their final न् n, and then lengthen the preceding vowel (Pan VI 4, 43)

जन् jan, to beget, Ben जायात् jayat or जन्यात् janyat Pass जायते jayate or जन्यते janyate Int जाजायते jjayate or जनन्यते janyanyate

सन् san, to obtain; Ben. सायात् sáyāt or सन्यात् sanyāt; Pass. सायते sáyate or सन्यते sanyate; Int. सामायते sásáyate or संसन्यते samsanyate.

खन् khan, to dig; Ben. खायात् kháyāt or खन्यात् khanyāt; Pass. खायते kháyate or खन्यते khanyate; Int. चाखायते chákháyate or चंखन्यते chankhanyate.

In the passive only, तन् tan, to stretch; Ben. तन्यात् tanyāt; Pass. तायते táyate or तन्यते tanyate; Int. तंतन्यते tantanyate.

§ 392. According to a general rule, roots ending in ऐ ai and औ o change their final diphthong in the general tenses into खाँ á · ध्ये dhyai, ध्यायते dhyáyate. Roots ending in छा d retain it: पा pá, पायते páyate, he is protected. But the following roots change their final vowel into ई i in the passive and intensive; into ए e in the benedictive Par.; and keep it unchanged before gerundial य ya. (Pân. vi. 4, 66, 67, 69.)

The six verbs called पु *ghu, and the following verbs:

	Passive.	Intensive	Benedictive†.	Gerund.

§ 393. The following verbs take Samprasāraṇa in the benedictive (Pân. iii. 4, 104), passive, participle, and gerund. (Pân. vi. 1, 15.)

वच् ach, to speak; स्वप् śap†, to sleep; वञ्च् aś (Pân vi. 1, 20), to wish; and the यजादि yajādi, i. e. those following यज् yaj.

Ben. उच्यात् uchyāt; Pass. उच्यते uchyate, Part. उक्ता uktaḥ; Ger. उक्त्वा uktvā.

The यजादि are, (23, 33-41) यज् yaj, to sacrifice; वप् ap, to sow; वह् ah, to carry; वस् as, to dwell; वे ie, to weave; क्वे ie||, to cover; ह्वे hre||, to call; वद् vad, to speak; श्वि śvi||, to grow.

* This term comprises the six roots दुदाच्, दाण्, दी, देद्, दुधाच्, and धेद्, all varieties of the radicals दा dā and धा dhā, but not दाप् and धेप्, i. e. दाति dāti, he cuts, and दापति dāyati, he cleans (Pân i. 1, 20) Hence दीयते dīyate, it is given, but दायते dāyate, it is cleaned.

† In other roots, ending in छा d or diphthongs, and beginning with more than one consonant, the change into ए e in the benedictive Par. is optional (Pân vi. 4, 68). ग्लि glai, to wither, ग्लेयात् gleyāt or ग्लयात् glāyāt. स्वा khyā, to call, स्वायात् khyāyāt or स्वैयात् khyeyāt.

‡ साप् śāp, to send to sleep, takes Samprasāraṇa in the reduplicated aorist (Pân vi. 1, 18) शम्भुषत् śm̐bhushat.

§ स्वप् śap, to sleep, स्यम् syam, to sound, and म्ये rye, take Samprasāraṇa in the intensive also (Pân vi. 1, 19); सोष्यते soshupyate, सेसिम्यते sesimpyate, चेपीयते cepiyate. श्वि śvi takes Samprasāraṇa optionally in the intensive (Pân vi. 1, 30); श्रोत्रयते śroṭrayate or श्रोत्रीयते śroṭriyate. ह्वे hre forms Int. जोहूयते johūyate (Pân vi. 1, 23) In the intensive चाप् chāy forms चेकीयते chekīyate (Pân vi. 1, 21), प्याप् pyāy, चेपीयते cepiyate (Pân. vi. 1, 29).

§ 394 The following verbs take Samprasārana in the benedictive, passive, participle, gerund, and intensive (Pāṇ vi 1, 16)

ग्रह् grah, to take, ज्या jya, to fail, व्यध् vyadh, to pierce, व्यच्छ् vyacch, to surround, व्रश् vrash, to cut, प्रश् prash to ask, भृश् bhray, to fry
ग्रह् grah Ben. गृह्यात् grihyat, Pass गृह्यते grihyate, Part गृहीत grihitah, Ger गृहीत्वा grihitva, Int जरीगृह्यते jarigrihyate

§ 395 शास् śas, to rule, substitutes शिष् śish in the benedictive, passive, participle, gerund, intensive, also in the second aorist. (Pāṇ vi 4, 34)

Ben शिष्यात् śishyāt, Pass शिष्यते śishyate, Part शिष्ट śishṭah, Ger शिष्ट्वा śishṭva Aor अशिषत् aśishat

§ 396 With regard to the benedictive Ātm see the general rules as to the strengthening of the base, § 344 Remember, that if the benedictive Ātm. does not take intermediate इ १, penultimate इ १, उ ५, च् १ are left unchanged, whereas in other strengthening tenses they take Guna (§ 344) Final च् १, too, remains unchanged, and च् १ becomes ईर fr, or, after labials, ऊर् ūr क्षिप् kship, to throw, क्षिप्सीय kshippsīya, पू prī, to fill, पूर्य pūrshīya

CHAPTER XV

PASSIVE

§ 397 The passive takes the terminations of the Ātmanepada

Special Tenses of the Passive

§ 398 The present, imperfect, optative, and imperative of the passive are formed by adding य ya to the root This य ya is added in the same manner as it is in the Div verbs, so that the Ātmanepada of Div verbs is in all respects (except in the accent) identical with the passive

Ātm नश्यते nāhyate, he binds, Pass नश्यते nahyate, he is bound

§ 399 Bases in च् य ay (Chur, Caus Denom &c) drop च् य ay before य ya of the passive

बोधय् bodhay, to make one know, बोध्यते bodh-yate, he is made to know

चोरय् choray, to steal, चोर्यते chor-yate, he is stolen

Intensive bases ending in y y retain their y y, to which the y ya of the passive is added without any intermediate vowel

लोलूप loldy, to cut much, लोलुप्यते loldyyate, he is cut much

Intensive bases ending in y y, preceded by a consonant, drop their y y

वेभिद्य bebhidy, to sever, वेभिद्यते bebhidyate, it is severed

दीर्घो didhī, to shune, वेर्वी vevī, to yearn, दरिद्रा daridrā, to be poor, drop their final vowel, as usual

दीर्घो didhī, दीप्यते didhyate, it is lightened, १ e it lightens

§ 400 As to the weakening of the base, see the rules given for the benedictive, §§ 389 seq

General Tenses of the Passive

§ 401 In the general tenses of the passive, y ya is dropt, so that, with certain exceptions to be mentioned hereafter, there is no distinction between the general tenses of the passive and those of the Ātmanepada. The y ya of the passive is treated, in fact, like one of the conjugtional class marks (vikaranas), which are retained in the special tenses only, and it differs thereby from the derivative syllables of causative, desiderative, and intensive verbs, which, with certain exceptions, remain throughout both in the special and in the general tenses

Reduplicated Perfect

The reduplicated perfect is the same as in the Ātmanepada

Periphrastic Perfect

The periphrastic perfect is the same as in the Ātmanepada, but the auxiliary verbs अस् as and भू bhū must be conjugated in the Ātmanepada, as well as कृ kr: (§ 342)

§ 407 The following are a few irregular formations of the 3rd pers sing aorist passive

- रम् rabh, to desire, forms अरामि arambhi (Pan VII 1, 63) See § 345 †
 रम् radh, to kill, — अरधि arandhi (Pan VII 1, 61)
 जम् jabh, to yawn — अजभि ajambhi (Pan VII 1, 61)
 भञ् bhary, to break, — अभनि abharji or अभानि abhaji (Pan VI 4, 33)
 लम् labh, to take, — अलभि alambhi or अलामि alubhi (Pan VII 1, 69)

With prepositions लम् labh always forms अलभि alambhi

- जन् jan, to beget, — जननि yanu (Pan VII 3 35)
 धप् badh, to strike, — अधपि abudhi (Pan VII 3, 35)

§ 408 Roots ending in अम् am, which admit of intermediate इ १, do not lengthen their radical vowel (Pan VII 3 34)

शम् śam, अशमि aśami तम् tam, अतमि atami but यम् yam, अयामि ayami
 Pāṇini excepts आचम् acham, to rinse, which forms आचामि uchami Others add कम् kam, वम् lam, नम् nam (Pan VII 3 34, v)

§ 409 Thus the paradigms given in the Ātmanepada may be used in the passive of the aorist, with the exception of the 3rd pers sing (See p 183)

अलविषि alaviṣi	अलविष्प्रहि alaviṣpahi	अलविष्महि alaviṣmahī
अलविष्ठा alaviṣṭhā	अलविष्ठाणो alaviṣṭhāṇo	अलविष्म or °दु alaviṣṭham or dham
अलावि alavi	अलविषाता alaviṣṭātā	अलविषत alaviṣata

The Two Futures, the Conditional, and the Benedictive Passive

§ 410 These formations are identically the same in the passive as in the Ātmanepada Hence

- Fut बोधिष्ये bodhiṣhye I shall be known
 Cond अबोधिष्ये abodhiṣhye, I should be known
 Periphr Fut बोधिताह bodhitāhe, I shall be known
 Bened बोधिषीय bodhiṣīya, May I be known †

Secondary Form of the Aorist, the Two Futures, the Conditional, and Benedictive of Verbs ending in Vowels

§ 411 All verbs ending in vowels in अय् ay, and likewise हन् han to strike, दृश् dris to see, ग्रह् grah, to take, may form a secondary base (really denominative), being identical with the peculiar third person singular of the aorist passive, described before Thus from लु lu we have अलावि alavi, and from this, by treating the final इ १ as the intermediate इ १, we form,

CHAPTER XVI

PARTICIPLES, GERUNDS, AND INFINITIVE

§ 414 The participle of the present Parasmaipada retains the Vikarapas of the ten classes It is most easily formed by taking the 3rd pers plur of the present, and dropping the final इ This gives us the Anga base, from which the Pada and Bha base can be easily deduced according to general rules (§ 182) Thus

भवति	भवत्	Nom S भवन्	Acc भवत	Instr भवता &c

§ 416. The participle of the reduplicated perfect may best be formed by taking the 3rd pers plur of that tense. This corresponds with the Bha base of the participle, only that the स् s, as it is always followed by a vowel, is changed to ष् sh. Having the Bha base, it is easy to form the Anga and Pada bases, according to § 204. In forming the Anga and Pada bases, it must be remembered,

1. That roots ending in a vowel, restore that vowel, which, before उः uḥ, had been naturally changed into a semivowel
2. That, according to the rules on intermediate इ i, all verbs which, without counting the उः uḥ, are monosyllabic in the 3rd pers. plur., insert इ i.
(See Necessary इ i, § 338, 1; Optional इ i, § 337, 8.)

The Past Participle Passive in त ta and the Gerund in त्वा tvā

§ 422 The past participle passive is formed by adding त ta or न nah to the root कृ kr, कृत krīta done, masc., कृता krīta, fem., कृतं krītam, neut लृ lū, लून lūnaḥ, cut

This termination त ta is, as we saw, most opposed to the insertion of intermediate इ: so much so that verbs which may form any one general tense with or without इ: always form their past participle without it. The number of verbs which must invert इ: before त ta is very small (§ 332, D)

Besides being averse to the insertion of intermediate इ:, the participial termination त ta is one of those which have a tendency to weaken verbal bases (See § 344)

§ 423 The gerund of simple verbs is formed by adding त्वा tvā to the root कृ kr, कृत्वा krītvā, having done पृथ pṛth पृत्वा pṛtvā or पयित्वा payitvā, having purified.

The rules as to the insertion of the intermediate इ: before त ta have been given before. With regard to the strengthening or weakening of the base, the general rule is that त्वा tvā without intermediate इ : weakens, with intermediate इ : strengthens the root. In giving a few more special rules on this point, it will be convenient to take the term actions त ta and त्वा tvā together, as they agree to a great extent, though not altogether.

I त tah and त्वा tvā, with intermediate इ :

§ 424 If त tah takes intermediate इ :, it may in certain verbs produce Guna. In this case the Guna before त्वा tvā is regular.

जी śī, to lie down, शयित śayitah (Pan 1 2, 19), शयित्वा śayitva
 स्विद् sviḍ, to sweat, स्वेदित sveditah or स्विद्य svindyah स्वेदित्वा sveditva
 मिद् miḍ, to be soft, मेदित meditah मेदित्वा meditva
 क्षिद् kṣiḍ, to drip, क्षेदित kṣheditah क्षेदित्वा kṣheditva
 धृप् dhriṣ, to dare, धर्षित dharṣitah धर्षित्वा dharṣitva
 मृप् mriṣ, to bear, मर्षित marṣitah (patient), (Pan 1 2, 20), मर्षित्वा marṣitva, पूप् pū, to purify, पवित paṇitah (Pan 1 2, 22), पवित्वा paṇitva.

§ 425 Verbs with penultimate उ u may or may not take Guna before त ta with intermediate इ :, if they are used impersonally.

द्युत् dyut, to shine, द्युतित dyutitam or द्योतित dyotitam, it has been shining (Pan 1 2 21)

§ 426 If त्वा tvā takes intermediate इ :, it requires as a general rule, Guna (Pan 1 2, 18), or at all events does not produce any weakening of the base. वृत् rit, to exist, वर्तित्वा vartitva स्रस् sraṇs, to fall, स्रमित्वा sramitva (Pan 1 2, 23) पूप् pu, to purify, पवित्वा paṇitva (Pan 1 2, 22)

Verbs, however, beginning with consonants, and ending in any single consonant except य y or व v, preceded by इ, ई or उ, ऊ, take Guna optionally (Pan 1 2, 26) द्युत् dyut, to shine, द्योतित्वा dyotitva or द्युतित्वा dyutitva. The same option applies to तृप् trish, to thirst, मृप् mriṣ, to bear, कृप् kriṣ, to attenuate (Pan 1 2, 25), तृषित्वा trishitva or तर्षित्वा tarṣitva.

§ 427 Though taking intermediate इ :, त्वा tvā does not produce Guna, but, if possible, weakens the base, in रुद् rud, to cry, रुदित्वा ruditva (Pan 1 2, 8), विद् vid, to know, विदित्वा viditva मृप् mriṣ to steal, मृषित्वा mriṣitva, ग्रह् grah to take, गृहीत्वा grāhitva मृद् mriḍ, to delight, मृदित्वा mriḍitva, 2, 7), मृद् mriḍ, to rub, मृदित्वा mriḍitva गुप् guh, to draw, गुपित्वा guhita, क्रिप् kriṣ to hurt, क्रिशित्वा kriṣitva यत् ad to speak, उदित्वा uditva वस vaṣ, to dwell, वषित्वा uṣitva.

§ 428 Roots ending in च th or प् ph, preceded by a nasal, may or may not drop the nasal before त्वा tvā (Pan 1 2 23), ग्रथित्वा granthitva or ग्रथित्वा granthitva, having twisted. The same applies to the roots च ch, to pluck and लुच् luṇch, to pluck (Pan 1 2 24) चित्वा caḥitva or चित्वा caḥitva.

§ 429 Roots ending in nasals lengthen their vowel before त्ता taḥ and त्वा trā (Pan. vi. 4, 15) शम् śam, to rest, शात śāntaḥ, शात्वा śāntva

क्रम् kram, to step, may or may not lengthen its vowel before त्वा trā (Pan. vi. 4, 18) क्रम् kram, क्रात krāntaḥ, क्रात्वा krantra or क्त्वा krantra also क्रमित्वा kramitrā

§ 430 The following roots, ending in nasals drop them before त्ता taḥ and त्वा trā (Pan. vi. 4, 37)

Note—Of the same verbs those ending in न् n drop the nasal before the gerundial य्य ya and insert त् t प्रमत्त pramatta (Pan. vi. 4, 38) those ending in म् m may or may not drop the nasal before the gerundial य्य ya प्रमत्त pramatta or प्रमत्त्य pramattya

§ 431 The following verbs drop final न् n, and lengthen the vowel

But स्कन्द् skand, to stride, forms its gerund स्कन्त्वा skantū, and स्कन्द् syand, to flow, स्कन्त्वा syantū (Pāṇ. vi. 4. 31), although their न् n is otherwise liable to be lost. Part. स्कन्नः skannah, स्कन्वः syannah.

नश् naś, to perish, and roots ending in न् j, otherwise liable to nasalization, retain the nasal optionally before त्वा trū (Pāṇ. vi. 4. 32). नष्टा naṁśtrū or नष्टा nashtrū (but only नष्टः nashtah); रक्ता rahktrū or रक्ता raktrū (but only रक्तः rahtah); मज्ज् majj, to dive, मंक्ता maṁktrū or मक्ता maktrū (Pāṇ. vii. 1. 60).

§ 441. Intensive verbs Ātm. of roots ending in vowels form the participle and gerund regularly; चेक्रीयते chekriyate, चेक्रीयितः chekriyitah, चेक्रीयित्वा chekriyitū. After roots ending in consonants the intensive य् y is dropped; बेभिद्यते bebhidiate, बेभिदितः bebhiditah, बेभिदित्वा bebhiditū.

§ 442. Certain verbs take नः nah instead of तः tah in the past participle 'passive, provided they do not take the intermediate इ.

* After prepositions ending in vowels, द da may be dropped, and the final इ i and उ u of a preposition lengthened मदत्तः madattah, प्रदत्तः prattah, सुदत्तः sudattah, मृदः mṛdah.

- 1 Twenty one verbs of the Kri class, beginning with कृ li, to cut, कृ li nah (Dhatupāṭha 31, 13, Pan VIII 2, 44) The most important are, धून dhūnah, shaken, जिन jīnah, decayed Some of them come under the next rule

- 6 Verbs beginning with a double consonant, one of them being a semivowel, and ending in या u, or द e, रे as यो o changeable to या ā ग्लाय glai, ग्लाय glīnah faded I except धिय diyas to meditate, धित dhitaḥ म्या li, to proclaim, म्या khyatāḥ In त्रय trai, to protect, म्र गृह्य gṛh, to smell the substitution is optional, त्राय trīnah or त्राय trītaḥ (Pan VIII 2, 6)

§ 444 By all the persons a new participle (6th) to the participles in कृ li & न nah, a new participle of very common occurrence is formed, being in fact a participial perfect active It is कृत kṛitāḥ & ने becomes कृत kṛitāḥ, one who has done, & is generally used as a dative to verb कृत kṛitāḥ in कृत kṛitāḥ to do is the first or in कृत kṛitāḥ to

कृतपतो sā kṛitavatī, and in the neuter तत्कृतपत tat kṛitavat They are regularly declined throughout like adjectives in वत् vat

Gerund in य ya

§ 445 Compound verbs, but not verbs preceded by the negative particle अ a, take य ya instead of त्वा tvā Thus, instead of भूत्वा bhūtvā, we find सम्भूय sambhūya but जित्वा ajitva, not having conquered

§ 446 Verbs ending in a short vowel take त्य tyā instead of य ya जि ji, to 'conquer, जित्वा jitvā, having conquered, but विजित vijitya भृ bhri, to carry, भूत्वा bhūtvā, but सम्भृत्य sambhṛitya, having collected Except क्षि kṣhi, which forms प्रक्षीय prakṣhiya, having destroyed (Pan vi 4, 59)

§ 447 Causative bases with short penultimate vowel, keep the causative suffix अय ay before य ya (Pan vi 4, 56) गमयति gamayati, गमय्य gamayya, having caused to go Otherwise the causative suffix is, as usual, dropt तारयति tarayati, प्रतारये pratārya, having caused to advance प्रापयति prāpayati forms प्राप्य prāpya and प्रापय्य prāpayya, having caused to reach (Pan vi 4, 57)

§ 450 Verbs ending in च् ri change it to ईर īr, and, after labials, into ऊर ūr Ex वितरीच्य vitīrya, having crossed, सम्पूर्य sampūrya, having filled

§ 451 Certain verbs are irregular in not taking Samprasārana Thus वे ve, to weave, forms प्रवाप्य pratāya ज्या jyā, to fail, उपज्याय upajyāya, ये tye, to cover, प्रव्याप्य pravyāya, but after परि pari optionally परिव्याप्य parivyāya or परिपीय paripiya (Pan vi 1, 41-44)

§ 452 Some verbs change final इ i and ई ī into वा d Thus मी mī, मीनाति mināti, he destroys, and मि mi, मिनोति minoti, he throws, form निमय namaya, दी dī, to destroy, उपदाय upadaya, ली li, to melt, optionally विलाय vilaya or विलीय vilīya (Pan vi 1, 50-51)

CHAPTER XVII.

VERBAL ADJECTIVES.

Verbal Adjectives in क्तव्यः kṛtyah, कर्त्तव्यः kṛtyah, or यः yah.

§ 453. These verbal adjectives (called Kṛitya) correspond in meaning to the Latin participles in ndus, conveying the idea that the action expressed by the verbs ought to be done or will be done. कर्त्तव्यः kṛtavyah, कर्त्तव्यः kārtavyah, कर्त्तव्यः *kūryah*¹, faciendus. इत्. धर्मस्य वा कर्त्तव्यः dharmaś trayā kṛtavyah, right is to be done by thee.

§ 454. In order to form the adjective in क्तव्यः kṛtyah, take the periphrastic future, and instead of ता tā put क्तव्यः kṛtyah.

Thus दा dā , to give	दाता dātā	दातव्यः dātavyah	दातव्यः dātavyah	देयः deyah
ग gā , to sing	गाता gātā	गातव्यः gātavyah	गातव्यः gātavyah	गयः gayah
जि ji , to conquer	जेता jētā	जेतव्यः jētavyah	जयनीयः jayaniyah	जयः jayah
भू bhū , to be	भविता bhavitā	भविष्यः bhaviṣyā	भविष्यः bhaviṣyā	भव्यः or भव्यः ²
कृ kṛ , to do	कर्त्ता kartā	कर्त्तव्यः kṛtavyah	कर्त्तव्यः kārtavyah	कर्त्तव्यः kūryah
जृ jṛ , to grow old	जरितार jaritār	जरितव्यः or जरीतव्यः ³	जरणीयः jaraniyah	जार्ज्यः jarjyah
क्षि kṣi , to be	क्षेदिता kṣeditā	क्षेदितव्यः	क्षेदनीयः	क्षेपः
अ ā , to know	क्षेदित kṣedit	क्षेदितव्यः	क्षेदितव्यः	क्षेपः
बु bu , to know	बोधिता bodhitā	बोधितव्यः bodhitavyah	बोधिनीयः bodhinayah	बोध्यः bodhyah
कु ku , to draw	कर्त्ता or कर्त्ता ⁴	कर्त्तव्यः or कर्त्तव्यः ⁴	कर्त्तव्यः kārtavyah	कर्त्तव्यः kūryah
कु ku , to know	कुचिता kucitā	कुचितव्यः kucitavyah	कुचनीयः kuchaniyah	कुच्यः kucyah
मि mi , to make	मन्त्रा mantrā	मन्त्रव्यः mantravyah	मन्त्रनीयः mantraniyah	मन्त्र्यः mantryah
ग gā , to go	गन्ता gantā	गन्तव्यः gantavyah	गन्तनीयः gantaniyah	गन्तव्यः gamyah
दृ dṛ , to see	दृष्टा dṛṣṭā	दृष्टव्यः dṛṣṭavyah	दृष्टनीयः dṛṣṭaniyah	दृष्टव्यः dṛsyah

§ 455. In order to form the adjective in अनीयः anīyah, it is generally sufficient to take the root as it appears before तयः taryah, omitting, however, intermediate इ i, and putting अनीयः anīyah instead. Guna-vowels before अनीयः anīyah have, of course, the semivowel for their final element, and there can be no occasion for the intermediate इ i. The अय ay of the causative and the य y after consonants of intensives and other derivative verbs are, as usual, rejected. बुध् budh, बोधयति bodhayati, बोधनीयः bodhanīyah; भिद् bhid, बेभिद्यते bebbhidyate, बेभिदनीयः bebbhidanīyah.

§ 456. In order to form the adjective in यः yah, it is generally sufficient to take the adjective in अनीयः anīyah and to cut off अनी anī. Thus भवनीयः bhav-anī-yah becomes भयः bhayah; चेतनीयः chet-anī-yah, चेतः chetyah; ययनीयः yay-anī-yah, येयः ʼeyah; बोधनीयः bodh-anī-yah, बोध्यः bodhyah. A few more special rules, however, have here to be mentioned :

1. Final आ a, ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, become ए e दा dā, to give, देयः deyah; गै gai, to sing, नेयः geyah. (Pân. III. 1, 98; VI. 4, 65.)
2. Final इ i and ई ī take Guna, as before अनीयः anīya, जि ji, जेयः jeyah, to be conquered, different from जयः jayyah, conquerable; क्षि kṣhi, to destroy, क्षेयः kṣheyah, different from क्षयः kṣhayyah, destructible (Pân. VI. 1, 81). Final उ u and ऊ ū, under the same circumstances, are changed to अव av, or, after अवश्य avasīya, when a high degree of necessity is expressed, to अव् av, भयः bhayah or अवश्यभावः avasīya-bhāyah; विप्रेण शुचिना भाष्यं vipreṇa śuchinā bhāṣyam, a Brâhman must be pure. Final ऊ ū if it appears as उव् uv before अनीयः anīya, appears as ऊ ū before य ya, गू gū, to sound, गुनीयः gūanīya, गूयः gūya.
3. Final रि ri and रि ri before यः yah, but not before अनीयः anīyah, take Vṛiddhi instead of Guna. कार्यः kāryah; पार्यः pāryah. (Pân. III. 1, 120, 124.)
4. Penultimate रि ri, which takes Guna before अनीयः anīyah, does not take Guna before यः yah, with few exceptions; दृढ् dṛidh, दृढ्यः dṛidhyah; द्रव् drav, द्रव्यः dravyah (Pân. III. 1, 110). But कृप् kṛip, to do, forms कल्प्यः kalpyah; वृष् vrish, to sprinkle, वृष्यः vrishyah or वर्ष्यः tarshyah (Pân. III. 1, 120). Penultimate रि ri becomes ईr; कृत् kṛit, कीर्तः kīrtiyah.
5. Penultimate इ i and उ u take Guna before यः yah, as before अनीयः anīyah, विद् vid, वेद्यः vedyah; शुष् śuṣh, शोष्यः śoṣhyah.
6. Penultimate अ a, prosodically short, before यः yah, but not before अनीयः anīyah, is lengthened, unless the final consonant is a labial (Pân. III. 1, 98; 124); हस् has, to laugh, हस्यः hāsya, रह rah, रायः rāhya. But शप् śap, to curse, शप्यः śapyah. लभ labh, लभ्यः labhyah. The अ a remains likewise short in शक्यः śakyah, from शक् śak, to be able; in

सहः sahyah, from सह् sah, to bear (Pân III 1, 99), and some other verbs* यत् khân forms खेयः kheyah (Pân. III 1, 111), which, however, may be derived from खै khai, to dig, हन् han, यध् adhyah or पाठः ghâtayah

§ 457 The following are a few derivatives in यः yah, formed against the general rules

गुप् gup, to protect, may form गुप्यः gupyah, गुह् guh, to hide, गुह्यः guhyyah, जुष् jush, to cherish, जुष्यः jushyah, ग्रह् grah, to take, गृह्यः grihyah, after प्रति prati and अपि api, वद् ad, to speak, उद्यः udyah, in composition (Pân III 1, 106, 114 ब्रह्मोद्या कथा brahmodya kathâ, a story told by a Brâhman), भू bhû, to be, भूय bhûya, in composition (Pân III 1, 107 ब्रह्मभूय गतः brahmabhûyam gatah, arrived at Brahmahood), शास् śās, to rule, शिष्यः śishyah, pupil

We find त् t inserted before यः yah, in analogy to the gerunds in य ya, in the following verbs

इ, to go, इत्यः ityah, स्तु stu, to praise, स्तुत्यः stutyah, वृत् vr, to choose, वृत्त्यः vrityah दृ dri, to regard, दृत्यः drityah, भृ bhri, to bear, भृत्यः bhrityah, कृ kri, to do, कृत्यः krityah But many of these forms are only used in certain senses, and must not be considered as supplanting the regular verbal adjectives Thus गुह्यः guhyyah and गोह्यः gohyyah both occur, दुह्य duhyah and दोह्य dohyyah, &c

§ 458 Verbs ending in च् ch or ज् j change their final consonant into क् k or ग् g if the following य ya (nyat) requires the lengthening of the vowel यच् pach, पाक्य pakyam, भुञ् bhuj, to enjoy, भोग्य bhogyam, but भोज्य bhojyam, what is to be eaten (Pân VII 3, 69)

There are, however, several exceptions Verbs beginning with a guttural do not admit the substitution of gutturals. Likewise the following verbs: यज् yaj, याच् yâch, रुच् ruch, प्रवच् pravâch, वृच् rich, सन् tyaj, पूज् pûj, अज् aj, व्रज् vraj, वय् vanch (to go) Thus याज्य yâjyam, याच्य yâchyam, रोच्य rochyam, प्रवाच्य pravachyam, अर्च्य archyam, राज्य tyâjyam, पूज्य pûjyam (Prakriyâ-Kaumudî, p 55 b).

Infinitive in तु tum

§ 459 The infinitive is formed by adding तु tum The base has the same form as before the त् ta of the periphrastic future, or before the त्व्य latyah of the verbal adjective बुद् buddh, बोधितु bodhitum (See § 454) Ex. कृष्णं द्रष्टुं krîṣṇam drashṭum trayati, he goes to see Kṛishṇa, भोक्तुं कालः bhoktum kâlah, it is time to eat.

* Pânini (III 1, 100) mentions only गद् ga / गद् mad, चरच् char, यम् yam if used without preposition The Sârasvatî (III 7, 7) includes among the Sakâdi verbs, शक् śak, सह् sah, गद् gad गद् mad चरच् char, यम् yam, लक् lak, शस् śas चतच् chat, यत् yat पत् pat भन् jan, हन् han (यच् radh) शल् śal रुच् ruch

Verbal Adverb

§ 460 By means of the suffix am, which, as a general rule, is added to that form which the verb assumes before the passive इः (3rd pers sing aor pass, § 403), a verbal adverb is formed. From भुञ् bhuj, to eat, भोज bhojam, from पा pa, to drink, पाय payam. Ex अग्रे भोजं व्रजति agre bhojam vrajati, having first eaten, he goes. This verbal adverb is most frequently used twice over. Ex भोजं भोजं व्रजति bhojam bhojam vrajati, having eaten and eaten, he goes (Pāṇ III 4, 22). It is likewise used at the end of compounds, द्वेषकार dvaidhamkaram, having divided, उच्चैःकार uchchaiskaram, loudly.

CHAPTER XVIII

CAUSATIVE VERBS

§ 461 Simple roots are changed into causal bases by Guna or Vriddhi of their radical vowel, and by the addition of a final इः. The root is then treated as following the Bhū class, so that इः appears in the special tenses as अय aya. Thus भू bhū becomes भावि bhavi and भावयति bhavayati, he causes to be, बुध budh becomes बोधि bodhi and बोधयति bodhayati, he causes to know.

§ 462 The rules according to which the vowel takes either Guna or Vriddhi are as follows

- 1 Final इः and ईः, उः and ऊः, ऋः and ॠः take Vriddhi.
Thus स्मि smi, to laugh, स्माययति smayayati, he makes laugh
नी ni, to lead, नाययति nayayati, he causes to lead
प्लु plu, to swim, प्लावयति plāvayati, he makes swim
भू bhū, to be, भावयति bhāvayati, he causes to be कृ kṛi, to make, कारयति kārayati, he causes to make कृ kṛi, to scatter, कारयति kārayati, he causes to scatter
 - 2 Medial इः उः, ऋः ॠः followed by a single consonant take Guna, ऋः ॠः becomes ईर īr
Thus विद् vid, to know, वेदयति vedayati, he makes know
बुध budh, to know, बोधयति bodhayati, he makes know
कृत् kṛit, to cut, कर्तयति kartayati, he causes to cut कृष् kṛiṣ, to be able, कल्पयति kālpayati, he renders fit
 - 3 Medial अः followed by a single consonant is lengthened, but there are many exceptions
सद् sad, to sit, सादयति sadayati, he sets
पत् pat to fall, पातयति patayati, he fells
- Exceptions
- I Most verbs ending in अम् am do not lengthen their vowel
गम् gam, to go, गमयति gamayati, he makes go
क्रम् kram, to stride, क्रमयति kramayati, he causes to stride

Verbs in अम् am which do lengthen the vowel are,

कम् kam, to desire, कामयते kāmayate, he desires; Caus कामयति kāmayati, he makes desire.

अम् am, to move, अमति amati, he moves; Caus. अमयति āmayati, he makes move.

चम् cham, to eat, चमति chamati, he eats; Caus. चामयति chāmayati, he makes eat.

शम् śam, if it means to see, शाम्यति śamyati, he sees; Caus. शामयति śamayati, he shows; but शमयति śamayati, he quiets.

यम् yam, unless it means to eat, यच्छति yachchhati; Caus. यामयति yāmayati, he extends; but यमयति yamayati, he feeds.

नम् nam, to bend, necessarily lengthens its vowel after a preposition; विनामयति vinamayati, he bends.. In the simple verb the lengthening is optional.

वम् vam, to vomit, necessarily shortens its vowel after a preposition; उद्धमयति uddhamayati, he makes vomit. In the single verb the lengthening is optional.

- II. A class of verbs collected by native grammarians, and beginning with घट् ghat (Dh P. 19, 1), do not lengthen their vowel. The same verbs may optionally retain their short vowel in the 3rd pers. sing. aorist of the causative passive (§ 405). The following list contains the more important among these verbs:

Note—Some of these verbs are to be considered as m t i e as having a short vowel in the causative if employed in the sense given above while if they occur again in other sections of the Dhātupāṭha and with different meanings they may be conjugated like ordinary verbs

§ 463 Some verbs form their causative base anomalously

I Nearly all verbs ending in आ a and most ending in ए e हे ai, ओ o, changeable to आ a insert प p before the causal termination (Pan VII 3 36)

Thus दा da, to give ददाति daddāti, he gives, दापयति dapayati, he causes to give

दे de, to pity, दयते dayate, he pities, दापयति dāpayati he causes pity
 दो do, to cut दाति dāti or दति djati he cuts, दापयति dapayati, he causes cutting

दै dai, to purify, दायति dāyati he purifies, दापयति dīpayati, he causes to purify

II Other irregular causatives are given in the following list Their irregularity consists chiefly in taking प p with Guna or Vriddhi of the radical vowel, sometimes in lengthening the vowel instead of raising it to Guna, and frequently in substituting a new base

1 इ i to go in अधीति adhīte, he reads, Caus अध्यापयति adhyapayati he teaches† (P n VI 1, 48)

2 अर् ri, to go, अर्चयति arichchati Caus अर्पयति arpayati, he places (Pan VII 3 36)

* Pan VII 3 3.

† Opt onally as a simple verb with prepositions 27 and 28 do not shorten the vowel in the causative 29 does shorten it

 38 हन् han, to kill, हन्ति hanti Caus घातयति ghatajati he causes to kill

§ 464 As causative verbs are conjugated exactly like verbs of the Chur class, there is no necessity for giving here a complete paradigm. Like Chur verbs they retain अय् ay throughout, except in the reduplicated aorist and the benedictive Parasmaipada, and they form the perfect periphrastically. The only difficulty in causative verbs is the formation of their bases, and the formation of the aorist. Thus कृ kṛ, as causative, forms Pres Par and Âtm कारयति, ०ते, kurajati, -ते Impf अकारयत्, ०त्, akarayat, ta Opt कारयेत्, ०त्, karayet, ta Imp कारयतु ०ता, kurajutu, tam Red Perf कारयाचकार, ०चक्रे, karajanchakara, -chakre (§ 342), Aor अचोकरत्, ०त्, achikarat, ta Fut कारयिष्यति, ०ते, kurajishyati, te Cond अकारयिष्यत् ०त्, akurayishjat, ta Per Fut कारयिता kurajitu Ben कर्षित karyat कारयिषोष्ट karajishishṭa.

§ 465 If a causative verb has to be used in the passive, अय् ay is dropt (§ 399), but the root remains the same as it would have been with अय् aj. Hence Pres कर्षते kuryate, he is made to do, रोषते ropjate, from रुह ruh, he is made to grow. The imperfect, optative, and imperative are formed regularly. The perfect is periphrastic with the auxiliary verbs in the Âtmanepada.

§ 466 In the general tenses however, where the य् ya of the passive disappears (§ 401), the causative अय् aj may or may not reappear, and we thus get two forms throughout (see Colebrooke, p 198 note)

Fut भावयिष्ये bharayishje or भाविष्ये bhavishje

CHAPTER XIX

DESIDERATIVE VERBS

§ 467 Desiderative bases are formed by reduplication, the peculiarities of which will have to be treated separately, and by adding ṣ to the root. Thus from भू bhū, to be, बुभूषि bubhūṣi, to wish to be.

§ 468 These new bases are conjugated like Tud roots. बुभूषामि bubhūṣāmi, बुभूषसि bubhūṣasi, बुभूषति bubhūṣati, बुभूषाम bubhūṣāh, &c.

§ 469 The roots which take the intermediate ṛ have been given before (§§ 331, 340), as well as those which take intermediate ṛi. Thus from विद् vid, to know, विविदिषि vividishi, to wish to know, from तृ tṛ, to cross, तितरिषि titarish or तितरोषि titarish, to wish to cross.

§ 470 As a general rule, though liable to exceptions, it may be stated that bases ending in one consonant may be strengthened by Guna, if they take the intermediate ṛ. Thus बुद् budh forms बुबोधिषति bubodhishati, वृद् vṛdh, विवर्धिषति ivardhishati, दिद् di, दिदेधिषति didevishati, also कृ kṛ, चिकरिषति chikarishati, दृ dṛ, दिदरिषति didarishati. But भृद् bhūd, Des विभित्सति bibhītsati (Pan 1 2, 10), गृह gṛh, जुगुप्सति jughupsati (Pan vii 2, 12). In fact, no Guna without intermediate ṛ.

§ 471 But there are important exceptions. In many cases the base of the desiderative is neither strengthened nor weakened, रुद् rud, रुरुदिषति rirudishati. Other bases may be strengthened optionally, द्युद् dyut, दिद्युतिषते didyutishate or दिद्योतिषते didyotishate. Certain bases which do not take intermediate ṛ are actually weakened, सृप् sṛap, सुसृप्सति sushupsati.

1 Verbs which do not take Guna, though they have intermediate ṛ:

रुद् rud, to cry, रुरुदिषति rirudishati, विद् vid, to know, विविदिषति vividishati, मुष् मुṣh, to steal, मुमुषिषति mumushishati (Pan 1 2, 8).

2 Verbs which may or may not take Guna, though they have intermediate ṛ:

Verbs beginning with consonants, and ending in any single consonant, except ṣ y or ṣ r, and having ṛ or ṛu for their vowel. (Pan 1 2, 26)

द्युद् dyut, दिद्युतिषति didyutishati or दिद्योतिषति didyotishati.

But दिद् di, दिदेधिषति didevishati or, without ṛ, दुद्युषति dudyuṣhate (Pan vii 2, 49), वृत् vṛt, विवर्तिषते ivartishate or विपृत्सति vipṛtsati.

3 Verbs ending in ṛ or ṛu, not taking intermediate ṛ, lengthen their vowel, final च r and च् r become ई r, and, after labials, ऊ r (Pan vi 4, 16)

जि ji, to conquer, जिगीषति jigīṣati, यु yu, to mix, युयुषति yuyuṣati.

कृ kṛ, to do, चिकीर्षति chikīrṣati, तृ tṛ, to cross, तितीर्षति titīrṣati.

मृ mṛ, to die, मृमृषति mṛmṛṣati, पृ pṛ, to fill, पृपृषति pṛpṛṣati.

If, however, they take intermediate इ, they likewise take Guna

स्मि smi, to smile, सिस्मयिषति sismayishati सू pū, to purify, पिपयिषते pipayishate, गृ grī, to swallow, जिगरिषति jigarishati, दृ drī, to respect, दिदरिषते didarishate.

4 गम् gam, to go, as a substitute for इ i to go, and हन् han to kill, lengthen their vowel before the स् s of the desiderative (Pāṇ VI 4, 16)

गम् gam, अधिगमिषते adhyigamsate, he wishes to read, but निगमिषति nigamishati, he wishes to go

हन् han, जिघामिषति jighamsati he wishes to kill

5 तन् tan, to stretch, lengthens its vowel optionally (Pāṇ V 4, 17)

तन् tan, तितासति titasati or तितसति titamsati but also तिततिषति titatishati (Pāṇ VII 2, 49 v)

6 सन् san, to obtain, drops its न n and lengthens the vowel before the स् s of the desiderative (Pāṇ VI 4, 42)

सन् san, सिषासति sishasati but सिस्मिषति sismishati

7 ग्रह् grah, to take, स्वप् svap, to sleep, and प्रच्छ् prachh, to ask, shorten their bases by Samprasāraṇa (Pāṇ I 2, 8)

ग्रह् grah, जिघृक्षति jighrikshati स्वप् svap, सुषुप्सति sushupsati

प्रच्छ् prachh, पिपृच्छिषति piprichhishati

8 The following verbs shorten their vowel to इ i before the स् s of the desiderative, insert त t (Pāṇ VII 4, 54), and reject the reduplication

मी mī (मीमाति minati, to destroy, and मिनोति minoti, to throw), Des मित्सति mitsati

मा ma (माति mati, to measure मिमीते mimite, to measure, मयते majate, to change), Des मित्सति mitsati मित्सते mitsate

दा da (ददाति dadati, to give, दाति dāti, to cut, द्यति dyati, to cut, दयते dayate, to pity), Des दित्सति ditsati, दित्सते ditsate

धा dha (धाति dadhāti, to place, धयति dhajati, to drink), Des धित्सति dhitsati

9 Other desideratives formed without reduplication

रम् rabh, to begin (रभते rabhate), Des रिप्सति ripsate

लभ labh, to take (लभते labhate), Des लिप्सते lipsate

शक् śak, to be able (शक्नोति śaknoti, शक्यति śakyati), Des शिष्यति śikshati

पद् pād, to go (पद्यते padyate), Des पित्सते pitsate

आप् ap, to obtain (आप्नोति apnoti), Des ईप्सति īpsati

जप् jnap, to command (जपयति jnapayati), Des जीप्सति jīpsati

वृध् vidh, to grow (वृध्नोति vidhnoti), Des ईत्सति ītsati

दम् dambh, to deceive (दध्नोति dabhnōti), Des धीप्सति dhīpsati or धिप्सति dhīpsati

मुच muc, to free (मुच्यते mucyate), Des मोक्षते mokshate or मुमुक्षते mumukshate, he wishes for spiritual freedom

राध radh to finish (राधति radhyati), Des प्रतिरिस्ति prati ratsati, in the sense of injuring, otherwise रिरास्ति riratsati, also रिरिस्ति riritsati

§ 472 Certain verbs which are commonly considered to belong to the Bhū class are really desiderative bases *

कित् kit, चिकित्ते chikitsate he cures
 गुप gup, जुगुप्सते jugupsate, he despises
 तिक् ty, तितिक्षते titikshate, he bears
 मान् man, मीमांसते mīmāṃsate, he investigates

 शान् śān, शीशास्ते śīśātsate, he sharpens

Reduplication in Desideratives

§ 473 Besides the general rules of reduplication given in §§ 302-319*, the following special rules with regard to the vowel of the reduplicative syllable are to be observed in forming the desiderative base

Radical अ a and आ ā are represented by इ i in the reduplicative syllable (Pan VII 4, 79)

पच् pach पिपचति pipakshati स्वा sth, तिश्नाति tishthasati

§ 474 अच् ac and आच् av, standing as Guṇa or Vriddhi of radical उ u or ऊ ū, are represented by इ i in the reduplicative syllable, provided they be preceded by प् p म् ph ब् b, भ bh म् m, य् y र् r, ल् l व् v, ज् j (Pan VII 4, 80)

पू pū पिपावयिषति pipāva-jishati, (Red Aor अपीवत api-parat) See § 375

भू bhū बिभावयिषति bibhāva-jishati, (Red Aor अबीभवत् abibhavat)

यु yu, यिययिषति yijayishati, and Caus Desid यियावयिषति yijavayishati

जु ju जिजावयिषति jijava-jishati, (Red Aor अजीवत् aj-javat)

But नु nu नुनावयिषति nuṇava-jishati (Red Aor अनूवत् anūnavat) See § 375†

§ 475 Roots सु śru to flow श्रु śru, to hear, द्रु dru to run प्रु pru, to approach प्रु plu to swim च्यु chyu, to fall, may under similar circumstances optionally take इ i or उ u in the reduplicative syllable

सु śru, सिश्वावयिषति śiśvayishati or मुष्ठावयिषति muṣṭhava-jishati but the simple desiderative सुसृष्टि susṛishati only

स्वापच् śvapac the Caus of स्वप् śvap, forms सुप्तावयिषति sushvapa-jishati

§ 476 Roots beginning with a vowel have a peculiar kind of internal reduplication, to which allusion was made in § 378 Thus (Pan VI 1, 2)

अज् as fortis अजिज् + इषति ajis + ishati

अट् at forms अटिट् + इषति atit + ishati

अक्ष् aksh forms अचिक्छ + इषति achiksh + ishati

उच्छ् uchchh forms उचिच्छ् + इषति uchchchh + ishati

* Except onal redupl cat on occurs in चिकीषति chikīshati bes des चिचिषति chichishati from चि chi (Pan VII 3, 8) in निचिषति nichishati from नि ni (Pan VII 3, 56) &c

§ 477. If the root ends in a double consonant, the first letter of the second letter is reduplicated

अर्च arch, अर्चिर्चयति archich ishati

उद् und, उद्दिदयति undid-ishati

उब् ubj, उब्जिजयति ubjy-ishati

In ईर्श irshj the last consonant is reduplicated

ईर्श् ईर्शयति ईर्शयिषति ईर्शयिषishati

In the verbs beginning with कट् कट्ठयति kaddiyati (§ 498) the final य y is reduplicated

कट्ठय कट्ठयति कट्ठयिषति कट्ठयिषishati

CHAPTER XX

INTENSIVE VERBS

§ 478 Intensive, or, as they are sometimes called, frequentative bases are meant to convey an intenseness or frequent repetition of the action expressed by the simple verb. Simple verbs, expressive of motion, sometimes receive the idea of tortuous motion, if used as intensives. Some intensive bases convey the idea of reproach or disgrace, &c.

§ 479 Only bases beginning with a consonant, and consisting of one syllable, are liable to be turned into intensive bases. Verbs of the Chur class cannot be changed into intensive verbs. There are, however, some exceptions. Thus अट् at, to go, though beginning with a vowel, forms अटायते atayate, he wanders about, अस् as, to eat, असायते asayate चरि, to go, चरायते araryate and चरति ararti (Siddh-kāum vol II p 216), उरु uru, to cover, उरुनूयते urunūyate (Paq III 1, 22)

§ 480 There are two ways of forming intensive verbs

- 1 By a peculiar reduplication and adding य ya at the end
- 2 By the same peculiar reduplication without any modification in the final portion of the base. The latter occurs very seldom

Bases formed in the former way admit of Ātmanepada only,

Ex भू bhū, बोभूयते bobhūyate

Bases formed in the latter way admit of Parasmaipada only, though, according to some grammarians, the Ātmanepada also may be formed

Ex भू bhū, बोभवीति bobhāvīti or बोभोति bobhoti

The Ātmanepada would be बोभूते bobhūte

§ 481 When य ya is added, the effect on the base is generally the same as in the passive and benedictive Par (§ 389). Thus final vowels are lengthened चि chi, to gather, चेचीयते chechīyate, श्रु śru, to hear, श्रोश्रूयते śrośrūyate. आ ā is changed to ई ī धा dha, to place, देधीयते dedhīyate चरि becomes ईर ir, or, after labials, ऊर ūr त्रि trī, to cross, तेतीयते tetīyate प्रि pri, to fill, पोपूर्यते popūryate Final च्च ri, however, when following a simple consonant, is changed to री ri, not to रि ri कृ kri, to do, चेक्रीयते chekrīyate When following a double consonant it is changed to चर् ar स्मृ smri, to remember, सामर्यते sāmaryate These intensive bases are conjugated like bases of the Div class in the Âtmanepad. It should be observed, however, that in the general tenses roots ending in vowels retain य् y before the intermediate इ i, while roots ending in consonants throw off the य् ya of the special tenses altogether. Thus from बोभूय bobhūya, बोभूयिता bobhūy itā from बेभिद्य bebhidya, बेभिदिता bebhiditā

§ 482 When य् ya is not added the intensive bases are treated like bases of the Huclass. The rules of reduplication are the same. Observe, however, that verbs with final or penultimate च्च ri have peculiar forms of their own (§§ 489, 490), and verbs in च्च ri start from a base in चर् ar, and therefore have सा a in the reduplicative syllable तृ tri, तर tar, तातर्मि tatarmi, 3rd pers plur तातिरति taturati

§ 483 According to the rules of the Hu class, the weak terminations require Guna (§ 297). Hence from बोबुध् bobudh, बोबोधि bobodhi but बोबुध् bobudh mah. From बोभ् bobhi, बोभोमि bobhomi, बोभयानि bobhayani but बोभूय bobhumah. Remark, however, that in 1 2 3 p sing Pres 2 3 p sing Impf, 3 p sing Imp ई i may be optionally inserted बोबोधि bobodhi or बोबुधोधि bobudhōdhi बोभोमि bobhomi or बोभयामि bobhayami And remark further, that before this intermediate ई i, and likewise before weak terminations beginning with a vowel, intensive bases ending in consonants do not take Guna (Pan VII 3, 87). Hence बोबुधोधि bobudhōdhi, बोबुधानि bobudhani, अबोबुध् abobudham From बिह vid,

* Rules of Reduplication for Intensives

§ 484. The simplest way to form the peculiar reduplication of intensives is to take the base used in the general tenses, to change it into a passive base by adding य् ya, then to reduplicate, according to the general rules of reduplication, and lastly, to raise, where possible, the vowel of the reduplicative syllable by Guna (Pan VII 4, 82), and सा a to सा ā (Pan VII 4 83)

चि chi, to gather, चीय chīya, चेचीयते chechīyate चेचेति checheti
क्रु kru, to abuse, क्रुय kruya, चोक्रुयते chokruyate चोक्रोहि chokroshiti

हे hie, to call, हूय hūya, जोहूयते johūyate, जोहोयित्त johoti

§ 485 The roots वच् vañch, स्रस् srams, ध्वस् dhvams, भ्रस् bhrams, कस् kas, पत् pat, पद् pad, स्कन् skand, place नी nī between the reduplicative syllable and the root. (Pān VII 4, 84)

वच् vañch, to go round, वनीवच्क्यते va nī vachyate, वनीवच्क्यित्त vanīvañchitti.

स्रस् srams, to tear, सनीस्रस्यते sa nī srasyate, सनीस्रस्यित्त sanīsrāṁsitti

§ 486 Roots ending in a nasal, preceded by स a, repeat the nasal in the reduplicative syllable (Pān VII 4, 85) The repeated nasal is treated like m, and the vowel, being long by position, is not lengthened.

गम् gam, to go, जगम्यते jagamyate जगम्यित्त jagamitti

भ्रम् bhram, to roam, बभ्रम्यते bambhramyate, बभ्रम्यित्त bambhramitti

जप jap, जनप्यते jañjapyate, जनप्यित्त jañjapitti

दश् daś, दं दश्यते damdaśyate, ददशित्त damdaṣitti

§ 488 The roots चर् char and फल् phal form their intensives as, चचूर्यते chanchūryate and चचुरीति chanchuritti or चचूर्ति chañchūrti पफुल्यते pamphulyate and पफुलीति pamphulitti or पफुल्लि pamphullti (Pān VIII 4, 87)

§ 489 Roots with penultimate च् ṛ insert री ri in their reduplicative syllable (Pān VII 4, 90)

वृत् vrit, वरीवृत्ते va ri vṛityate वरीवृत्तित्त va ri vṛittiti

In the Par these roots allow of six formations. (Pān VII 4, 91)

वर्चनीति va r vṛittiti

वर्चति vartiti

* This form follows from Pān VII 4, 92, and is supported by the Mādhaviya-dhātuvṛtti. Other grammarians give स्मस्मरित्त sāsmartti परिपृच्छति ra ri rīṣṭhi.परिपृच्छति varicarti.परिपृच्छति ra ri rīṣṭhi.परिपृच्छति varicarti.

§ 490. The same applies to roots ending in चृ ri, if used in the Parasmaipada. (Pān. vii. 4, 92.)

चर्कति cha r karīti.चर्कति charkarti.चर्कति cha ri karīti.चर्कति charikarti.चर्कति chá ri karīti.चर्कति charikarti.

§ 491. A few frequentative bases are peculiar in the formation of their base*.

स्वप् śvap, to sleep, सोपुष्यते soshupyate; but सास्नति sāsnapti. (Pān. vi. 1, 19.)

स्यम् śyam, to sound, सेसिम्यते sesimyate; but संस्रियति sānsriyanti.

व्ये vye, to cover, वेच्येयते veciyate, but वाप्याति vāpyāti; or (§ 483) पाप्येति vāryeti.

यञ् vaś, to desire, वाप्यते vāvaśyate; वाशति vāśati. (Pān. vi. 1, 20.)

चाय् chāy, to regard, चेकीयते chekiyate; चेकेति cheketi. (Pān. vi. 1, 21.)

प्याय् pyāy, to grow, पेप्यते pepiyate; पाप्याति pāpyāti. (Pān. vi. 1, 29.)

श्वि śvi, to swell, शोष्यते śośyate or शेक्ष्यते śeśyate; शेक्षेति śeśveti. (Pān. vi. 1, 30.)

हन् han, to kill, जेघ्न्यते jeghniyate; जंघति janghanti. (Pān. vii. 4, 30, v.)

ग्रा ghrā, to smell, जेघ्र्यते jeghriyate, जाघ्राति jāghrāti. (Pān. vii. 4, 31.)

ध्मा dhmā, to blow, देध्न्यते dedhniyate; दाध्माति dādhamāti. (Pān. vii. 4, 31.)

गृ gṛ, to swallow, जेगिष्यते jegilyate; जागति jāgati. (Pān. viii. 2, 20.)

श्लि śli, to lie down, श्लिष्यते śliṣyate; श्लेक्षेति śleśeti. (Pān. vii. 4, 22.)

§ 492. From derivative verbs new derivatives may be formed, most of which, however, are rather the creation of grammarians, than the property of the spoken language. Thus from भावयति bhāvayati, the causal of भू bhū, he causes to be, a new desiderative is derived, बिभाषयिषति bibhāyishati, he wishes to cause existence. So from the intensive बोध्यते bodhyate, he exists really, is formed बोध्यिषति bodhyishati, he wishes to exist really;

* The formation and conjugation of the Intensive in the Parasmaipada, or the so called Charkarta, have given rise to a great deal of discussion among native grammarians. According to their theory यञ् yan, the sign of the Intensive Ātmanepada, has to be suppressed by लुक् luk. By this suppression the changes produced in the verbal base by यञ् yan would cease (Pan. i. 1, 63), except certain changes which are considered as Anangakārya, i.e. changes of the root that are to take place in the Intensive. These changes, however, are distinctly mentioned by Panini. Thus the Prakrīyā-Kaumudī forms सोपुषति soshopti, because Pān. vi. 1, 19, prescribes सोपुष्यते soshupyate, other authorities form only सास्नति sāsnapti or सास्नयति sāsnayati. Colebrooke allows चेकेति cheketi (p. 332), because Pān. vi. 1, 21, prescribes वेच्येयते veciyate, and the commentary argues in favour of चेकेति cheketi. But Colebrooke (p. 321) declines to form सेसिते sesate, because it is in the Ātm. only that Pan. vi. 1, 19, allows सेसिम्यते sesimyate. Whether the Perfect should be periphrastic or reduplicated is likewise a moot point among grammarians, some forming पोभारयकार bodhārdhakarā, others पोभूय bobhūya, others पोभार bobhāra.

then a new causative may be formed, बोभूयिष्यति bobhūyishyati, he causes a wish to exist really; and again a new desiderative, बोभूयिष्यिष्यति bobhūyishyishyati, he wishes to excite the desire of real existence.

CHAPTER XXI.

DENOMINATIVE VERBS.

§ 493. There are many verbs in Sanskrit which are clearly derived from nominal bases *, and which generally have the meaning of behaving like, or treating some one like, or wishing for or doing whatever is expressed by the noun. Thus from श्येन śyena, hawk, we have श्येनायति śyenāyate, he behaves like a hawk; from पुत्र putra, son, पुत्रीयति putriyati, he treats some one like a son, or he wishes for a son. Some denominatives are formed without any derivative syllable. Thus from कृष्ण krishna, कृष्णति krishnati, he behaves like Krishna; from पितृ pitr, father, पितरति pitaraṭi, he behaves like a father.

These denominative verbs, however, cannot be formed at pleasure; and many even of those which would be sanctioned by the rules of native grammarians, are of rare occurrence in the national literature of India. These verbs should therefore be looked for in the dictionary rather than in a grammar. A few rules, however, on their formation and general meaning, may here be given.

Denominatives in य या, Paraṃaipada.

§ 494. By adding य या to the base of a noun, denominatives are formed expressing a wish. From गो go, cow, गच्छति gacchati, he wishes for cows. These verbs might be called nominal desideratives, and they never govern a new accusative.

§ 495. By adding the same य या, denominatives are formed expressing one's looking upon or treating something like the subject expressed by the noun. Thus from पुत्र putra, son, पुत्रीयति शिष्ये putriyati śiṣhyam, he treats the pupil like a son. By a similar process प्रासादीयति prāsādīyati, from प्रासाद prāsāda, palace, means to behave as if one were in a palace; प्रासादीयति कुट्यां भिक्षुः prāsādīyati kuṭyām bhikṣuh, the beggar lives in his hut as if it were a palace.

§ 496. Before this य या,

1. Final य a and य ā are changed to ई ई; सुता sutā, daughter, सुतीयति sutīyati, he wishes for a daughter†.

* They are called in Sanskrit लिङ्गु liṅgu, from लिङ्ग liṅga, it is said, a crude sound, and युङ्गु yūṅgu, for युङ्गु yūṅgu, root (Carey, Grammar, p. 543.)

† Minute distinctions are made between अशनीयति aśanīyati, he wishes to eat at the proper time, and अशनीयति aśanīyati, he is ravenously hungry, between उदकीयति udakīyati, he wishes for water, and उदयति udanyati, he starves and craves for water, between धनीयति dhanīyati, he is greedy for wealth, and धनीयति dhanīyati he asks for some money. (Pāṇ. ii. 4. 34)

2. इ i and उ u are lengthened; पति pati, master, पतियति patiyati, he treats like a master; कवि kavi, poet, कवियति kariyati, he wishes to be a poet.
3. ए r becomes ऐ ri, ओ o becomes औ ar, औ au becomes आर् ār; पितृ pitri, father, पितृयति pitriyati, he treats like a father, नौ nau, ship, नायति nāriyati, he wishes for a ship
4. Final न n is dropt, and other final consonants remain unchanged; राजन् rajan, king, राजयति rajiyati, he treats like a king, पयस् payas, milk, पयस्यति payasyati, he wishes for milk; वाक् vāch, speech, वाचयति vachyati (Pāṇ 1 4. 15), नमस् namas, worship, नमस्यति namasyati, he worships (Pāṇ III 1. 19).

Denominatives आ.स. ३a, Ātmanepada

§ 497. A second class of denominatives, formed by adding य ya, has the meaning of behaving like, or becoming like, or actually doing what is expressed by the noun. They differ from the preceding class by generally following the *Ātmanepada, and by a difference in the modification of the final letters of the nominal base. Thus

1. Final अ a is lengthened; ह्येन hyena, hawk, ह्येनायते hyenāyate, he behaves like a hawk, शब्द śabda, sound, शब्दायते śabdiyate, he makes a sound, he sounds, भृश bhrīśa, much, भृशायते bhrīśāyate, he becomes much, कष्ट kashṭa, mischief, कष्टायते kashṭiyate, he plots, रोमंश्च romanṭha, ruminating, रोमंश्चायते romanṭhāyate, he ruminates. The final इ i of feminine bases is generally dropt, and the masculine base taken instead, कुमारी kumārī, girl, कुमारायते kumārāyate, he behaves like a girl. (Pāṇ VI 3. 36-41)
- 2 and 3. Final इ i and उ u, ए r, ओ o, औ au are treated as in § 496, शुचि śuchi, pure, शुचीयते śuchiyate, he becomes pure
4. Final न n is dropt, and the preceding vowel is lengthened; राजन् rajan, king, राजायते rajiyate, he behaves like a king; उष्मन् uśman, heat, उष्मायते uśmiyate, it sends out heat kaṇḍvādi's, i.e. beginning with kaṇḍú. They take y ya, both in Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada, and keep it through the general tenses under the restrictions applying to other denominatives in y ya (§ 501). Nouns ending in ञ drop it before y ya. Thus from अगद agada, free from illness, अगच्छति agadṣyati, he is free from illness, from मृग mṛga, pleasure, मुस्यति mukhyati, he gives pleasure, from कङ्क kaṇḍú, scratching, कङ्कयति or कङ्कते kaṇḍáyati or te, he scratches.

Denominatives in स्य sya

§ 499 Certain denominative verbs, which express a wish, take स्य sya instead of y ya. Thus from क्षीर lshira, milk, क्षीरस्यति kshírasyati, the child longs for milk, from लवण lavana, salt, लवणस्यति lavanasyati he desires salt. Likewise अश्वस्यति ashvasyati the mare longs for the horse, वृषस्यति vrishasyati, the cow longs for the bull (Pāṇ vii 1, 52). Some authorities admit स्य sya and अस्य asya, in the sense of extreme desire, after all nominal bases. Thus from मधु madhu, honey, मधुस्यति madhusyati or मध्वस्यति madhvasyati, he longs for honey.

Denominatives in काम्य kamyā

§ 500 It is usual to form desiderative verbs by compounding a nominal base with काम्य kamyā, a denominative from काम kāma love. Thus पुत्रकाम्यति putrakamyati, he has the wish for a son, Fut पुत्रकाम्यता putrakamyatā. Here the y y, it is said is not liable to be dropt. (Siddh Kaum vol ii p 222.)

§ 501 The denominatives in y ya are conjugated like verbs of the Bhū class in the Parasmaipada and Ātmanepada. Pres पुत्रीयामि putriyāmi, Impf अपुत्रीयामि aputriyāmi, Imper पुत्रीयाणि putriyāni, Opt पुत्रीयय putriyeyam. Pres इयेनाये śyenaye, Impf अइयेनाये asyenāye, Imp इयेनाये śyenayai, Opt इयेनायय śyenayēya. In the general tenses the base is पुत्रीप् putriṣ or इयेनाप् śjenay but when the denominative y y is preceded by a consonant, y y may or may not be dropt in the general tenses (Pāṇ vi 4 50). Hence, Per Perf पुत्रीयायामास putriyāmasa (§ 3*5 3), Aor अपुत्रीयिषि aputriyisham, Fut पुत्रीयिष्यामि putriyishyāmi, Per Fut. पुत्रीयिष्या putriyishā, Ben पुत्रीयास putriyasam.

From इयेनायते śjendjate, Per Perf इयेनायामास śyenayāmasa, Aor अइयेनायिषि asyenayishī, Fut इयेनायिष्ये śyenayishye, &c.

From समिध् samidh, fuel, समिध्यति samidhyati, he wishes for fuel, Per Fut समिध्या samidhyatā or समिधिता samidhitā, &c (Pāṇ vi 4 50).

Denominatives in अय aya

§ 502 Some denominative verbs are formed by adding अय aya to certain nominal bases. They generally express the act implied by the nominal base. They may be looked upon as verbs of the Chur class. They are conjugated in the Parasmaipada and Âtmanepada, some in the Âtmanepada only. They retain अय् ay in the general tenses under the limitations that apply to verbs of the Chur class and causatives (viz. benedictive Par, reduplicated aorist, &c), and their radical vowels are modified according to the rules applying to the verbs of the Chur class (§ 296, 4)

Thus from पाश pāśa, fetter, विपाशयति vipaśayati, he unties, from वनेन् varman, armour, सवनेयति samvarmayati, he arms, (the final न् n being dropt), from मुड munda, shaven, मुडयति mundayati, he shaves, from शब्द śabda, sound, शब्दयति śabdayati, he makes a sound (Dhātupāṭha 33, 40), from मिश्र mīśra, mixed, मिश्रयति mīśrayati, he mixes (Pan III 1, 21, 25)

Some of these verbs are always Âtmanepada. Thus from पुच्छ puchchha, tail, उत्पुच्छयते utpuchchhayate, he lifts up the tail (Pan III 1, 20)

If अय् aya is to be added to nouns formed by the secondary affixes मत् mat, चत् cat, मिन् min विन् vin, these affixes must be dropt. From स्रग्विन् sragvin, having garlands, स्रजयति srajayati

If अय् aya is added to feminine bases, they are generally replaced by the corresponding masculine base. From श्येनी śyēnī (§ 247), white, श्येतयति śyētayati, he makes her white (Pan VI 3 36)

Certain adjectives which change their base before इह ishtha of the superlative, do the same before अय् aya. मृदु mṛidu, soft, मृदयति mṛadayati, he softens, दूर dūra, far, दृढयति dṛḍhayati, he removes

Some nominal bases take आपय apaya. Thus from सत्य satya, true, सत्यापयति satya-apayati, he speaks truly, from अर्थ artha, sense, अर्थोपयति arthapayati, he explains

Denominatives without any Affix

§ 503 According to some authorities every nominal base may be turned into a denominative verb by adding the ordinary verbal terminations of the First Division, and treating the base like a verbal base of the Bhū class. च a is added to the base, except where it exists already as the final of the nominal base, other final and medial vowels take गुण Guṇa, where possible, as in the Bhū class,

Thus from कृष्ण kṛṣṇa, कृष्णति kṛṣṇati, he behaves like Krishna, from माला māla, garland, मालति mālati, it is like a garland, Impf अमालात् amālāt, Aor अमालासीत् amālāsīt, from कवि kaui, poet, कवयति kaṇayati, he behaves like a poet, from पि pi, bird, पयति payati, he flies like a bird, from पितृ pitri, father, पितरति pitaratī, he is like a father, from राजन् rajan, king, राजानति rajanati, he is like a king (Pan VI 4, 15)

हलाहल haram prati halahalam, venom was for Hara, विष्णुमन्यर्च्यते ishnu-mani archyate, he is worshipped after Vishnu, अनु हरि सुरा anu harim surāh, the gods are less than Hari

The ablative is governed by प्रति prati, परि pari, अप apa, सा a Dr भक्ते प्रलभत bhakteh praty amritam, immortality in return for faith, सा मृत्यो a mrityoh, until death, अप त्रिगतभ्यो वृष्टो देव apa trigartebhyo irishṭo devah, it has rained away from Trigarta, or परि त्रिगतभ्यः pari trigartebhyah, round Trigarta, without touching Trigarta

The locative is governed by उप upa and अधि adhi Lx उप निष्के कार्षापण upa nishke karsh upanam, a Karshâpana is more than a Nishka, अधि पंचालेषु ब्रह्मदत्त adhi panchaleshu brahmadattah, Brahmadatta governs over the Panchâlas

§ 507 There are many other adverbs in Sanskrit, some of which may here be mentioned

1 The accusative of adjectives in the neuter may be used as an adverb
Thus from मद् mandah, slow, मद् मद् mandam mandam, slowly, slowly, शीघ्र śighram, quickly, पुत्र dhrumam truly

2 Certain compounds, ending like accusatives of neuters, are used adverbially, such as यथाशक्ति yathasakti, according to one's power For these see the rules on composition

3 Adverbs of place

अन्तर antar, within, with loc and gen, between, with acc अन्तरा antaru, between, with acc अन्तरं antarena, between, with acc, without, with acc आरात arat, far off, with abl वहि vahih, outside, with abl समया samaya, near, with acc निकषा nikash, near, with acc उपरि upari, above, over, with acc and gen उच्चे uchchah, high, or loud नीचे nichah, low अधः adhah, below, with gen and abl अतः atah, below, with gen तिर tirah, across with acc or loc इह iha, here पुरा pur, before समक्ष samaksham माद्यात् sukshat, in the presence सकाशात् sakashat, from पुर purah, before, with gen अमा am, सचा sacha, साक sikam, समा sam, सर्प sardham, together, with instr अभित abhitah on all sides, with acc उभयत ubhayatah on both sides, with acc समन्तत samanant, from all sides दूर dūram, far, with acc, abl and gen अतिक antikam, near, with acc abl, and gen अथक् ridhak, पृथक् prithak, apart

4 Adverbs of time

CHAPTER XXIII.

COMPOUND WORDS.

§ 510. The power of forming two or more words into one, which belongs to all Aryan languages, has been so largely developed in Sanskrit that a few of the more general rules of composition claim a place even in an elementary grammar.

As a general rule, all words which form a compound, drop their inflectional terminations, except the last. They appear in that form which is called their base, and when they have more than one, in their Pada base (§ 180). Hence देवदासः devā-dāsah, a servant of god; राजपुरुषः rājapurushah, a king's man; प्रत्यगमुखः pratyagmukhah, facing west:

§ 511. Sometimes the sign of the feminine gender in the prior elements of a compound may be retained. This is chiefly the case when the feminine is treated as an appellative, and would lose its distinctive meaning by losing the feminine suffix: कल्याणीमाता kalyāṇīmātā, the mother of a beautiful daughter (Pān. vi. 3, 34); कथीभार्या kathībhāryah, having a Kathī for one's wife (Pān. vi. 3, 41). If the feminine forms a mere predicate, it generally loses its feminine suffix: शोभनभार्या śobhanabhāryah, having a beautiful wife (Pān. vi. 3, 34; 42).

The phonetic rules to be observed are those of external Sandhi with certain modifications, as explained in §§ 24 seq.*

§ 512. Compound words might have been divided into substantival, adjectival, and adverbial. Thus words like तपुरुषः tapurushah, his man, नीलोत्पलं nīlotpalam, blue lotus, द्विगवं dvigavam, two oxen, अग्निधूमौ agnidhūmau, fire and smoke, might have been classed as substantival; बहुव्रीहिः bahuvrīhiḥ, possessing much rice, as an adjectival; and यथाशक्ति yathāśakti, according to one's strength, as an adverbial compound.

Native grammarians, however, have adopted a different principle of division, classing all compounds under six different heads, under the names of Talpurusha, Karmadhāraya, Diigu, Diandā, Bahuvrīhi, and Atyayibhāva.

* Occasionally bases ending in a long vowel shorten it, and bases ending in a short vowel lengthen it in the middle of a compound, उदकं udaka, water, पादं pāda, foot, हृदयं hṛdaya, heart, frequently substitute the bases उदन् udān (i e उद uda), पद् pad, and हृद् hrud. हृदोगः hṛdogah, heart-disease, or हृदयरोगः hṛdayarogah (Pān. vi. 3, 51—60)

The particle कु ku, which is intended to express contempt, as कुब्राह्मणः kubrāhmaṇah, a bad Brāhman, substitutes कद् kad in a determinative compound before words beginning with consonants. क्रुद्धः kadushṭrah, a bad camel. The same takes place before रथ ratha, पद pada, and तृण trīṇa कद्दथः kadrathaḥ, a bad carriage; कद्दण्डः kadṛṇam, a bad kind of grass. The same particle is changed to का kā before पथिन् pathin and अक्ष akṣa कापथः kāpathaḥ, and optionally before पुरुष purusha. (Pān. vi. 3, 101—107)

1. Tatpurusha is a compound in which the last word is determined by the preceding words, for instance, तत्पुरुषः tat-purushah, his man, or राजपुरुषः rāja-purushah, king's man.

As a general term the Tatpurusha compound comprehends the two subdivisions of Karmadhāraya (I b) and Dvigu (I c). The Karmadhāraya is in fact a Tatpurusha compound, in which the last word is determined by a preceding adjective, e.g. नीलोत्पलं nīlotpalam, blue lotus. The component words, if dissolved, would stand in the same case, whereas in other Tatpurushas the preceding word is governed by the last, the man of the king, or fire-wood, i. e. wood for fire.

The Dvigu again may be called a subdivision of the Karmadhāraya, being a compound in which the first word is not an adjective in general, but always a numeral: द्विग्वं dvigavam, two oxen, or द्विगुः dviguḥ, bought for two oxen.

These three classes of compounds may be comprehended under the general name of Determinative Compounds, while the Karmadhāraya (I b) may be distinguished as appositional determinatives, the Dvigu (I c) as nom or acc neut.: अधिस्त्रि adhi-śtri, for woman, as in अधिस्त्रि गृहकार्याणि adhistrī grihakāryāṇi, household duties are for women. They may be called Adverbial Compounds.

I b Appositional Determinative Compounds

§ 517 These compounds (Karmadhārya) form a subdivision of the determinative compounds (Tatpuruṣa). In them the first portion stands as the predicate of the second portion, such as in black-beetle, sky-blue, &c

The following are some instances of appositional compounds

§ 519 Determinative compounds, the first portion of which is a numeral, are called Digu. The numeral is always the predicate of the noun which follows. They are generally neuters, or feminines, and are meant to express aggregates but they may also form adjectives, thus becoming possessive compounds, with or without secondary suffixes

If an aggregate compound is formed, final अ a is changed to ई f fem, or in some cases to अ am, neut. Final अन् an and आ d are changed to ई f or अ am

Very few of them are general as requiring a change without any regard to the preceding words in the compound. II Collective Compounds

§ 521 Collective compounds (Dvandva) are divided into two classes The first class (called इतरेतर itaretara) comprises compounds in which two or more words, that would naturally be connected by and, are united, the last taking the terminations either of the dual or the plural, according to the number of words forming the compound The second class (called समाहार samahara) comprises the same kind of compounds but formed into neuter nouns in the singular हस्त्यश्वाḥ hastyāśrau, an elephant and a horse, is an instance of the former, हस्त्यश्वाḥ hastyāśam, the elephants and horses (in an army), an instance of the latter class Likewise शुक्लकृष्णौ śukla krishṇau, white and black, गवाय गवद्वाम, a cow and a horse

If instead of a horse and an elephant, हस्त्यश्वाḥ hastyāśrau, the intention is to express horses and elephants, the compound takes the terminations of the plural, हस्त्यश्वाḥ hastyāśūḥ

§ 522 Some rules are given as to which words should stand first in a Dvandva compound Words with fewer syllables should stand first शिवकेशवौ śiva keśavau, Śiva and Keshava, not केशवेशौ keśameśau Words beginning with a vowel and ending in ञ a should stand first ईशकृष्णौ īśa krishṇau, Īśa and Krishna Words ending in इः (gen ए eh) and उ u (gen ओ oh) should stand first हरिहरो hari harau, Hari and Hara, also भोक्तृभोग्यौ bhoktṛa bhogyau, the enjoyer and the enjoyed Lastly, words of greater importance should have precedence देवदेवौ deva dautyau, the god and the demon, ब्राह्मणक्षत्रियौ brāhmaṇa kshatriyau, a Brahman and a Kshatriya, मातापितरौ matā pitarau, mother and father, but in earlier Sanskrit पितरामातरा pitarā mātara, father and mother (Pāṇ vi 3 33)

§ 523 Words ending in ञ ri, expressive of relationship or sacred titles, forming the first member of a compound, and being followed by another word ending in ञ ri, or by पुत्र putra, son, change their ञ ri into ञ a (Pāṇ vi 3 25) मातृ matṛ + पितृ pitṛ form मातापितरौ matāpitarau, father and mother, पितृ pitṛ + पुत्र putra form पितापुत्रौ pitāputrau होतृ hotṛ + पोत्र potṛ form होतापोतारौ hotāpotarau, the Hotṛ and Potṛ priests

§ 524 When the names of certain deities are compounded the first sometimes lengthens its final vowel (Pāṇ vi 3 26) Thus मित्रावरुणौ mitravarunau Mitra and Varuna, अग्नीषोमौ agniśhomau, Agni and Soma Similar irregularities appear in words like द्यावापृथिव्यौ dyāva prithivyau, heaven and earth, उषानक्षत्रौ uśāśd nakṣam, dawn and night (Pāṇ vi 3, 29-31)

§ 525 If the compound takes the termination of the singular, then final

च ch, छ chh, ज् j, झ् jh, ढ् d, श् sh, and ह् h take an additional स a वाच् uach + त्वच् tvach form वाक्त्वच् vaktvacham, speech and skin (Pan v 4, 106) अहन् ahan, day (see §§ 90, 196) and रात्रि rātri, night, form the compound अहोरात्र ahorātrah, a day and night, a σννθνημερον (Pan v 4 87)

§ 526 भ्रातरी bhratarau may be used in the sense of brother and sister, पुत्री putrāu in the sense of son and daughter, पितरौ pitarau in the sense of father and mother, श्वशुरौ śvaśurau in the sense of father and mother in law Man and wife may be expressed by भावापती jāyā pati, जंपती jampati, or दंपती dampati

III Possessive Compounds

§ 527 Possessive compounds (Bahuvrīhi) are always predicates referring to some subject or other. A determinative may be used as a possessive compound by a mere change of termination or accent. Thus नीलोत्पल nīla utpalam, a blue lotus is a determinative compound (Tatpuruṣa subdivision Karmadhāraya), but in नीलोत्पल सर nīlotpalam sarah, a blue lotus lake, nīlotpalam is an adjective and as such a predicative or possessive compound, (see Pan II 2, 24, com.) In the same manner अनश्व anaśah, not a horse, is a determinative, अनश्वो रथ anaśo rathah, a cart without a horse, a horseless cart, a possessive compound.

Examples प्रामोदको ग्राम prāpā udako gramah, a water reached village, a village reached by water ऊदरपोऽनङ्गन् ūdā a rāho 'nāṅgan, a bull by whom a cart (rathah) is drawn (idha) उपहृतपशू रुद्र upahṛta paśu rudrah, Rudra to whom cattle (paśuḥ) is offered (upahṛta) पीताम्बरो हरि pīta ambaro harī Hari possessing yellow garments प्रपणै pra-parṇah, leafless, i.e. a tree from which the leaves are fallen off अपुत्र a putrah sonless चित्रगु chitra guh, possessed of a brindled cow रूपवद्भाषि rūpavād bhāṣyah, possessed of a beautiful wife द्विमूर्ध dvi-mūrdhah two-headed here mūrdha stands for mūrdhan द्विपाद dvi pād, two legged here pād stands for pada सुहृद् su hṛd, having a good heart, a friend भक्षितभिक्षु bhākṣita bhikṣuḥ, one who has eaten his alms नीलोत्पलरूप nīla utpala rūpuḥ, having a blue resplendent body

APPENDIX.

LIST OF VERBS

Explanation of some of the Verbal Anudandhas or Indicatory Letters

अ is put at the end of roots ending in a consonant in order to facilitate their pronunciation

Accent—The last letter of a root is accented with the acute, the grave, or circumflex accent in order to show that the verb follows the Parasmaipada the Ātmanepada, or both forms

The roots themselves are divided into udatta, acutely accented, and anudatta, gravely accented, the former admitting the latter rejecting the intermediate इ :

आ prohibits the use of the intermediate इ : in the formation of the Nishthās (§ 333 D 2), Pan VII 2, 16 Ex फुल्ल phullah from भिषल्ल iphall

इ requires the insertion of a nasal after the last radical vowel which nasal is not to be omitted where a nasal that is actually written would be omitted (§ 345†), Pan VII 1, 58, VI 4, 24. Ex नन्दि nandati from नदि nadi, Pass नन्दते nandjate but from मप् or मप् manth Pres मपति manthate Pass मम्यते mathyate

इर shows that a verb may take the first or second aorist in the Parasmaipada (§ 367), Pan III 1, 57 Ex अच्युत achyutat or अच्योतीति achyotiti from च्युतिर chyutir

ई prohibits the use of the intermediate इ : in the formation of the Nishthās (§ 333 D 2), Pan VII 2, 14. Ex उन्दि undī from उन्दि undi

उ renders the admission of the intermediate इ : optional before the gerundial त्वा tvā (§ 337, II 5), Pan VII 2, 56, and therefore inadmissible in the past participle (Pan VII 2 15) Ex समित्वा samitva or शान्त्वा śantva from समु samu but शान्त्वा śantva

उ renders the admission of the intermediate इ : optional in the general tenses before all consonants but य y (§ 337, I 2), Pan VII 2, 44, and therefore inadmissible in the past participle (Pan VII 2, 15) Ex सद्धा seddha or सेधित्वा sedhitva from सिध् siddhā but सिद्ध siddhah

उर prevents the substitution of the short for the long vowel in the reduplicated aorist of causals (§ 372*), Pan VII 4, 2 Ex अलुलोक alulokat from लोक् loka

उर shows that the verb takes the second aorist in the Parasmaipada (§ 367), Pan. III 1, 55 Ex अगमत् agamat from गम् gam

ए e forbids Vriiddhi in the first aorist (§ 348*), Pan vii 2, 5 Ex समचीत् ama- thit from मये mathe

ओ o indicates that the participle is formed in न na instead of त ta (§ 442, 5), Pan viii 2, 45 Ex चीन् pinah from चोषायी opyayi

इ n shows that the verb follows the Ātmanepada (Pan i 3, 12)

म् m shows that the verb follows both the Ātmanepada and Parasmaipada, the former if the act reverts to the subject (Pan i 3, 72)

प् पि shows that the past participle has the power of the present (Pan iii
2, 187) Ex फुल्ल phullah, blown, from फिप्लता ñphala

म् m shows that the vowel is not lengthened in the causative (§ 462, note), Pan vi 4, 92, and that the vowel is optionally lengthened in the aorist of the passive (Pân vi 4, 93)

* The first aorist is the usual form for intensives, but in भू bhū it is superseded by the second aorist, this being enjoined for the simple verb. Some grammarians, however, admit the first aorist optionally for भू bhū (Colebr. p. 193). The conflicting opinions of native grammarians on the conjugation of intensives are fully stated by Colebrooke, p. 191 seq.

Note—Roots end ng in consonants preceded by a nasal lose the nasal before weakening (kit i) terminat ons (Pan 1 4 24) but not roots written with Anul of the reduplicated perfect in the dual and plural are weakening (kat), except after roots ending in double consonants (Pāp. I. 2, 5). According to some, however, the weakening is allowed even after double consonants: केचिदिति । प्रयोधोदयवृत्तिकारदयः । तथा च प्रयोधोदयवृत्तायुक्ते । संयोगाद्दि किदा । ररन्तुः ररन्तरिति ॥ Roots, however, which thus drop the penultimate nasal in the perfect, need not take ए instead of reduplication: स्तोषिनो नेति केचित् ममयतुः । Prakya-Kaumudi, p. 7 b

Native grammarians admit a verb मथति mathati (mathe), and another मथति mathati, which supply a variety of verbal derivatives

6. कुञ् कृञ् kunth, to strike, (कुञ्चि)

Roots marked in the Dhātupāṭha by technical final इ keep their penultimate nasal throughout.

This root can take no Guna, on account of its final conjunct consonant.

7. सिञ् सिञ् siddh, to go (सिञ्च), and सिञ् siddh, to command (सिञ्च).

* The change of स् into ष is forbidden by Pāṇini VIII 3, 113, when सिञ् siddh means to go. It is admitted by the Śāstr. The Anubandha उ ष is sometimes added to सिञ् siddh, to go, but is explained to be for the sake of pronunciation only. Colebrooke marks it as erroneous. Its proper meaning would be that intermediate इ ङ् is optional in the gerund, and forbidden in the past participle (§ 337, II 5). The forms without intermediate इ ङ् belong properly only to सिञ् siddh, to command. This verb must change its initial स् after prepositions. निसेचति nisedhati.

28. तप् tap, to burn, (§ 332, 14).

P. तपति tapati ॥ Pf. १. तप्ताप tapāpa, २ तप्तप tapaptha or तेषिप tepiṭha (§ 335, 3), ३ तप्ताप tapāpa, I A. १ अत्ताप्ये atāpsam, २ अत्ताप्योः atāpsāḥ, ३ अत्ताप्योः atāpsāḥ, ४ अत्ताप्योः atāpsāḥ, ५ अत्ताप्योः atāpsāḥ, ६ अत्ताप्योः atāpsāḥ (§ 351), F. तप्स्यति tapasyati, P. F. तप्ता tapā, B तप्तात् tapāt ॥ Pt. तप्तः taptaḥ, तेषिपान् tepiṇān, Ger. तप्ता tapta, Adj तप्तः taptaḥ, तप्तः tapyaḥ (short, because it ends in प् p, § 456, 6) ॥ Pass. तप्यते tapyate, Caus. तापयति tāpayati, Des. तितप्सति titapsati, Int. तातप्यते tātapyate, तातपि tātapī.

Note—With certain prepositions तप् tap takes the Ātmanepada (Pān I 3, 27), उत्तपते uttapate, चित्तपते चित्तपते, it shines. It has an active sense in the passive (i.e. Div. Ātm), if it refers to तपः tapah, austere devotion, तप्यते तपस्तपसः tapyate tapastapasah, the devotee performs austere devotion. In the sense of regretting (being burnt) it forms the Aor अतप्त atapta, अन्तरातप्त पापेन कर्मणा antarātapta pāpēna karmṇā, he was distressed by a sinful act (Colebr.)

29. चम् cham, to eat, (चम्.)

The following verbs lengthen their vowel in the special tenses (Pān VII 3, 75, 76) चम् cham, if preceded by चा ā, to rise, आचामति āchāmati, शिम् śhim, to spit, शीरति śhīrati (see No 35), क्रम् kram, to stride, क्रामति krāmati (see No 30), क्लम् klam, to tire, क्लमति klāmati, गुह् guh, to hide, गृह्ति gṛhṭi, follows a different rule, lengthening its vowel throughout, instead of taking Guna, when a vowel follows (Pān VI 4, 89)

P. चमति chamati, but after the prep चा ā, आचामति āchāmati ॥ Pf. १ अचाम achāma, अचामिष achamīṣa or अचमिष achamīṣa &c, I A. अचमोत् achamūt (§ 348*) ॥ Pt. चांतः chāntaḥ, Ger. चांत्वा chāntvā or अचमिषा achamīṣā, Adj अचमित्यः achamīṣyaḥ, चाम्यः chāmyaḥ (Pān. III. 1, 126) ॥ Caus. चामयति chāmayati (§ 462).

30. क्रम् kram, to stride, (क्रम्.)

क्रम् kram, to stride, ध्रुम् dhṛam, to shine, भ्रुम् bhṛam, to roam, क्रुम् krum, to fail, त्रमी trami, to tremble, त्रुद् trud, to cut, लृप् lṛsh, to desire, may take य ya in the special tenses. Hence क्राम्यति krāmyati or अक्रामि ākramī (Pān III 1, 70)

P. क्रामति krāmati or क्राम्यति krāmyati, I. अक्रामत् ākramāt or अक्राम्यत् ākramyāt ॥ Pf. अक्राम achakrama, I A. अक्रामोत् akramūt (§ 348*), F. क्रामिषति kramīṣati, P. F. क्रामिषा kramīṣa, B. क्राम्यत् kramyāt ॥

क्रम् kram lengthens its vowel in the general tenses (inf) of the Parasmaipada (Pāp. VII 3, 76). Hence क्रामति krāmati, but क्रामते kramate. It takes no intermediate इ i in the Ātm.; Fut. क्रम्यते kramyate, P. F. क्रंता krantā, Aor. अक्रंस्त akramsta; but some grammarians admit intermediate इ i.

Pt. क्रंतः krāntah, Perf. अक्रन्वान् achakranvān, Ger. क्रंत्वा krāntvā or क्रमिन्वा kramivā (§ 429), Adj. क्रमिन्वाः kramivāḥ ॥ Pass. क्रम्यते kramyate, Caus. क्रमयति kramayati, § 461, (after prep also क्रामयति krāmayati), Des. चक्रमिश्रति chakramishrati or चक्रमते chikramsate, Int. चंक्रम्यते chankramyate, चंक्रंति chanikranti.

Note—It is by no means certain that क्रम् kram in the Div class forms क्राम्यति krāmyati. It is not one of the eight Sam verbs (Pāṇ १११ ३, ७४), and in Pāṇ १११ ३, ७६, śyan is no longer valid. The Prāsāda gives क्रम्यति kramyati, but adds, स्वमते तु इयमपि दीपः क्राम्यतीति । The Śārasvatī decides for क्राम्यति krāmyati, giving the general rule (II १. १४५) शमादीनां दीपों भवति यकारे परे । and enumerating as शमादि, शम् दम् धम् धम् चम् क्रम् नद्.

31. यम् yam, to stop.

The roots गम् gam, to go, यम् yam, to cease, and इष् ish, to wish, substitute छ छक्छ for their final in the special tenses (Pāṇ १११ ३, ७७)

137. चि chi, to gather, (चिच्.)

The changes which roots undergo as causatives, take likewise place if the same roots are treated as Chur verbs. Hence according to § 463, II. 6, चि chi, as a Chur verb, may form P. चपयति chapayati or चययति chayayati, the vowel, however, remaining short because, as a Chur verb, चि chi is said to be मिच् mit (§ 462, note) ॥ I A. अचीचपत् achīchapat or अचीचयत् achīchayat, B. चयात् chapyāt or चयात् chayyāt.
